EAGLES YOUTH PARTNERSHIP

Established in 1995 by Eagles' owner Jeffrey Lurie and his wife, Christina, Eagles Youth Partnership (EYP) is the charitable wing of the club. Now in its fifth year of operation, EYP has developed into one of the most innovative and dynamic non-profit organizations in the Philadelphia region and the National Football League.

The Lurie's initial step was hiring Sarah Helfman as EYP's executive director to shape and mold the vision of EYP.

Focused on enriching the health and education of youth in the Greater Philadelphia area, EYP develops and administers programs that address hardship at its core. The priority is health and education because children need both to develop into involved, caring and successful citizens. Why involve the players? The reason is simple: it is with wide eyes and undivided attention that children respond to Eagles players. Eagles Youth Partnership maximizes and capitalizes upon such admiration. As such, the Eagles organization and its players team with our corporate and community partners to deliver services and messages to children that positively influence their lives.

In addition to launching the internationally acclaimed Eagles Eye Mobile program and the ground-breaking Eagles Read literacy project, EYP has made grant commitments totalling more than $750,000 to local community organizations, focused primarily on after-school and literacy programs. The largest such grant is a $465,000 commitment to Philadelphia Reads as its founding partner.

Below is a list of some of the most important projects undertaken by Eagles Youth Partnership.

The Annual Eagles Carnival

Sunday, August 29, 4-8 PM, Ticket Information: 215-463-5500

EYP's yearly Carnival extravaganza involves all of the players and coaches in a public celebration on the field at Veterans Stadium. It includes autographs, photographs, games, prizes, auctions, entertainment, and a live radio broadcast. Proceeds fund the activities of Eagles Youth Partnership including its numerous programs and grants.

Eagles Eye Mobile

Conceived in 1996, the program was the brainchild of Helfman and Jermaine Mayberry, the Eagles' 1996 first round draft pick. While growing up in Texas, Mayberry was unable to obtain the quality eye care that could have detected, at an early age, his underdeveloped optic nerve (amblyopia). As a result of that ailment, Mayberry is legally blind in his left eye.

Now, thanks to Mayberry (who initially contributed $100,000 to help fund the project), as well as to the ophthalmologists at Wills Eye Hospital, opticians from The Optical Shop at Wills, and the people at Independence Blue Cross and Pennsylvania Blue Shield, and at AREUFIT Health Services, EYP has provided free eye exams to more than 3,000 children in Philadelphia and Chester, PA. As a result of those exams, approximately half of those youngsters have been provided with free prescription glasses and hundreds more have been referred for treatment of serious eye ailments.

The Eye Mobile, a 31-foot, mobile eye clinic travels to public schools in the region each weekday during the fall. In addition to providing the substantial monetary contribution, Mayberry regularly accompanies the Eye Mobile during school visits on his one day off each week.

EAGLES YOUTH PARTNERSHIP

Eagles Read

It is one thing to see your books and quite another to know how to read them. Most children who cannot read at first grade level by the end of the first grade never overcome that problem. In fact, only one out of eight ever catch up to their classmates. As such, EYP has begun the Eagles Read program, a major literacy initiative targeting first through third graders. The goal of Eagles Read, which will involve over 100,000 youngsters, is to ensure that children can read well and independently by the time they enter the fourth grade. EYP's corporate partners have joined the Eagles as "reading coaches" in public schools where "Fourth Down Reading Clubs" will match the "coaches" with public school children.

EYP also has committed $465,000 to establish Philadelphia Reads and another $50,000 to the First Book program which provides new books to children who have never owned a book.

Eagles Top Achiever Awards

EYP created the Eagles Top Achiever Awards to recognize academic excellence among area high school football players. Those athletes who perform at a high level in the classroom are named "Top Achievers." They and their families are subsequently invited to an awards reception at Veterans Stadium where Eagles' owner Jeffrey Lurie, head coach Andy Reid, and a key player address and congratulate them. This past spring the honorees from Philadelphia, Chester, Allentown and Camden met personally with Eagles offensive lineman George Hegamin.

Eagles Unity Playground

If You Build It, They Will Play...

Franklinville Eagles Playground (1999)

Eagles Unity Playground (1998)

Nicetown Playground (1997)

For the past three years, the Eagles organization has shut down its operation for a day so that the entire Eagles family - ownership, players, coaches and staff - have joined with the City of Philadelphia and community organizations to build playgrounds and renovate parks in city neighborhoods. To date, EYP has invested more than $125,000 in this effort to create safe places for children to play.

Asthma

Asthma is the #1 health problem that keeps kids out of school. EYP and University of Pennsylvania Health Systems (UPHS) reach out to kids and their families to teach them how to manage asthma; now we can all breathe a little easier.

After-School Programs

As of June, 1999, EYP has invested well over $300,000 in support of the creation and expansion of after-school programs for children in the Greater Philadelphia region. These programs ensure that young children have a safe and enriching place to be in the after-school hours.

For more information about EYP, contact Sarah Helfman, executive director, 215-463-2500.

JEFFREY LURIE

Owner/Chief Executive Officer

On May 6, 1994, NFL owners voted to approve the sale of the Philadelphia Eagles from Norman Braman to Jeffrey Lurie. The approval came exactly one month after Lurie had reached an agreement to purchase the club for what was then the highest sum ever paid for a professional sports franchise. "It has been a life-long dream to own a professional football team," Lurie said following the owners' approval. "To own one in one of the greatest sports cities in America - Philadelphia - is the culmination of that dream."

Just one-and-a-half years later, Lurie was named NFL Owner of the Year by The Sporting News. Wrote TSN's Bill Plaschke, "The most decorated [owner] should be Lurie, who in his first full season has led with his heart as much as with his head...."

Added Leigh Steinberg, an influential agent for more than 60 NFL players, "[Jeffrey Lurie] is plenty smart and plenty ambitious. Jeff is going to be a major player in the NFL for a number of years."

Owner of the Year honors, however, were not - and are not - Lurie's goal. His goal remains winning championships. As such, a pair of 10-6 seasons and back-to-back playoff appearances in '95 and '96 - as well as the NFL's eighth-best record over a three-year span from '95-'97 - were of little consolation to Lurie. Nor would he stand pat after a '97 campaign that was deemed disappointing. No, Lurie instead embarked upon an effort to put the Birds back on the right track for the long term.

First, he aggressively pursued the highly-respected Tom Modrak and brought him on board as the Director of Football Operations. Modrak, who enjoyed remarkable success over a 20-year span with the Steelers, had turned down similar offers from other franchises before accepting the Eagles' post.

Lurie then added a vibrant, dynamic, young leader to the mix this past January when he handed the club's head coaching reins to 40-year old Andy Reid, a highly valued assistant under Mike Holmgren with the Green Bay Packers since 1992. Acknowledged by Holmgren as a key contributor to the success of the Packers in that span, Reid coached that club's offensive line and tight ends before tutoring three-time league MVP quarterback Brett Favre.

Lurie's aggressive pursuit of Modrak and Reid is mirrored by his philosophy regarding the club's pursuit of player personnel. By the '97 season, the Birds had inked five of the NFL's most sought after free agents in successive offseasons: RB Ricky Watters, FB Kevin Turner, CB Troy Vincent, C Steve Everitt, and K Chris Boniol.

Over the next two off-seasons, Lurie's Eagles continued their aggressive pursuit of free agents and trades ... like the March '98 trade that brought highly coveted DE Hugh Douglas to the team. This spring, Modrak and Reid landed a talented pair of wideouts on just the third day of free agency, signing Charles Johnson and Torrance Small.

Similarly, with the aid of Joe Banner, the club's Executive Vice President, Lurie has seen to it that the club has re-signed to long-term deals young, ascending players like CB Bobby Taylor, FS Brian Dawkins, and RB Duce Staley, Eagles' draft picks who have flourished.

Lurie's desire for the Eagles to be aggressive and committed to success is something deep seeded. "Growing up," said Lurie, "I admired the Celtics franchise of Red Auerbach. Players were proud to be playing for the organization. He was a model for me.... I admire the coaches that have bold dreams, that are not afraid to reach out and look for alternatives. I like owners and managers that don't necessarily make the easy choices, the safe choices, the ones the media would approve of."

Shortly after taking over the reins of the Eagles, Lurie described his philosophy of ownership as "a partnership - a partnership between the city, the fans, and the team."

Toward that end, Lurie and his wife, Christina, saw to it that the Eagles would make a difference in the Philadelphia community. Together, they oversaw the formation of Eagles Youth Partnership (EYP), the charitable wing of the Eagles. Now in its fifth year of operation, the award-winning EYP has developed into one of the most innovative and dynamic non-profit organizations in the Philadelphia region and the NFL.

Founded in 1995, EYP is focused on enriching the health and education of "at risk" youth in the Philadelphia region. As such, EYP along with the Eagles organization and its players unite with corporate and community partners to develop and administer programs that positively influence children's lives.

In addition to launching the internationally acclaimed Eagles Eye Mobile program and the ground-breaking Eagles Read literacy project, EYP has dedicated more than $1,000,000 worth of grants and resources to local community organizations, primarily in the area of after-school and literacy programs. The largest such grant is a $465,000 commitment to Philadelphia Reads as its founding partner. Moreover, with EYP as a driving force, the entire Eagles staff, along with the team's players and coaches, have worked side-by-side with community members and donated a total of $125,000 in order to build three playgrounds in inner-city Philadelphia: the Nicetown Playground in 1997 as part of the Presidents' Summit on Volunteerism, the Eagles Unity Playground in South Philadelphia's Mifflin Square Park in 1998 when EYP contributed manpower plus $75,000 to build that structure, and most recently, the Franklinville Eagles Playground in 1999.

"You can really be a catalyst for change," said Lurie. "People look to the sports team owners as leaders in the city. We can try to make a better life for more people. Philadelphia is a great example of a city with a lot to offer, but there's an underclass that has fewer and fewer opportunities. So, we really can make a difference, especially with children."

Indeed, Eagles Youth Partnership already has been recognized as an organization that does make a difference. In just its first three years, Eagles Youth Partnership was presented with the Great Friend to Kids award and the Louis Braille award for its efforts on behalf of the youth of Philadelphia.

In addition to their work with Eagles Youth Partnership, the Lurie's interest in social issues is well known as both are extremely active in the local Philadelphia charitable community. Lurie himself was the 1995 recipient of the Small Miracles Award from the Center for Autistic Children. He also received the Torch of Liberty Award conferred by the Anti-Defamation League of Philadelphia in 1996. One year later he was honored by Philadelphia's Operation Understanding, a renowned group that fosters interracial harmony among future leaders of the African-American and Jewish communities. Together, Mr. & Mrs. Lurie were presented with the aforementioned 1996 "Great Friends to Kids" award by Philadelphia's Please Touch Museum in recognition of their contributions toward enriching the lives of young children.

The 47-year old Lurie also has taken his place at the forefront of a new breed of team owners who care about their players' futures. It was at his initiative that the Eagles became just the third sports franchise (along with the Packers and the Toronto Blue Jays) to provide players with a revolutionary program entitled "Invest in Yourself." The program enables players to better prepare for careers, and life, when their playing days are over.

Said Bob LaMonte, the program's founder, "The response from most teams is the same. They think it's a great program but that it costs too much. But when Jeffrey heard about it, he said he wanted it for his players. He's spending a lot of money to do this, and the team doesn't get anything out of it. It's purely for the players and their families.

"That's significant. The Packers are run by a board of directors, the Blue Jays are owned by a corporation. Jeffrey is the first individual owner to reach into his pocket and pay for this just because he believed it would be good for the players. The Eagles will spend more than a half-million dollars to make the program available to their players."

Said head coach Andy Reid of Lurie's decision to back the program, "This shows that the organization doesn't care about our players just as football players, but as people, too."

When Lurie purchased the Eagles he said, "I understand that NFL football is a form of entertainment, but I am also aware that nothing is more entertaining than winning."

The Birds' owner is certainly familiar with entertainment, having served as the president and chief executive officer of Chestnut Hill Productions, a Los Angeles-based film company, since forming it in 1985. Chestnut Hill has produced several movies, including the HBO hit, Blindside, and the widely acclaimed State of Emergency. Among the other films produced by the company are Sweet Hearts Dance (1988) starring Susan Sarandon and Don Johnson, I Love You to Death (1990) with Kevin Kline, Tracey Ullman, and William Hurt, and V.I. Warshawski (1991) featuring Kathleen Turner. (Lurie himself had a cameo role in a 1998 made-for-TV Disney movie, playing a friend of sanitation worker Barney Gorman [Tony Danza], who signs a kicking contract with the Eagles in The Garbage Picking, Field Goal Kicking, Philadelphia Phenom.)

In addition to his film work, Lurie's other business interests include, among others, international publishing, specialty retailing, and movie exhibition through his investment in Harcourt General and its majority ownership of the Neiman Marcus Group and GC Companies. He is a member of Harcourt General's board of directors.

Lurie currently serves as a member of the NFL's Finance and Expansion committees as well as on the League's Special Committee on Opportunities/ Challenges. He also serves on the Board of Directors of NFL Charities and is a key figure locally as a member of the Executive Committee of the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce. In addition, he is a director of the Autism Research Foundation in Boston, director of the National Alliance for Autism Research in Princeton, NJ, and has served as a trustee of Clark University.

Prior to entering business, Lurie was an educator, serving as an adjunct assistant professor of social policy at Boston University, and before that as a teacher at Westford (MA) Academy where he founded that school's alternative education program. As a student, he earned a B.A. from Clark University, a Master's in psychology from Boston University, and a Ph.D in social policy from Brandeis University. In his doctoral thesis, Lurie examined the depiction of women in contemporary film.

Born September 8, 1951, in Boston, MA, Lurie grew up in nearby West Newton. He now resides in the Philadelphia area with his wife and their two children.

JOE BANNER

*Executive Vice President/
Chief Operating Officer*

In June of 1999, the Eagles announced the promotion of Joe Banner from executive vice president to chief operating officer/executive vice president. In this role, the native of Chestnut Hill, MA, serves as the top executive beneath team owner Jeffrey Lurie and will continue to supervise the day-to-day operations of the franchise while also helping shape the Eagles organization of tomorrow.

"While the fans may primarily see Joe's function as that of an expert 'capologist,' that is very much an understated view of his role with the Eagles," said Lurie. "Joe's role is much larger in scope than that. He is, in fact, one who helped shape - and will continue to shape - the direction of this organization, both on and off the field, on a day-to-day basis."

The 46-year old Banner (2/13/53) has played a vital role in the operation of the Eagles since Lurie became owner of the club on May 17, 1994. Said Lurie at the time, "Joe will provide this club with a great deal of vision. He has an extremely diverse and successful background that he brings to the Eagles."

Today, Lurie repeatedly says of his first hire as Eagles' owner, "Joe has been invaluable in terms of helping oversee the operation of the Eagles. He has been a major contributor in numerous ways."

Among his many responsibilities are serving as the club's salary cap management expert, contract negotiator, and as a point-person on the development of a new stadium and training facility. Banner has also aided in the formation of Eagles Youth Partnership (EYP), the club's critically acclaimed non-profit, charitable wing. Moreover, Banner has played a vital role in the restructuring of the club's football operations and front office - helping to make it one of the most progressive and dynamic organizations in professional sports. Banner also modernized the club's computer systems and entire business operation.

In subsequent years he also oversaw the hiring of a corporate sales & marketing force well on its way to being recognized as one of the finest such departments in professional sports, and orchestrated the well-received move of the club's summer training camp to Lehigh University.

Most recently, Banner helped secure state funding for the construction of a new football-based stadium as well as approval from Philadelphia's City Council on a site for the Nova Care Complex, a new state-of-the-art, office and training facility that will serve as the club's corporate headquarters.

With regard to the Nova Care Complex, Banner's efforts helped the Eagles lock up one of the largest corporate partnership deals in modern professional sports history, a 25-year, $60 million deal with NovaCare, a nationally recognized leader in the field of physical therapy and rehabilitation services. Under the terms of this unique agreement the team will construct, own, and operate the state-of-the-art NovaCare Complex. The Complex will house the Eagles' front office and football staffs as well as the club's practice facility (including locker rooms, meeting rooms, practice fields, etc.). In addition, the Nova Care Complex also will house the new, technologically advanced NovaCare Center for Rehabilitation Excellence which will be open to the public.

As for the pursuit of a new stadium, "This has been one of the most important projects for us," said Banner recently. "Without progress on the stadium and facility fronts, it would have been impossible for us to recruit the kind of quality coach we have now in Andy Reid, to sign some of the free agents we did this year, and be financially competitive now and in the next few years. It was a much bigger problem than people realized. Anybody we got on the phone - coaching applicants and free agents - wanted to spend a significant amount of time talking about our facilities in general and our stadium in particular."

Banner also assisted Lurie in the recruitment of then Steelers' Director of College Scouting, Tom Modrak in 1998 and the hiring of head coach Andy Reid this past January. Together, Banner and Lurie persuaded the highly-respected Modrak, who had turned down similar offers from other franchises, to leave the Steelers after 20 years in order to become the Eagles' Director of Football Operations.

Said Lurie when discussing Banner's promotion to executive vice president in 1998, "Joe has done an extraordinary job. In fact, Joe's shrewd cap management and creative deal structuring enabled us to be the only club to sign a top quality, free agent 'transition' player away from another team in 1995 and 1996 (Ricky Watters from the 49ers in '95 and Troy Vincent from the Dolphins in '96)...Joe's work in this area has earned him recognition around the League and in the media as one of the top cap management experts in the NFL."

That sentiment was echoed by a USA Today poll of general managers and NFL executives which listed Banner as one of the league's most creative and innovative salary cap management experts and contract negotiators.

Added Lurie, "Joe has developed a very unique and fair approach to contract negotiations that has put this organization on new footing with agents and the players they represent. That was a key goal of mine when I purchased the club and Joe has helped see that to fruition. Again, however, Joe's role, his contributions to the organization, are much broader than just his work in the area of the cap and contract negotiations. He also has been our prime liaison to the Governor's Stadium Task Force, and to the City of Philadelphia with regard to our efforts to obtain both a new stadium and a new training facility. Joe also has played a significant role in the hiring of our front office executives, and has been invaluable in his efforts to help the Philadelphia community.... In general, Joe is one who has greatly helped shape the Eagles organization of today and one who will continue to help point us in the right direction."

After graduating from Denison University in 1975, Banner became a sports producer and reporter at Philadelphia radio station WCAU-AM 1210, and a national sports correspondent for the CBS Radio Network. After several years, he left the broadcasting industry and started his own business, Designers Clothing, Ltd. The company prospered and grew under Banner's guidance and in 1992 he sold the business.

In January, 1993, Banner began working with Lurie in the latter's quest to purchase the New England Patriots. When that transaction did not materialize, Lurie - again with the aid of Banner - successfully pursued the Eagles.

At the same time, Banner, who has a long history of community service, particularly through his devotion of time and effort to non-profit organizations, was extremely involved with groups such as Big Brothers, Children's Hospital of Boston and City Year, a youth-based organization that functions like an urban Peace Corps. City Year, in fact, is the program on which President Clinton is basing his National Service Program. Locally, Banner was instrumental in bringing City Year to Philadelphia and currently serves as co-chair of the City Year Philadelphia board. Said City Year's executive director, Jim Balfanz, earlier this year, "Joe is thoughtful, caring, creative, idealistic, and passionate. He has worked extraordinarily hard to give something back to the community."

Since returning to Philadelphia in 1994, Banner's commitment to the community has only grown. First and foremost, Banner has helped form EYP, the charitable wing of the Eagles focused on enriching the health and education of "at-risk" youth in the Philadelphia region. In 1995, Banner, a long-time advocate of public service, was appointed by President Bill Clinton to a panel of ten judges nationwide who in turn selected the 15 recipients of the prestigious President's Service Award. Today, he also serves on the board of the Maxwell Football Club and the Philadelphia Convention and Visitors Bureau, and is actively involved with numerous other civic and charitable endeavors.

Banner and his wife, Helaine, reside in the Philadelphia area with their daughter, Jill (10) and their two sons, Jason (4) and Jonathan (2).

TOM MODRAK

Director of Football Operations

On May 15, 1998, the Eagles named Tom Modrak as director of football operations. In this role he oversees the team's pro and college scouting departments as well as the club's video, training, and equipment staffs.

"As an organization, we are thrilled to have someone with a track record as impressive as Tom Modrak's," said Eagles' owner Jeffrey Lurie on the day he hired Modrak. "Joe Banner and I have treated this as a crucial hiring in our effort to reach our long-term goals. We identified Tom as the best candidate - a hard worker and a great talent evaluator - and we were then able to bring him on board."

In just one year, Modrak has identified a solid nucleus of talent on the Eagles' roster. After evaluating that talent, Modrak encouraged the club to lock-up FS Brian Dawkins, CB Bobby Taylor and DEs Mike Mamula and Greg Jefferson to long-term deals. Then, after securing the defense, Modrak and new head coach Andy Reid, and their respective staffs, addressed the offense during the spring of '99 by adding veteran free agent QB Doug Pederson, WRs Charles Johnson and Torrance Small, and TE Jamie Asher. The club then re-signed third-year RB Duce Staley, a 1,000-yard rusher in '98, to a contract extension that will keep him in an Eagles' uniform through the 2004 season.

Said Andy Reid on January 11, 1999, the day he went from being a Packers' assistant to becoming the Eagles' head coach, "What a great opportunity this is to take the Pittsburgh philosophy that Tom has and mix it together with this Green Bay thing and come out with the Philadelphia Eagles. That's a pretty good formula right there."

Modrak joined the Eagles after 20 seasons with the Steelers. He began his stint with Pittsburgh as a part-time scout in 1973 and then spent six years with the BLESTO scouting combine before joining the Steelers on a full-time basis in 1979. From 1979-86, Modrak served as the Steelers' pro talent scout before being elevated to the position of director of pro scouting for two seasons. Modrak next assumed the role of Steelers' college scouting director, a job he held for nine years until joining the Eagles.

With Modrak at the helm of Pittsburgh's college personnel department, the Steelers ranked among the league's best at mining talent from the NFL draft. Since 1989, the Steelers' drafts produced no less than eight Pro Bowl players, including LB Levon Kirkland, DB Carnell Lake, NT Joel Steed, LB Chad Brown and OT Leon Searcy.

During Modrak's 20-year stint in Pittsburgh, the Steelers reached the playoffs 11 times and joined the 49ers as the only clubs to reach postseason play in each of the last six seasons. The Steelers, who put together a string of four consecutive division titles from '94-'97, won the '95 AFC Championship and advanced to Super Bowl XXX vs. Dallas.

A graduate of Indiana (PA) University, Modrak received his bachelor's degree in geology in 1965. In 1972, he earned a master's degree in physical education from the University of West Virginia.

Tom and his wife, Sandy, have two grown daughters, Stephanie and Erin.

LEN KOMOROSKI

Senior Vice President - Chief of Business Operations, Eagles Sports and Entertainment

On April 15, 1996, the Eagles made a significant addition to the club's front office with the hiring of Len Komoroski as Vice President-Sales and Marketing. Fifteen months later, with the Eagles sales and marketing efforts earning national acclaim, Komoroski was elevated to the position of Senior Vice President. He was recently named the Chief of Business Operations of Eagles Sports and Entertainment. This newly-created entity will manage the Eagles sales and marketing functions as well as the management and operation of the anticipated new football-based stadium, in addition to the business operations of other associated properties.

"Under Len's guidance, we have developed one of the most aggressive and visionary sales teams in all of professional sports," said Eagles' owner Jeffrey Lurie. "Sales and marketing is an enormously important aspect of professional sports in the '90s and the Eagles will be at the forefront where those areas are concerned. We have made no secret of the fact that we want to be as aggressive in marketing our club as our players and coaches are on the field."

"When Len came on board, he was charged with overseeing - and, basically, reinventing - our sales and marketing efforts. In the process he brought with him a level of skill and wide-ranging vision rarely seen."

"With the type of track record Len has, and with his knowledge of the marketplace, we anticipate him having a very positive effect on the Philadelphia Eagles," added Joe Banner, the Eagles' Executive Vice President. "His experience is so vast in terms of sponsorship, marketing, the leasing of luxury suites and club seats, facility development and management, and the maximization of revenue streams."

With the Eagles, Komoroski oversees all sales and marketing aspects of the organization, including corporate sales, broadcasting, Penthouse Suites, ticketing, advertising and promotions, merchandising, and event presentation, while assisting in the team's facility development and administrative efforts.

Over the past three years, Komoroski has enhanced the organization's sales and marketing capabilities by recruiting some of the top marketing executives within their areas of concentration in the sports field. During that span, he also spearheaded the creation of the Eagles Television Network, developed one of the largest local television packages in the NFL, and brought in-house other properties such as publications. In addition, the franchise has dramatically grown its event capabilities through the Eagles Training Camp, and the advent of "Eagles Fridays" and the "Eagles Fan Fair," as well as created a merchandising division. In 1997, he was a key figure in securing a 25-year, multi-million dollar partnership with NovaCare that will lead to a new state-of-the-art corporate headquarters/practice facility for the Eagles.

Komoroski came to the Eagles from the Cleveland Lumberjacks of the International Hockey League, with whom he served as the club's Senior Vice President-Chief Operating Officer. In that role, Komoroski oversaw all business operations for the franchise, including sales and marketing and financial and administrative functions while also serving as an alternate governor for the team. He also was a minority shareholder of the club.

During his first season with the Lumberjacks, the franchise realized a 60% increase in attendance - the largest such year-to-year increase in professional hockey, as well as a 300% gain in corporate sales revenue. The over 350,000 fans who attended 1995 'Jacks games helped the club set a Cleveland pro hockey single season total attendance record, which spans 45 years of pro hockey in the market. While with the 'Jacks, Komoroski was a member of the IHL's Marketing Advisory Committee, and was also runner-up in the League's executive of the year vote.

Prior to his tenure in Cleveland, Komoroski spent six and one-half seasons with the NBA's Minnesota Timberwolves and their facility, Target Center, serving in a senior management role during the startup of both entities and later as the senior sales and marketing official for both groups. It was with considerable input and guidance from Komoroski that the Target Center became one of the first facilities in pro sports to bear a corporate name from its inception. During his tenure there, the Timberwolves set an NBA all-time attendance record with an average of 26,000 fans per game during their 1989-90 inaugural season and annually ranked among the NBA leaders in both attendance and corporate revenues.

Under his direction, the Wolves were also highly acclaimed for their broadcast, game presentation, and advertising and promotional efforts. He also oversaw the organization's efforts for the 1994 NBA All-Star Weekend at Target Center. During the last two years of his tenure there, the Target Center was tabbed as one of the top six facilities in the nation for gross revenues and event activity by Pollstar.

Komoroski also oversaw an eight-state region as a regional manager for the Miller Sports Group in 1987-88, developing and supervising Miller's relationships with the NBA, NFL, NHL, Major League Baseball, NASCAR, National Hot Rod Association, and minor league baseball properties. Prior to his stint with Miller, Komoroski was an assistant general manager of the Minnesota Strikers of the Major Indoor Soccer League from 1986-87. From 1982-86, Komoroski performed in various sales and marketing management positions with the Pittsburgh Civic Arena Corporation, which included the NHL's Pittsburgh Penguins, and the MISL's Pittsburgh Spirit.

Komoroski serves on the board of the Philadelphia Sports Congress. A graduate of Duquesne University, Len and his wife, Denise, have three daughters, Kristin, Kelly, and Jamie.

SARAH HELFMAN

Executive Director - Eagles Youth Partnership

When Eagles owner Jeffrey Lurie and his wife, Christina, established Eagles Youth Partnership (EYP) as the team's non-profit charitable wing in 1995, they named Sarah Helfman as its Executive Director. Now in her fifth year, Helfman already has shaped and molded Eagles Youth Partnership into a powerful vehicle through which the Eagles, their players, and the program's corporate partners have made -- and will continue to make -- a meaningful difference in children's lives. Tackling children's health and education in the Greater Philadelphia region, EYP develops and administers programs that address hardship at its core.

"Sarah's energy, her commitment, and her drive," said Jeffrey Lurie, "have helped make Eagles Youth Partnership one of the most innovative and dynamic non-profit organizations in Philadelphia and the NFL. Sarah has been with EYP since its inception. She hit the ground running and her pace has not slowed since. Her commitment to EYP extends beyond a professional level. With Sarah, EYP and its direction is an intensely personal commitment. That is why she has been, and will continue to be, such a driving force behind EYP's focus -- helping improve the health and well being of Philadelphia-area youngsters."

Helfman has devoted much of her career to working with young people. She has helped develop two National Service AmeriCorps Programs, has served as Chief Clinician of a residential treatment center for adolescent males in the juvenile justice system and as the lead advocate of a Rape Crisis Center.

On the corporate end, Helfman spent three years in Europe, advising corporations, groups, and individuals on their charitable giving in England, Ireland, and Russia.

Today, in addition to her work with Eagles Youth Partnership, Helfman sits on the advisory boards of the Philadelphia Reads program, the Books Not Guns campaign, and the Youth Development Council.

A graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Madison, Helfman earned her B.A. in English Literature and her M.S. degree in Counseling Psychology. She also holds certificates as a trainer of diversity, conflict resolution and perceptual processing. Having lived in four countries, she now is happily settled with her family in Haverford, PA.

For more information on Eagles Youth Partnership, please refer to pp. 6-7 in this media guide.

ANDY REID

Head Coach

On January 11, 1999, Andy Reid was named the 20th head coach in Eagles history. At 41 years of age, Reid also became the second youngest head coach in the NFL behind 36-year old Jon Gruden of the Oakland Raiders.

Reid comes to the Eagles after spending the last seven seasons as an assistant coach with the Green Bay Packers under Mike Holmgren.

With Green Bay, Reid helped the Pack reach the playoffs six straight times from 1993-98. During that span, Green Bay defeated the New England Patriots in Super Bowl XXXI and reached the NFL's title game again the following year after earning the NFC crown with a victory over the San Francisco 49ers.

During the Packers' remarkable run, Reid played a significant role in helping put together that club's renowned offensive attack. Indeed, Reid put his signature on nearly every part of the Packers' offense while coaching three different positions and assisting Holmgren and offensive coordinator Sherman Lewis with their game-planning duties.

Said team owner Jeffrey Lurie of the Birds' decision to hand the club's coaching reins over to Reid, "By the time Andy finished his interview, we all looked around and sensed that his commanding presence and his sense of organization was pretty dynamic."

Added Lurie on the day of Reid's hiring, "We are extremely gratified to be able to bring to Philadelphia a guy like Andy who possesses such leadership abilities and integrity, a strong sense of organizational responsibility and such football acumen."

"Andy has a great football background, a great football mind, and a strong reputation in NFL circles," said Tom Modrak, the Eagles' director of football operations. "His enthusiasm for the game and his organizational abilities are certainly outstanding qualities, qualities that have me really looking forward to working with him."

"In terms of Andy's ideas on how we can take this program and get it headed in the right direction, I am extremely impressed."

Indeed it was Reid who, in his very first press conference as head coach, said, "What a great opportunity [we have here] to take the Pittsburgh Steelers philosophy that Tom has - another winning tradition - and mix it together with this Green Bay thing and come out with the Philadelphia Eagles. That's a pretty good formula right there.

That's something that certainly drew my attention [when considering this job].

"I expect to work hand-in-hand with Tom in the personnel phase of this operation. Tom has opened that door. We have what we feel is a great plan that we're putting together."

Reid, who has an extensive and diverse coaching background, most recently enjoyed a two-year stint as the Packers' quarterbacks coach, working with all-pro Brett Favre during the 1997-98 seasons. Reid took over that role in February of '97 after Marty Mornhinweg departed Green Bay to become the San Francisco 49ers' offensive coordinator under head coach Steve Mariucci, the original QB coach on Holmgren's Packer staff. Just weeks earlier, in December of '96, Holmgren made known the degree of respect he had for Reid's knowledge and talent as a coach when he quietly placed the "supervisory" tag on the then-tight ends coach. That tag would prevent NFL clubs from hiring Reid as anything other than a head coach unless given permission to do so by Holmgren. (A year earlier, when Mariucci had left the Packers' to take the head coaching job at Cal-Berkeley, Reid was offered - but turned down - an opportunity to become the Golden Bears' offensive coordinator. Then, when Mariucci became the 49ers' head coach in January of '97, he expressed interest in bringing Reid to San Francisco as offensive coordinator. Holmgren, however, had already placed the "supervisory" tag on Reid and said that, if the 49ers were to seek permission to approach Reid, he would deny the request.)

During Reid's first campaign overseeing the Pack's passers, Green Bay won its second straight NFC crown and Favre garnered league MVP honors for the third consecutive season, this time sharing the distinction with Detroit running back Barry Sanders.

Prior to tutoring Green Bay's quarterbacks, Reid achieved notable success overseeing the Packers' tight ends, while at the same time assisting offensive line coach Tom Lovat. Under Reid's watch, the Pack's tight ends were a consistently productive lot. Reid's charges were particularly effective in 1995 and '96, respectively, when young Mark Chmura and veteran Keith Jackson earned trips to the Pro Bowl. Chmura's selection to the Pro Bowl (the first for a Packers' tight end since 1983) came after he hauled in 54 passes, Jackson's after he made 10 TD receptions and played a major role in the Pack's Super Bowl XXXI triumph over the New England Patriots.

In fact, Reid, who first built a reputation for developing outstanding offensive lines while coaching in the college ranks, helped Chmura and predecessor Jackie Harris put up near-record numbers following his arrival in Green Bay. After Harris's 55 receptions in 1993 fell just one shy of the club's single-season record for tight ends, Chmura followed that with his Pro Bowl campaign in 1995.

It was in Reid's first years with Green Bay that Holmgren urged the young assistant to learn the entire offensive system inside and out, not just the roles of the offensive line and tight ends. "Mike kept telling me, 'You've done that (coached the offensive line). Strive to learn the whole offense. Set your goals in that direction.'"

"Kind of shoot for the stars in essence, learn the whole package."

Reid later admitted that he so thoroughly enjoyed working with offensive linemen that he did not take Holmgren's advice to heart immediately. "When you've been raised the offensive line way [as a player and coach], I guess you'd say that's your own little world there. Maybe that was a comfort zone."

Soon, however, he began to learn the intricacies of the Packers' offense as they applied to each position, absorbing knowledge of the running game from Lovat and of the passing game from Holmgren and Lewis.

A tackle and guard at Brigham Young from 1979-81, Reid entered the coaching ranks as a graduate assistant on Lavell Edwards' 1982 BYU staff. It was at BYU, in fact, that Reid met and worked alongside Holmgren, who served as the Cougars' QB coach from 1982-85.

Reid next moved to San Francisco State in 1983 and helped the Gators lead the nation in passing and total offense for three consecutive years (1983-85) while serving as that school's offensive coordinator, offensive line coach and strength coach. He then continued to build his coaching reputation by developing quality offensive lines at Northern Arizona, Texas-El Paso, and Missouri.

Born Andrew Walter Reid in Los Angeles on March 19, 1958, to Elizabeth (a radiologist) and Walter (an artist), Andy has a brother 10 years his senior, Reginald. Andy attended John Marshall High in LA and later matriculated at BYU where he earned both a bachelor's degree in physical education and a master's degree in professional leadership in physical education and athletics.

Reid and his wife, Tammy, who met at BYU, have been married 17 years. The couple has five children, each of whom was born in a different state - sons Garrett, 15 (4/13/83); Britt, 13, (4/28/85); and Spencer, 6 (6/9/92); and daughters Crosby, 10 (3/17/88); and Drew Ann, 8 (3/9/90).

life. "I don't spend a lot of time going out with the guys," he has said. "I don't spend a lot of time going bowling, unless it's with my family, or fishing, unless it's with my family. Everything I do outside of [football], I try to direct toward my family."

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT ANDY REID ...

Green Bay Packers QB Brett Favre:

On the input Reid had in game-planning with Green Bay: "Andy was very involved. Mike [Holmgren] called the plays to a large extent. But Mike was not involved in the whole installation of the game plan during the week. He really wasn't. Andy was kind of the computer behind it all.

"I think Andy studies the game better than anyone and knows situations better than anyone. There are a lot of different things that go into this offense and a lot of different situations that factor into winning games and Andy was probably the sharpest of anyone.

"I mean there were times that Mike would call a play from his own personal game plan and Andy would have to correct him. (laughing) I can say that now that Mike's gone to Seattle. But that's true. I know Andy will probably hear this and deny it. But it's the truth. Really, I'd look to Andy in crucial situations before I looked to anyone else. (laughing) Like I said, I can say that now that I don't have to worry about my job."

On Reid leaving the Packers:

"The bad thing about having great coaches is that you lose them. And I've lost three in Steve Mariucci, Marty Mornhinweg, and Andy. It's obvious what those first two guys have done in San Francisco and I have no doubt that Andy will do the same type of job. I've been fortunate because all three of those coaches have not only been great coaches but great friends as well. I liked going into work and being in meetings with them."

On the fact that Reid becomes the Eagles head coach without having been an offensive coordinator:

"The great thing about Andy is he can overcome anything. He can step right in and, right away, get the respect of the Eagles players and put them in a position to win.... If he has some players around him, he'll do a good job."

San Francisco 49ers head coach Steve Mariucci:

"He's not much of a skier since he blew out his knee while skiing with me in Michigan, but he's a heck of a football coach.

"Andy's got an outstanding football mind and a real love for the game. He's also a great family man.

"He has a great grasp of the West Coast offense and he's a very versatile coach. He's coached offensive line, tight ends, quarterbacks; he's truly capable of teaching and implementing this system. Andy is going to make an excellent head coach."

Green Bay Packers General Manager Ron Wolf:

"He's certainly worked his way up and done a tremendous job here with the Packers in all phases. He's a very, very impressive person. Andy has an excellent work ethic, great knowledge of the game, and he's a very good evaluator of talent."

Green Bay Packers TE Mark Chmura

"Andy's a perfectionist. He prepares you real well. With me, he basically taught me step by step ... like trying to walk."

ANDY REID ON THE COACHES WHO INFLUENCED HIM THE MOST DURING HIS CAREER:

Lavelle Edwards (head coach, BYU)

"He said, 'The one thing you need to do is this: whether you're an assistant coach reporting to a head coach or a business person reporting to a boss, if you go to the head person with a problem, make sure you have a well thought out answer already prepared.'

"He's right. That's life right there. That is how you need to go through life.

"I also learned about values from Lavelle. He is as honest a man as there is and he's living his life that way despite being in the cut-throat world of college football. He does his job with incredible integrity."

Vic Rowen (former head coach, San Francisco St.)

"The work ethic, the teaching part, the detailed way to approach this business ... that's what I learned from Vic Rowen."

"He was the oldest head coach in college football at the time I worked for him and yet, whenever, wherever he saw an interesting play on TV - whether it was an NFL game, a CFL game, or a college game - he'd call up that coach and ask him to go through it with him in detail. He collected playbooks from all over the place. He had a library of them."

"Mike really is a mix of Lavelle and Vic. He had worked for both of them. So, I think a lot of what I saw myself when I worked under Lavelle and Vic, I saw in Mike when I worked with him at Green Bay. Plus, Mike and I are somewhat similar in terms of our styles and our values."

ROD DOWHOWER

Offensive Coordinator

One day after becoming head coach of the Eagles, Andy Reid named 55-year old Rod Dowhower as the club's offensive coordinator.

"The thing Rod brings to the table, in addition to having been a part of this offense early on in his career," said Reid, "is that he's one of the fine offensive minds in the National Football League. He's been a head coach, a coordinator, a quarterbacks coach ... he's kind of done it all and is very well respected throughout the league for his knowledge."

Over the course of a 33-year coaching career that includes 18 seasons in the NFL ranks and another 15 on the collegiate level, Dowhower has learned the ropes from some of football's most innovative and successful minds including Bill Walsh, Joe Gibbs, Don Coryell, Dick Vermeil, and Dan Reeves.

A former All-America quarterback himself at San Diego State University, Dowhower has helped develop a plethora of successful pro and college passers, including John Elway, Mark Rypien, Neil Lomax, Brian Sipe, Jim Hart, Turk Schonert, Vinny Testaverde, Steve Dils, and Chris Miller.

The quarterbacks coach of the Washington Redskins from 1990-92, Dowhower helped that club earn one Super Bowl title and three straight playoff appearances. In fact, Dowhower played an integral role in the success of the 1991 Redskins, who scored a league-best 485 points and capped that season with a victory over Buffalo in Super Bowl XXVI. That Super Bowl win was fittingly crowned when Dowhower's protegee, QB Mark Rypien, earned game MVP honors after passing for 292 yards and 2 TDs. Rypien also earned a trip to the Pro Bowl and numerous 1st team All-NFC honors that year when he guided the Redskins to a 17-2 record overall while posting remarkable numbers as a passer - 3,564 yards passing (1st in NFC), a league-high +17 TD-to-INT ratio (28 vs. 11), and the league's second best passer rating (97.9).

The Cardinals' offensive coordinator under Jim Hanifan from 1982-84, Dowhower helped the Big Red's 1984 unit sport the top-ranked passing attack in the NFC (3rd in the NFL with 266.4 ypg). That same Cards' offense set nine club records as QB Neil Lomax (345-560-4,619-19TDs) and WR Roy Green (78 catches for a league-high 1,555 yards) earned trips to the Pro Bowl. Dowhower's high-powered attack also saw running back Ottis Anderson grab 70 passes that season.

After earning All-America honors as a quarterback under Coryell at San Diego State, where he also was a teammate of Joe Gibbs, Dowhower began his coaching career as an assistant under Coryell. He spent the 1966-72 seasons on Coryell's SDSU staff and subsequently followed Coryell to the NFL's St. Louis Cardinals in 1973. Dowhower went on to serve a stint with the Denver Broncos and a second tour of duty with the Cardinals before becoming head coach of the Indianapolis Colts from 1985-86.

Dowhower has helped develop a plethora of successful pro and college passers, including John Elway, Mark Rypien, Neil Lomax and Brian Sipe.

Following his two seasons in Indianapolis, the Santa Barbara, CA, native served as an offensive coordinator and/or quarterbacks coach with the Atlanta Falcons, Washington Redskins, and Cleveland Browns before returning to the college ranks as the head coach at Vanderbilt.

Most recently, Dowhower spent the 1997-98 campaigns with the New York Giants, tutoring quarterbacks under head coach Jim Fassel.

In addition to his tenure as the head man at Vanderbilt, Dowhower also was a college head coach at Stanford (1979). Other coaching stops on the collegiate level included stints as an assistant at UCLA (1974-75 under Vermeil), Boise State (1976), and Stanford (1977-78 under Walsh).

It was during his tenure at Stanford that Dowhower recruited and coached John Elway. While there, he also tutored future NFL great wideout James Lofton. Years earlier he had primed two SDSU receivers for future stardom in the pro ranks, Haven Moses and Isaac Curtis.

Born April 5, 1943 in Ord, NE, Dowhower attended Santa Barbara (CA) High School (the same school that another great quarterback, Randall Cunningham, would later attend). Dowhower and his wife, Nancy, have two sons, Brian and Deron.

JIM JOHNSON

Defensive Coordinator

defensive coordinator. A veteran of 13 seasons as an NFL assistant, Johnson most recently spent 1998 as the Seattle Seahawks' linebackers coach.

"I truly believe Jim is one of the few people who can teach the load defense - various different defenses packaged into one," said Reid. "He is able to teach that as well or better than anyone in the NFL. He has a system - it's a very unique system - and he is as well respected around the league as anyone. I think we're getting a great teacher, a great person, and a great defensive scheme all in one."

"The Seahawks actually hired Jim last year for his expertise with fire zone principles. That's part of the overall package I'm talking about. Jim is able to combine fire zone concepts with base concepts, with blitzes, and with two-gap and penetration techniques up front. He's able to take that whole package and make it work. He's tremendous."

In 1998, Johnson helped the Seahawks lead the AFC and rank second in the NFL with 53 sacks, including an NFL-best 16.5 by defensive end Michael Sinclair and 7.5 by linebacker Chad Brown, both of whom were selected to the Pro Bowl. The Seahawks' defense also logged 10 touchdowns in '98 (including eight interceptions returned for scores, 2nd most in NFL history).

Johnson joined the Seahawks after a four-year tenure with the Indianapolis Colts. After serving as that club's linebackers coach for two seasons, Johnson was promoted to defensive coordinator in 1996. His 1997 unit ranked 4th in the NFL in pass defense and 10th overall in terms of total yards allowed.

Prior to joining the Colts, Johnson spent eight seasons as an assistant with the Arizona Cardinals (1986-93). After overseeing the Cards' defensive line for four seasons, Johnson excelled as the Big Red's secondary coach. It was in that role that Johnson helped a pair of his charges, safety Tim McDonald and cornerback Robert Massey, reach the Pro Bowl. At the same time, another of Johnson's young players, cornerback Aeneas Williams, began his rise to stardom. It was under Johnson's tutelage in 1991 that Williams became the first rookie cornerback to lead the league in interceptions (6) since 1981.

Johnson began his coaching career as head coach at Missouri Southern (1967-68), before serving four-year tenures at Drake as defensive coordinator and Indiana as linebackers coach. From 1977-83, Johnson served as defensive coordinator and assistant head coach at Notre Dame, a stint that included a national championship in 1977.

An all-conference quarterback himself at Missouri (where he played in the same backfield with former Colts' executive Bill Tobin), Johnson went on to spend two seasons with the Buffalo Bills as a tight end (1963-64).

A native of Maywood, IL, the 57-year old Johnson (born 5/26/41) has a bachelor's degree in education and a master's degree in physical education from Missouri. Today, he and his wife, Vicky, reside in suburban Philadelphia. They have two children, Scott (34) and Michelle (31).

JOHN HARBAUGH

Special Teams

John Harbaugh joined the Eagles as the club's special teams coach on February 18, 1998. Just 11 months later, after a highly successful '98 campaign in which the Birds' special teams showed marked improvement, Harbaugh became one of four assistants to be retained by new head coach

Andy Reid.

"I feel that John is one of the top special teams coaches in the league," said Reid. "I also believe that the product he put out, from where they had been before his arrival, was definitely an improvement. The play of the special teams was truly a bright spot for this club in 1998."

It was under Harbaugh's direction last season that the Birds' special teams units improved in nearly every category. Dubbed "Harbaugh's Heroes," the special teams' most notable improvement came in the area of kick and punt coverage. First and foremost, opponents' average kickoff returns were reduced from 23.5 yards in 1997 to 19.1 this past season. Moreover, Harbaugh's specialty units allowed only four kickoff returns of more than 30 yards in 1998. One year earlier, the Birds had yielded 14 such runbacks. Similarly, opponents' average punt returns were reduced from 10.7 yards to 8.4 under his watch.

Harbaugh began his coaching career in 1984 at Western Michigan and three years later joined the University of Pittsburgh staff, serving under his uncle, head coach Mike Gottfried (now a college football analyst for ESPN).

After a one-year stint at Morehead State, Harbaugh spent eight seasons (1989-96) as assistant head coach at the University of Cincinnati. Harbaugh then joined Cam Cameron's Indiana staff for the 1997 campaign as defensive backs and special teams coach. That year, the Hoosiers' Joey Eloms finished 2nd in the Big Ten Conference in kickoff returns with a 25.0-yard average.

The product of a football family, Harbaugh has been in and around the game his entire ball coach at Marquette.

Harbaugh (born 9/23/62) attended Ann Arbor (MI) Pioneer High before earning a degree in political science from Miami (OH) where he also played defensive back.

John and his wife, Ingrid, reside in suburban Philadelphia.

TOMMY BRASHER

Defensive Line

Tommy Brasher (pronounced BRAY-zure) begins his second tour of duty with the Eagles after being named the club's defensive line coach on 1/22/99. Now 58, Brasher served in the same capacity with the Birds in 1985 as a member of then-head coach Marion Campbell's staff.

Most recently, Brasher enjoyed an extremely successful seven-year stint as the Seattle Seahawks' defensive line coach.

During his tenure in Seattle, Brasher saw two of his linemen - defensive tackle Cortez Kennedy and defensive end Michael Sinclair - earn multiple Pro Bowl appearances. Kennedy was selected following the 1992-96 and 1998 seasons, while Sinclair was voted in after each of the last three campaigns (1996-98). In all, Brasher's units helped the Seahawks notch 143 sacks over the last three seasons.

Sinclair, in particular, flourished under Brasher's tutelage. A sixth round draft choice out of Eastern New Mexico in 1991, Sinclair has developed into one of the NFL's best defensive ends, registering a league-high 41.5 sacks from 1996-98.

"Tom is very highly respected not only as a defensive line coach but as a pass rush expert and a guy who has gotten production from his players," said Reid. "That's obvious by the fact that he stayed with Seattle for seven years - through two stints - and, in each of those seasons, had at least one guy in the Pro Bowl. Tom gives us 16 years of NFL experience and, as we all know, you don't last 16 years in this league unless you're a good coach. And that's exactly what he is."

In addition to serving as the Eagles' defensive line coach in 1985, Brasher also held identical posts at New England (1982-84), Atlanta (1986-89), and Tampa Bay (1990). In his one season with the Eagles, two of his defensive ends notched 13 sacks apiece - Greg Brown and an NFL rookie named Reggie White.

An all-conference selection himself as a linebacker at Arkansas from 1962-63, Brasher was a college teammate of Cowboys' owner Jerry Jones and Dolphins' head coach Jimmy Johnson.

After beginning his coaching career with a six-year stint on the

He then sandwiched stops at Virginia Tech (1971), Northeast Louisiana (1974, 1976), and Southern Methodist (1977-81) around a one-year stint as the defensive line coach of the World Football League's Shreveport Steamer in 1975.

Born on 12/30/40, Brasher attended El Dorado High in his hometown and birthplace of El Dorado, TX. Today, he and his wife, LaNelle, have two daughters, Melodie and Christie.

JUAN CASTILLO

Offensive Line

Juan Castillo enters his fifth season with the Eagles and his second as the club's offensive line coach. As such, Castillo is one of four members of former coach Ray Rhodes' staff to be retained by new head coach Andy Reid.

Castillo originally joined the Eagles on March 1, 1995 as an offensive assistant, a post he held until being promoted to tight ends coach in 1997. One year later, Castillo became the club's offensive line coach and, in that role, saw his troops improve over the course of the '98 season. In particular, the Birds' offensive line flourished during the final five contests when they limited opponents to just 4 sacks. In that same span, the line also paved the way for 464 rushing yards by running back Duce Staley, who went on to finish the year with 1,065 yards on the ground.

One of Castillo's brightest pupils last season was NFL All-Rookie team selection Tra Thomas, who started all 16 games at left tackle and did not allow a single sack in the month of December.

"Prior to taking this job," said Reid, "I went through an evaluation of the Eagles' last five games. In that span the offense gave up just four sacks, had a 4-plus yards-per-carry average, and averaged over 100 yards a game on the ground. I really believe that Juan is one of the league's fine, young offensive line coaches. Amongst his peers he's very well respected for his knowledge."

It was, in fact, Castillo's work as an offensive line coach at Texas A&M-Kingsville (formerly Texas A&I University) that caught the eye of Rhodes, who took over the Birds' head coaching reins in 1995. During his five seasons there, Castillo aided in the development of five Division II All-America linemen, including tackles Jermaine Mayberry, the Eagles' 1996 first round pick, and Earl Dotson, a third round pick of the Green Bay Packers in 1993. In that same span, Castillo gained valuable experience as a summer coaching intern for the NFL's Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1994), Seattle Seahawks (1993), and Buffalo Bills (1992).

A former linebacker with Texas A&M-Kingsville and the USFL's San Antonio Gunslingers, Castillo began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater before spending 1986-89 on the staff at Kingsville (TX) High School.

The 39-year old Castillo (born 10/8/59) is a native of Port Isabel, TX. He and his wife, Zaida, reside in suburban Philadelphia with their three sons, Gregory, John, and Andres.

BRAD CHILDRESS

Quarterbacks

After orchestrating one of the nation's most productive offenses at the University of Wisconsin for the past seven seasons, 42-year old Brad Childress was named the Eagles' quarterbacks coach on January 12, 1999, just one day after new head coach Andy Reid took over the Birds' coaching reins.

Said Reid of Childress, who served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach on Barry Alvarez's Badgers' staff from 1992-98, "Brad, obviously, is coming off a great season in which Wisconsin won the Rose Bowl. Brad is a very diverse coach. He's been the coordinator at Wisconsin where they had one of the top rushing teams in the country and, prior to that, as the offensive coordinator at Northern Arizona, had that school's passing game ranked among the leaders in Division I-AA. In Brad we're getting a guy who knows both the passing game and running game thoroughly; his knowledge will certainly be welcomed."

During Childress' tenure at Wisconsin, the Badgers played in five bowl games, including a 38-31 Rose Bowl victory over UCLA on January 1, 1999. Under his direction, the Badgers possessed one of the nation's top-ranked offenses, setting a school record and ranking fourth in Big Ten Conference history with 455.2 yards per game in 1993. That squad also ranked 8th in the nation in rushing, 12th in total offense and 25th in passing, while establishing the best-ever Big Ten mark for pass completion percentage (67.5).

In his eight seasons overall at Wisconsin, the Badgers' led the conference in rushing three times and, in 1995, set a UW mark by averaging 221.7 passing yards per game. The school's all-time single-season leaders in passing (Darrell Bevell), receiving (Lee DeRamus), rushing (Ron Dayne), and scoring (Dayne) all flourished under Childress.

A 1978 graduate of Eastern Illinois, Childress began his coaching career with a seven-year stint at Illinois. It was there, under Childress' tutelage, that Fighting Illini WR David Williams set a Big Ten record for receptions (101 in 1984), a mark that still stands today. Then, after spending 1985 as the quarterbacks coach on Rod Dowhower's Indianapolis Colts' staff, Childress returned to the collegiate ranks for the next 13 seasons with stops at Northern Arizona (1986-89), and Utah before moving to Wisconsin. It was during the first of his three seasons as offensive coordinator at Northern Arizona that Childress first worked with Andy Reid.

Today, Childress and his wife, Dru-Ann, have four children: sons Andrew, Christopher, and Kyle, and daughter Cara. Born 6/27/56 in Aurora, IL, Childress attended Marmion Military High School.

DAVID CULLEY

Wide Receivers

A veteran of 21 years in the coaching profession, David Culley joined the Eagles as the club's wide receivers coach on January 19, 1999.

The 43-year old Culley spent the past three seasons tutoring the Pittsburgh Steelers' wide receivers. During that three-year span, the Steelers reached the playoffs twice, advancing to the AFC title game vs. Denver in 1997 and to the divisional playoffs the previous season.

"David truly is a fine teacher," said Reid. "He followed me at the University of Texas-El Paso and I've followed his career from that point on. Some of my former players down there had mentioned what a tremendous teacher he was. David is very well respected among his peers. At this level he is known for his teaching abilities."

A native of Sparta, TN, and a former quarterback himself at Vanderbilt University, Culley broke into the coaching ranks in 1978 when he oversaw the running backs at Austin Peay University. He next returned to his alma mater to coach the Commodores' receivers from 1979-81. Culley then followed a succession of one-year stops at Middle Tennessee State, Tennessee-Chattanooga, and Western Kentucky with a three-year stint as quarterbacks coach at Southwestern Louisiana.

From 1989-90, Culley was the offensive coordinator/wide receivers coach at Texas-El Paso before joining R.C. Slocum's staff at Texas A&M. While there, Culley oversaw that school's receivers and helped the Aggies dominate the South-west Conference from 1991-93.

Culley then jumped to the NFL ranks to tutor wide receivers, first with Tampa Bay (1994-95) and then with the Steelers (1996-98). It was under Culley's supervision in 1997 that Pittsburgh WR Yancey Thigpen hauled in 79 passes for a Steelers' single-season record 1,398 yards and 7 touchdowns en route

LESLIE FRAZIER

Defensive Backs

One of two new members of the Eagles coaching staff to have earned Super Bowl rings as players with the Chicago Bears, Leslie Frazier will now tutor the Birds' defensive backs.

Following his playing career with the Bears, Frazier enjoyed a nine-year stint as the head coach at Trinity (IL) College and two seasons as an assistant at Illinois.

"Leslie is a former NFL player with a Super Bowl ring on his finger," said head coach Andy Reid. "He believes in a very aggressive approach with the secondary and his style is one that is very well respected not only around the Big Ten but by coaches on this level as well. Having played the position he'll really be able to challenge our secondary."

Frazier began his coaching career in 1988 when he was hired by Trinity College (now Trinity International University) as that school's first-ever head coach.

Frazier built the Trinity program from the ground up and quickly developed the NAIA institution into two-time Northern Illinois Intercollegiate Conference Champions. In his nine seasons at the helm, Trinity produced a number of NFL caliber players, including current Eagles' WR Karl Hankton. In fact, so great was Frazier's impact on the Trinity program, the school named its football field after him when he departed in 1997 to join the staff at Illinois as defensive backs coach.

Now 40, Frazier was a cornerback with the Bears from 1981-86. A stellar player in his own right - Frazier was named to the 1985 "All-Madden Team" by then-CBS analyst John Madden - he led the Bears in interceptions for three consecutive seasons and finished his five-year career with 20 INTs overall.

In 1985, Frazier was an integral part of a renowned Bears' defensive unit - led by coordinator Buddy Ryan - that led the NFL in virtually every category en route to a lopsided win over the Patriots in Super Bowl XX. A teammate of Frazier's on that '85 Bears squad was linebacker Ron Rivera, who, like Frazier, is a newcomer to the Eagles' coaching staff this year.

An All-America selection as a cornerback at Alcorn State, Frazier was a teammate - and for two years a roommate - of fellow Braves' cornerback Roynell Young, who went on to become the Eagles' first round draft pick in 1980. Both Frazier and Young went on to appear as starting cornerbacks in the Super Bowl - Frazier with the '85 Bears and Young with the '80 Eagles.

An all-around athlete, Frazier also was a standout first baseman/outfielder at Alcorn, and for two seasons served as a team captain.

Born (4/3/59) and raised in Columbus, Mississippi, Frazier attended S.D. Lee High before earning a degree in business administration from Alcorn State.

Today, Frazier and his wife, Gale, have three children, sons Kieron (14) and Corey (7), and a daughter, Chantel (11).

TOM MELVIN

Offensive Asst./Quality Control

In 1983, Tom Melvin was an offensive lineman at San Francisco State University. His position coach that year was a fellow just two years his senior by the name of Andy Reid.

Now, 16 years later and with 15 seasons of college coaching experience under his belt, Melvin will serve as the offensive quality control coach under Reid, the new Eagles head coach.

The 37-year old Melvin joins the Eagles after an eight-year stint at Occidental College, where he served as the school's offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. In 1993, Melvin led the Tigers to a school-record 326 points and 2,526 rushing yards en route to an 8-1 record.

Prior to his tenure at Occidental, Melvin served as the offensive coordinator/offensive line coach at the University of California-Santa Barbara. At UCSB, Melvin orchestrated the nation's fifth ranked offense during both the 1989 and 1990 seasons while coaching five All-America selections.

Following his playing career at San Francisco State, Melvin went on to begin his coaching career as a graduate assistant at that school, serving on the same staff with Reid. He then moved on to Northern Arizona, where he tutored TE Shawn Collins, a first round draft choice of Atlanta in 1989.

Born October 1, 1961 in Redwood

City, CA, Melvin attended Cubberley HS in Palo Alto. Today, he holds a bachelor's degree in physical education from San Francisco State and a master's degree in educational administration from Northern Arizona.

Tom and his wife, Kathy, have three sons, Justin (15), Joshua (11), and J.T. (7), and a daughter, Heather (13).

RON RIVERA

Linebackers

On January 22, 1999, Ron Rivera joined Andy Reid's first Eagles' staff as the club's linebackers coach.

A former NFL linebacker with the Chicago Bears, Rivera spent the past two seasons in the Windy City as the Bears' defensive quality control coach.

With the addition of Rivera and Leslie

Frazier, the Eagles' new defensive backs coach, the Birds' staff now boasts two men who won championship rings as players with the '85 Bears. Both Rivera and Frazier, a corner back, played under then-Bears coordinator - and eventual Eagles head coach - Buddy Ryan that year when Chicago earned a lopsided 46-10 victory over New England in Super Bowl XX.

With Rivera and Frazier, the Birds' coaching staff now boasts two men who won championship rings as players with the 1985 Chicago Bears.

Rivera first entered the NFL as the Bears' second round draft pick in 1984. Primarily an outside linebacker, he played in 149 games, including 12 postseason contests during his nine-year career in Chicago, posting 14 interceptions and 7 sacks.

During his Bears career, Rivera was known both for his skill and determination on the field and his dedication of time and energy to the community. It was for the former that he earned the Bears' 1989 Ed Block Courage Award and for the latter that he was named the club's Man of the Year in 1988.

Immediately following his NFL playing career, Rivera spent four years as a television analyst covering the Bears and college football for WGN-TV and SportsChannel Chicago. He then moved into the coaching ranks with the Bears and, in fact, credits NFL Hall of Famer and former Bears running back Walter Payton with helping bring him onto the Bears' staff in 1997. Payton was at that time, and remains today, a member of the Bears' Board of Directors.

A consensus All-America selection as a linebacker at the University of California, Rivera finished his collegiate career ranked fourth on the school's all-time tackle list with 336 stops. With 22 career sacks, including a school-record 13 in 1983, he still ranks 3rd on the Golden Bears' all-time charts behind Tampa Bay DE Regan Upshaw (28.0) and current Eagles' DT Brandon Whiting (24.5). Rivera also set a Cal record for most tackles-for-a-loss in a season with 26.5 in 1983.

Rivera and his wife, Stephanie, a former basketball player at California, have two children, Christopher (13) and Courtney (6). Stephanie served as an assistant women's basketball coach at Trinity International University (Deerfield, IL) before taking a similar position with the ABL's Chicago Condors (1997-98).

Rivera was born January 7, 1962 in Fort Ord, CA. With his father being an officer in the Army, Rivera lived in Germany, Panama, Washington, D.C., and Maryland prior to moving to central California, where he attended Seaside High School.

PAT SHURMUR

Tight Ends/Asst. Offensive Line

After 11 seasons as an assistant coach on the college level, this former All-America center and team captain at Michigan State begins his first season as an NFL assistant. The 33-year old nephew of Seattle Seahawks defensive coordinator Fritz Shurmur, Pat will oversee the Eagles' tight ends and assist with the club's offensive line.

Shurmur spent the 1998 season at Stanford as an offensive line coach in charge of the centers and guards. Under his tutelage, the Cardinal offensive line allowed the fewest sacks per pass attempt in the PAC 10 Conference and, in the process, helped first-year quarterback

Todd Husak become the third quarterback in Stanford history to throw for over 3,000 yards in a season.

Prior to his tenure at Stanford, Shurmur spent 10 seasons at Michigan State instructing the Spartans' tight ends, special teams, and offensive line. Under his guidance MSU developed three tight ends who went on to the NFL: Ty Hallock (Jaguars/Bears), Duane Young (Chargers/Bills), and Mitch Lyons (Falcons/Steelers). In addition, Shurmur helped kick returner Derrick Mason establish a school record with 2,575 career kickoff return yards.

Shurmur himself was a four-year letter winner at Michigan State, earning All-America honors in 1987. That same year, Shurmur cocaptained a Spartans squad that defeated USC and Trojan quarterback Rodney Peete in the Rose Bowl. A solid student as well, he earned his MBA in financial administration as a senior. As such, the Dearborn Heights, MI, native became the first graduate student to play at Michigan State.

After signing as a rookie free agent with the Green Bay Packers in 1988, Shurmur was released during training camp and subsequently began his coaching career, becoming a graduate assistant with the Spartans that fall.

A product of Divine Child High School in Dearborn, Pat comes from a football family. His uncle, Fritz Shurmur, served as the Green Bay Packers' defensive coordinator from 1994-98, helping that club win two NFC championships and one Super Bowl title in that span. The elder Shurmur now holds the same position with the Seattle Seahawks.

Born 4/14/65, Pat and his wife, Jennifer (a former swimmer at Michigan State), have three children, daughters Allyson (7) and Erica (5), and son Kyle (2).

STEVE SPAGNUOLO

Defensive Asst./Quality Control

A veteran of 15 seasons in the collegiate coaching ranks and two years with the World/NFL Europe League, Steve Spagnuolo is in his first season in Philadelphia. With the Eagles Spagnuolo (pronounced SPAG-no-low) will serve as a defensive assistant/quality control coach.

"Steve will be responsible for breaking down film for the defensive staff while also assisting Leslie Frazier with the secondary," said head coach Andy Reid. "He's been the defensive coordinator for Frankfurt of the World League; I've known him for a long time and always respected him as a teacher. He's very enthusiastic and very creative."

The 39-year old Spagnuolo spent the 1998 season as the defensive coordinator of NFL Europe's Frankfurt Galaxy, who finished second in the league in total defense en route to a World Bowl appearance. Spagnuolo also served as the defensive line and special teams coach of the Barcelona Dragons in 1992.

A native of Grafton, MA, Spagnuolo has served as a collegiate assistant coach at Massachusetts, Lafayette, Connecticut, Maine, Rutgers, and Bowling Green. Prior to his stint at Maine, where he served as the Black Bears' defensive coordinator, Spagnuolo spent four months as a scout for the San Diego Chargers.

Born December 21, 1959 in Writinsville, MA, Spagnuolo attended Grafton HS. He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education and a master's degree from Massachusetts in sports management.

TED WILLIAMS

Running Backs

Ted Williams begins his fifth season with the Eagles and his third in the role of running backs coach. Williams' first two years with the Birds were spent overseeing the club's tight ends.

As running backs coach, the 55-year old Williams has tutored a 1,000-yard rusher in each of the past two seasons. Last year, Duce Staley rushed for 1,065 yards on 258 carries (4.1 yards per carry). A year earlier, Ricky Watters paced the club with 1,110 yards on 285 attempts (a 3.9-yd. avg.).

Williams, who scouted Staley at the University of South Carolina and recommended that the Eagles make him their third round draft pick in 1997, is credited with Staley's emergence as a solid NFL starter. In addition to gaining 1,000-plus yards on the ground this past season, the versatile Staley also led the team in receptions (57), total yards from scrimmage (1,497), and touchdowns (6). Equally impressive was the fact that despite touching the ball 315 times during the course of the season, Staley did not lose a fumble.

"With regard to Ted," said new head coach Andy Reid of his decision to retain Williams, "it seems that everybody he's touched has been a productive player. When he moved to the running backs, Ricky Watters, Charlie Garner, Kevin Turner, and Duce Staley all were very productive. When he was with the tight ends, Jason Dunn was productive. Again, the key with Ted has been production from his players."

Prior to joining the Eagles, Williams coached at the University of Arizona, Washington State, and on Terry Donahue's UCLA staff, where he developed All-America linebackers like Ken Norton, Jr. and Carnell Lake, as well as a number of heralded running backs.

A basketball and baseball star himself at Centennial High in Compton, CA, Williams earned a place in the Cal Poly-Pomona University baseball Hall of Fame. A 1966 graduate of CPP with a degree in biological sciences and physical education, Williams went on to earn a Master's degree, a second undergraduate degree in zoological science, and his teaching-administration credentials from Cal State-Los Angeles in 1968.

After serving more than a decade as a coach, teacher, and athletic director at Compton (CA) High, Williams was named head coach at L.A. City College in 1980 but a short time later joined the UCLA staff.

Born in Lyons, TX, (11/17/43) the 55-year old Williams and his wife, Theresa, have three sons, Darryl (29), Donald (12), and Daniel (3), and a daughter, Terri (27).

MIKE WOLF

Strength and Conditioning

Mike Wolf, 34, joined the Eagles as the club's strength and conditioning coordinator in 1995 after spending the previous three seasons as the assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Minnesota Vikings.

"Mike Wolf has a great reputation," said new Eagles head coach Andy Reid, "not only among the strength coaches in the league, but also among the players on this club. It's understood that he is not easy on the players. He pushes them, demands a lot out of them, and they respond to him."

Wolf began his career as a strength coach at Vanderbilt before moving on to Lehigh University and, his alma mater, Penn State.

A native of Allentown, PA, (5/15/65) Wolf was an all-state center at William Allen High before playing for the Nittany Lions. Wolf earned a bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science from Penn State and a master's degree in health promotion and exercise science from Vanderbilt. His brother, Joe, a standout offensive lineman for Boston College, spent nine seasons (1989-97) as a player with the Arizona Cardinals.

Mike and his wife, Jennifer, reside in suburban Philadelphia with their son, Jackson (4) and a daughter, Michaela (1).

HAROLD CARMICHAEL

Director of Player Relations

On April 28, 1998, the Eagles announced that, Harold Carmichael, the greatest receiver in club history, was rejoining the organization as director of player relations. In this role, Carmichael coordinates all player programs, including financial education, family assistance, career internships, and continuing education, all in an effort to help players succeed when their football careers have concluded. The 49-year old Carmichael also will serve as a direct link to the community and alumni on behalf of the Eagles' organization.

Said Eagles' owner Jeffrey Lurie, "Players come here, just like Harold did many years ago, from other parts of the country - from small schools, rural and urban areas, very different environments. We will benefit from having Harold devote 100% of his time to easing the transition for players, allowing them to understand what they are facing, and trying to solve whatever problems they may have. He will find ways for them to be integrated into the community and into the team alongside their teammates. It's absolutely crucial in today's sports environment, where you have free agency and a lot of transiency, to devote as much attention and effort as you can to the players while they are with the organization. Hopefully we can encourage both a long-term relationship with these players and, at the same time, enhance their life after football. Harold has been a role model both on and of the field throughout his life."

The 6-foot, 8-inch Carmichael was not only one of the tallest receivers ever to play the game, he was also one of the best in NFL history. The Birds' seventh round pick out of Southern University in 1971, Carmichael played 13 seasons with the Eagles before finishing his career with the Dallas Cowboys in 1984. Upon retirement, he ranked sixth on the NFL's all-time reception list with 590 catches, including 589 as an Eagle, the most in team history. Today, he also remains the Birds' career receiving leader in terms of yards (8,978) and touchdowns (79).

During his tenure with the Eagles, Carmichael led the club in receptions eight times. His outstanding play earned him trips to the Pro Bowl following the '74, '79, '80, and '81 seasons. Moreover, he was a key figure on the Eagles' 1980 squad that defeated Dallas in the NFC Championship Game and earned a berth in Super Bowl XV vs. the Raiders.

"In terms of working with the players," said Carmichael, "it's going to be important for me to instill in them the pride that comes with representing this franchise. It'll be important to make sure that we help these players in every way possible so that when they come through these doors, they'll do so with a winning attitude and they'll be ready to focus on doing whatever it takes to win. I'll be out there on the field observing them and working with them, all in an effort to see that they're focused and possessing that winning attitude."

Carmichael (9/22/49), a native of Jacksonville, FL, resides in Glassboro, NJ, with his wife, Beatrice, and their son, Lee (20).

JOHN GOELLER

Director of College Scouting

On May 26, 1998, John Goeller was named the Eagles' director of college scouting. In this capacity, the 44-year old Goeller (pronounced GOAL-er) schedules scouting visits, coordinate various organizational scouting meetings, evaluate the top collegiate players, and play an instrumental role in the development of the draft.

Goeller joined the Birds after spending 13 seasons with the Indianapolis Colts as an area scout. He began his scouting career in 1983, working for a nationwide scouting service, BLESTO, before joining the Colts two years later.

Prior to beginning his scouting career, Goeller worked for eight years as a coach on the high school and collegiate levels. He served as an assistant coach at Austin Peay from 1976-78, a graduate assistant at Florida State (1978), and as a head coach at Monroe (NC) HS (1979-83).

A three-year starter as a defensive end at North Carolina State, Goeller earned defensive MVP honors following the Wolfpack's 1973 Liberty Bowl victory over Kansas. He earned a master's degree in administration and supervision from Austin Peay in 1978.

A native of Pittsburgh, PA, John and his wife, Cary Schratz, have one son, Jon Micah.

MIKE MCCARTNEY

Director of Pro Scouting

After being hired as pro personnel coordinator by the Eagles on June 3, 1998, Mike McCartney was elevated to director of pro scouting this past offseason. In this capacity, the 34-year old McCartney is responsible for evaluating talent on the professional level. As such, McCartney plays a big role in the club's player acquisitions through free agency and the waiver system.

"Mike's a very knowledgeable and hard-working guy who added a lot to our pro scouting department," said Eagles' director of football operations Tom Modrak. "He has thorough knowledge of the league and is well versed in the evaluation of players and in the organization of information."

McCartney joined the Birds after serving six years as a pro scout for the Chicago Bears. While with the Bears, he did advance-scouting of the Bears' upcoming opponents, assisted in evaluating pro and college players, maintained computer databases for the player personnel department, and organized off-season coaching clinics.

Prior to his stint in Chicago, McCartney was a quarterback coach at North Carolina for two seasons while earning a degree in sports administration. He received his undergraduate degree at Colorado, where he also worked as an assistant recruiting director and quarterbacks coach (1989). His father, Bill, was the head coach at Colorado from 1982-94.

Mike and his wife, Jenni, have two sons, Nicholas (3), and Justin (1). He was born on 9/8/64 in Joplin, MO.

DAVE BOLLER

Western Regional Scout

Now in his second season as a member of the Eagles' college scouting department, Boller currently serves as the club's western regional scout. From 1995-97, he served as a college scout with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

The 38-year old Boller originally joined the Bucs after spending 10 years in various capacities at Arizona State. From 1988-95, he served as the Sun Devils' administrative assistant for football operations. In that capacity, Boller worked with ASU head coaches Larry Marmie and Bruce Snyder in the day-to-day operations of the football program as well as assisting in recruiting and team travel and with the coordination of ASU's football camps. From 1985-87, he was ASU's assistant equipment manager.

Prior to his stint at ASU, Boller worked in an administrative capacity for the USFL's Arizona Outlaws.

As a student, Boller attended Arizona State and was the head manager for the football team. A native of Davenport, IA, he was raised in Plymouth, IN.

Dave and his wife, Jill, reside in Cicero, IN.

JAKE HALLUM

College Scout

After serving as a regional scout for National Football Scouting from 1992-94, Hallum became a member of the Eagles' player personnel department in June, 1995.

Prior to joining National, with whom he scouted the states of Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, and Mississippi, Hallum, now 60, had been a coach on the college level for 24 years. After serving as head coach at Morehead State (KY) from 1968-71, he went on to Maryland and served as the Terrapins' offensive line coach from 1972-81. He then served as an assistant at Kentucky (1982-89) before spending 1990-91 at Arizona State as an offensive line/tight ends coach.

Born 11/2/38 in Liberty, SC, Hallum played guard and linebacker at Newberry (SC) College (1957-60) and later earned his master's degree from Murray State in 1965. He first coached high school football at his alma mater, Pickens (SC) High (1960-62), before making stops at Hopkinsville (KY) HS (1962-66) and Paul Blazer HS in Ashland, KY (1966-67).

Jake and his wife, Mable, reside in Cypress, TX. They have two grown sons, Todd and Bart.

MARC ROSS

Eastern Regional Scout

Now in his third year as a member of the Eagles' player personnel staff, Ross serves as the club's eastern regional scout. In this role, Ross is responsible for scouting college players in the eastern region of the country as well as cross-checking players from the western region.

Ross enjoyed a standout playing career at Princeton, where he was an All-Ivy League wide receiver in both 1993 and 1994 and holds six school records as a receiver and punt returner. He began his professional career working as a training camp intern in the New York Giants' public relations department in 1995. He then became an administrative intern with the athletic department at Columbia University, and then with the player personnel department of the Eagles during the club's 1996 training camp.

The 26-year old Ross graduated with a B.A. in sociology from Princeton in 1995. He went on to earn a master's degree in sport management from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst in 1997.

A native of Sharon Hill, PA, Ross is single and currently resides in Philadelphia, PA.

DAN SHONKA

College Scout

Dan Shonka is in his sixth year with the Eagles after joining the club as a regional college scout in 1994. The 46-year-old (9/19/52) native of Cedar Rapids, IA, first came to the Eagles with a wide range of football experience, having spent 1987-93 as an area scout for National Football Scouting, a service to which 9 NFL teams, including the Eagles, subscribe. He also spent a year covering the midwest region for the USFL's Philadelphia Stars (1983).

Shonka's coaching resume includes stints as a highly successful head coach at New Mexico Highlands (1984-86), Independence (KS) Community College (1981-82), and Highland (KS) Community College (1980). The University of Iowa grad helped turn around the football program at all three of those schools, each of whom had experienced a 1-8 campaign the year before his arrival. In fact, his New Mexico Highlands squads set over 50 team, conference, and NAIA records. Prior to that, Shonka was an assistant at Kansas (1979), Purdue (1977-78), Rice (1976), and Iowa State (1973-76).

Dan and his wife, Peggy, are co-publishers of College Football Preview, an annual national sports magazine focusing on small college football. Shonka is also a charter member of the National Selection Committee of the Gagliardi Trophy which is awarded annually to Division III's outstanding football player.

Shonka has also been active in Homeless Children's Trust, Fibrodysplasia Ossificans Progressiva Foundation, Salvation Army, Red Cross, YMCA, Cedar Valley Humane Society, Theatre Cedar Rapids, Greyhound Hall of Fame, and Greyhound Adoption of Iowa.

Dan and Peggy reside in Cedar Rapids, IA, with their children, Sarah (14) and Teddy (10).

BOBBY DePAUL

Pro Scout

After spending eight seasons as an NFL assistant coach, the 36-year old DePaul enters his 3rd season as a member of Philadelphia's player personnel department.

In his role as pro scout, DePaul is responsible for evaluating players in the professional ranks and for preparing the club for its acquisitions through free agency or through the waiver wire. In 1999, his responsibilities will expand to include the advance scouting for upcoming Eagle opponents.

Prior to joining the Eagles, DePaul was an assistant coach for the Cincinnati Bengals, serving as a defensive assistant in 1994, defensive line coach in 1995, and as a staff assistant in 1996. In his one season tutoring the club's defensive linemen, DE John Copeland notched 9 sacks and DT Dan Wilkinson registered 8.

DePaul also spent the 1989-93 seasons with the Washington Redskins as a member of Joe Gibbs' coaching staff and earned an NFL championship ring when the 'Skins defeated Buffalo in Super Bowl XXVI.

DePaul played four seasons (1981-84) as a linebacker at Maryland before a knee injury during his senior season ended his career. He then spent the '85 campaign as an undergraduate assistant coach under Bobby Ross, who currently serves as the head coach of the NFL's Detroit Lions. As a player at Maryland, DePaul helped the Terps capture three ACC championships.

Born 1/24/63 in Bowie, MD, DePaul attended Archbishop John Carroll HS in Washington, D.C., where he played fullback and linebacker on a team that lost only once during his three-year varsity career.

Bobby and his wife, Lisa, have two daughters, Ariel (6) and Ashley (4).

RICK BURKHOLDER, ATC

Head Athletic Trainer

A veteran of six seasons as an assistant athletic trainer with the NFL's Pittsburgh Steelers, Burkholder became the Eagles' new head athletic trainer on February 9, 1999. As such, he filled the void created by the departure of James Collins, who joined the San Diego Chargers earlier that month.

"Rick has a tremendous background as a trainer," said Tom Modrak, the Eagles' director of football operations. "He's a true professional who possesses a great ability to work with and communicate with professional athletes. He's well respected within his field and is a real positive addition to our organization."

Prior to joining the Steelers' staff in 1993, the Carlisle, PA, native spent two seasons as an assistant football trainer at his alma mater, the University of Pittsburgh. A 1987 Pitt grad, Burkholder went on to earn his master's degree in athletic training from the University of Arizona where he spent two seasons as a graduate assistant and one as an assistant athletic trainer.

The 35-year old Burkholder (born 3/14/64) is a certified athletic trainer and a member of both the National Athletic Trainers Association and the Pennsylvania Athletic Trainers Society.

Said Burkholder upon joining the Eagles, "This is an opportunity for a young trainer like me to join a team like the Eagles that's young in its own right. By that, I mean they have a new head coach in Andy Reid and a new director of football operations in Tom Modrak. Everything I've seen and heard indicates that the Eagles' vision of the future is very bright. I'm thrilled to have a chance to be a part of it all."

Rick and his wife, Kristine, reside in Sicklerville, NJ.

Assistant Athletic Trainer

A veteran of five NFL seasons as a member of the San Francisco 49ers' athletic training staff, Patton now begins his fourth campaign in Philadelphia as an assistant athletic trainer. During his stint with San Francisco, the 49ers defeated the San Diego Chargers in Super Bowl XXIX and Patton twice served as an athletic trainer for the NFC squad at the Pro Bowl.

Patton earned his B.S. degree in Sports Medicine/Exercise Science from Appalachian State in 1990. After enrolling in graduate school at the University of South Carolina, Patton completed his M.A. in Sports Medicine at San Jose State in 1996. A certified athletic trainer, he is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) and the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society.

Patton also has experience as a graduate assistant athletic trainer at South Carolina (1990-91), as a student athletic trainer at Appalachian State (1986-90), and as a summer training camp and assistant athletic trainer with the Niners in 1988 and '89.

Born 8/10/68 in Gastonia, NC, Patton now resides in Sicklerville, NJ, with his wife, Lisa, their son Cameron (9), and their daughter Alexis (3). During the past two offseasons, he organized The Patton Football/Athletic Training Clinic in Gastonia, a non-profit venture that provides children with instruction in the basics of athletic training.

CHRIS PEDUZZI, ATC

Assistant Athletic Trainer

Chris Peduzzi enters his first season on the Eagles' athletic training staff.

The 28-year old Peduzzi joins the Eagles from West Chester (PA) University, where he served as that school's head football athletic trainer. Prior to that, he served as an intern for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1996-98. In the spring of '97, Peduzzi served as assistant athletic trainer with the NFL Europe League's Scottish Claymores.

A native of Johnstown, PA, Peduzzi graduated from Virginia Tech with a B.S. in athletic training and a M.A. in education. While at Virginia Tech, he served as a graduate assistant athletic trainer from 1995-97 and was a linebacker on the Hokies' football team from 1990-94. He also earned the Hitachi Promise of Tomorrow post-graduate Scholarship from the College Football Association.

Chris is single and resides in Philadelphia, PA. He is a certified trainer and a member of both the National Athletic Trainers Association and the Pennsylvania Athletic Trainers Society.

ARTHUR BARTOLOZZI, M.D.

Team Physician and Orthopedist

Dr. Arthur Bartolozzi was named the Eagles' team physician and orthopedic specialist on February 15, 1995 by team owner Jeffrey Lurie.

Bartolozzi, who brings a wealth of knowledge and experience in orthopedic medicine to the Eagles, has been the head orthopedic surgeon for the Philadelphia Flyers since 1990. The 43-year old Bartolozzi (1/7/56) has also worked as the team physician for the Philadelphia Freedom soccer club, team orthopedic surgeon for Rowan (NJ) College, and assistant team physician for the United States National soccer team.

Bartolozzi, who is currently the chief of Sports Medicine at the Rothman Institute in Philadelphia, also serves as a staff orthopedic surgeon at the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania. In addition, he serves as an assistant professor of orthopedic surgery at Thomas Jefferson University in Philadelphia and as an instructor in the department of physical therapy at the University of Delaware.

A native of Trenton, NJ, Bartolozzi received a degree in chemistry from Brown University in 1977 and then went on to earn his M.D. at the University of California-San Diego in 1981. He has since had postgraduate training and fellowship appointments at both the University of Pennsylvania and at UCLA.

Bartolozzi resides in Philadelphia with his wife, Terry, and their two sons, James and Arthur.

GARY DORSHIMER, M.D.

Team Internist

Dr. Gary Dorshimer is his second season as an internist with the Eagles. Dorshimer, 44, is currently on the medical staff at Allegheny University Hospital's Graduate (AUH) Division of Internal Medicine. In addition, Dorshimer also serves as AUH's Chief of Medicine of the Orthopaedic Hospital and the Medical Director of the Graduate Human Performance and Sports Medicine Center.

Born in Allentown, PA, Dorshimer went on to receive a B.S. degree in natural science with summa cum laude honors from Muhlenberg College in 1977 and an M.D. degree from the University of Pennsylvania in 1981. He completed his postgraduate training at Pennsylvania Hospital (1981-1984) and was certified by the American Board of Internal Medicine in 1984. He went on to earn a Certificate of Added Qualifications in Sports Medicine from that board in 1995.

Prior to joining the medical staff at Allegheny, Dorshimer spent 13 years in a private practice at Pennsylvania Hospital.

Dorshimer has also been as an associate team physician for the Philadelphia Flyers since 1984 and the Philadelphia Phantoms (AHL) since 1996. In fact, he served as an internal medicine consultant for the NHL and NHLPA at the 1998 Winter Olympics in Nagano, Japan. Dorshimer also serves as an consulting internist for the Pennsylvania Ballet.

Dorshimer lives in Drexel Hill, PA, with his wife, Deborah, and their son, Geoffrey.

ANGELO ORTIZ

Head Equipment Manager

Angelo Ortiz was officially promoted to head equipment manager this past offseason.

In this role, he oversees the Eagles daily locker room operations, including safely fitting and supplying players, coaches and staff with various types of athletic equipment.

Ortiz originally joined the Eagles' equipment staff as an intern in 1988 and, from 1989-98, served as the club's assistant equipment manager. He earned a degree in physical education with an emphasis in sports management from Slippery Rock University, where he also served as that school's equipment manager from 1984-88.

A native of New Castle, PA, Angelo resides in Florence, NJ, with his wife, Barbara and daughter, Katie. Nicknamed "Dundee," he enjoys bow hunting in his spare time.

CLIFTON RAGIN

Assistant Equipment Manager

After joining the Eagles equipment staff full-time in 1998, Clifton Ragin, 30, was named assistant equipment manager this past offseason. Ragin had assisted the Birds' equipment staff as an intern from 1995-97.

A native of New York, NY, Ragin attended North Carolina A&T, where he earned a degree in recreation administration and served as that school's assistant equipment manager from 1991-97. He is single and resides in Philadelphia, PA.

TONY FAZIO

Equipment Assistant

An intern on the equipment staff since 1995, 23-year old Tony Fazio was hired as a equipment assistant this past offseason. A native of Norristown, PA, Fazio graduated from Norristown HS, where he also served on that school's equipment staff. He went on to attend Montgomery County Community College.

William Thomas is the only defender left from the Birds '91 defense that ranked #1 in the NFL in fewest yards allowed overall, vs. the run, and vs. the pass.

JAMIE ASHER

After spending his first four seasons with the Redskins, Jamie Asher, a proven pass-catching tight end, joined the Eagles as an unrestricted free agent on 4/12/99 ...

the sure-handed Asher, who recorded 42 and 49 receptions, respectively, in 1996 and '97 (and was on pace to catch a career-best 50 balls last year before being sidelined by a mid-season knee injury), is seen as a potentially key contributor in the West Coast offense ... said head coach Andy Reid, "Jamie gives us a tight end that comes in here with known receiver abilities. He'll do a nice job in this offense. It's one in which we count on our tight ends to be a threat." ...

1998: Returned from offseason surgery on his right knee and was averaging 3 catches an outing through the first 9 games before being placed on injured reserve due to recurring pain in the same knee ...

1997: With 49 catches (for 474 yards), became the first Redskins' tight end to lead the club in receptions since Jean Fugett in 1977 ... was named the first alternate to the NFC Pro Bowl squad and led all NFL tight ends with 21 third down catches ... a consistent target, he recorded 3-or-more receptions in 10 games ...

1996: Ranked 1st, 2nd, and 3rd, respectively, on the Redskins with 4 TD catches, 42 receptions, and 481 receiving yards ... set career-highs with 5 catches and 2 TD grabs at Philadelphia on 11/17 ... registered his first career TD at NE (11/17) ...

1. A 35-yarder vs. NY Giants on December 17, 1995 that gave the Cowboys a 21-20 win over the Giants.
2. A 29-yarder at San Francisco on November 10, 1996 that gave the Cowboys a 20-17 overtime win over the 49ers.
3. A 31-yarder vs. Cincinnati on November 30, 1997 that gave the Eagles a 44-42 win over the Bengals.

CHRIS BONIOL

After five seasons in the NFL, Boniol has proven himself to be one of the most accurate and consistent kickers in the league. In that span, the attempts (117 of 145) and ranks 2nd on NFL's all-time field goal accuracy list behind SD's John Carney (81.7%) ... in addition, Boniol has authored streaks of 26 and 28 straight field goals ... has earned a reputation as one of the NFL's best big-game kickers, making 13 of his 15 postseason FG tries, including his last nine in a row ... during his career, Boniol also has connected on 35 of 44 FGs in the 4th qtr. and OT ... originally began his career with the Cowboys in 1994 when he became the sixth Dallas kicker since 1989 ... went on to become the first player to kick for the Cowboys for three straight years since Rafael Septien (1978-86) ... officially became an Eagle on 3/14/97, when Dallas opted not to match the Birds' offer sheet signed by the restricted free agent kicker seven days earlier. As such, Boniol became the league's first 1997 restricted free agent to ink a pact with a new club and the second "restricted" player to join the Birds in the first three years of free agency (Kevin Turner from New England in '95 was the other).

1998: With 57 points, Boniol led Eagles in scoring for the second straight season ... nailed a game-winning 39-yd. FG vs. Det. (11/8) early in the 4th qtr. ... drilled a 50-yd. FG vs. StL (12/3) - his longest as an Eagle ... had connected on 67 consecutive FGs of 35-yards-or-less before missing a 33-ydr. vs. Arz. (12/13) ... also had a streak of 64 consecutive games with at least one point halted in the season opener vs. Seattle (9/6) ...

1997: Ranked 7th in the NFC in scoring with 99 points and tied for 8th in FGs made (22) ... was a perfect 3-3 on FGs and 2-2 on PATs vs. Pit. ... one week later booted 3 more FGs vs. Cin. including the game-winning, 31 ydr. as time expired, giving the Eagles a 44-42 victory ... at Atl., knotted the game at 17-17 on a 39-yard FG with 1:55 remaining ... had his streak of 28 consecutive FGs (3 shy of Fuad Reveiz's NFL mark of 31) halted in game 2 vs. GB when he missed a 48-yd. try ... returned to Dallas in a week 3 Monday Night Football game and was ready to boot a game-winning 21-yard FG with :04 remaining. A bobbled hold, however, resulted in no kick and the Cowboys escaped with a 21-20 win ...

• BONIOL'S BULLETS •

- With a career success rate of 80.7% on field goal attempts (117 of 145), enters '99 ranked 2nd on NFL's all-time accuracy list behind SD's John Carney (81.7%).
- Has authored streaks of 26 and 28 straight FGs.
- On 11/18/96 vs. GB, tied NFL records for most FGs made in a game (7) and in one half (5).
- Was named the NFC special teams player of the month in Nov. '96 when he hit all 13 of his FG atts.
- In '95, established the second highest single-season field goal percentage in NFL history by hitting 27 of 28 FGs (96.43%).
- Earned a championship ring when Cowboys defeated the Steelers in Super Bowl XXX.
- Owns a license to pilot single-engine aircrafts.

1996: In his third pro season and his final campaign with the Cowboys, made 32 of 36 FG atts., including a 7-7 effort vs. Green Bay on 11/18 that tied an NFL record for most FGs in a game. He also drilled his last 27 regular-season FG atts. (the third longest such streak in NFL history) ... ranked 3rd in the NFC/tied for 5th in the NFL in scoring with 120 points and became the first Cowboy ever to record three consecutive 100-point seasons ... with an 88.9% success rate on FGs, tied for 1st in the NFC and 2nd in the NFL while posting the second highest single-season mark in Cowboys history, second only to the 96.4% rate he recorded in 1995 ... also set a Dallas record by making 32 FGs ... was named the NFC special teams player of the month in November when he hit all 13 of his FG atts., including his 7-7 effort vs. GB and a game-winner in overtime that beat San Francisco ... the 4 FGs he missed on the year were from an average of 44.0 yards out, including one that was blocked, one that hit the upright and one that bounced off the crossbar ... made a career-long 52-yd. FG vs. Ind. (9/15) when he also had a 57-ydr. hit the crossbar on the final play ... at SF (11/10) he twice tied the game in the 4th qtr. (once with a FG, then with a PAT) before kicking a 29-yd. game-winning FG in OT ... on 11/18 vs. GB tied NFL records for most FGs made in a game (7) and in one half (5). His seven FGs were from 45, 37, 42, 45, 35, 39 and 28 yards, while the 7 FGs tied the mark set by Jim Bakken (StL, 9/24/67) and Rich Karlis (Min., 11/5/89), his average attempt was longer than either's. The 21 points were a career-high and accounted for all of the Cowboys' scoring. His 5 FGs in the first half of that game also tied an NFL mark (Phila's Tom Dempsey in 1972; Karlis and Bakken) ... went on to set a Dal. single-game postseason record with 4 FGs vs. Min. (12/28) ... one week later at Car. (1/5/97), hit all 3 of his FG tries to push his postseason consecutive FG streak to nine ... finished his three-year Cowboys career ranked 6th in team history with 361 points, third among kickers behind Rafael Septien (874) and Mike Clark (386) ... also left Dallas as that club's postseason record holder for FG percentage (86.7%) ...

1995: There was no sophomore slump for Boniol as he established the second highest field goal percentage in NFL history and a Cowboys record by hitting 27 of 28 FGs for a 96.43% success rate (Tony Zendejas holds the league record at 100.0%) ... earned 2nd-team All-NFC honors after connecting on 25 straight FGs at one point ... in addition, racked up 127 points to rank 2nd in the NFC/4th in the NFL while establishing a Cowboys' record for scoring by a kicker ... drilled a game-winning FG as time expired vs. NYG (12/17) when, having already hit 4 FGs on the day, he booted a 35-

ydr. for a 21-20 win. That effort earned him NFC special teams player of the week honors ... opened the postseason by connecting on a what was then a career-long 51-yard FG vs. Phila. (the longest postseason FG in Cowboys history) ... opened the scoring in their Super Bowl XXX win over Pittsburgh with a 42-yd. FG and finished the day with 9 pts. ... experienced two unwanted firsts at Min. (9/17) when he missed both a PAT and a FGA - the missed PAT was the first of his career after making 57 straight; the missed FG (a 20-ydr.) was his only misfire all year ... relieved injured punter John Jett (back) vs. KC (11/23) on Thanksgiving and went 2-38.5-2In20 in that role ...

1994: An undrafted rookie free agent, Boniol joined the defending Super Bowl champion Cowboys and replaced veteran Eddie Murray who had jumped to the Eagles via free agency ... in his first NFL game at Pit. (9/4), hit a season-high 4 FGs and 2 PATs ... went on to make his first nine FG atts. and finished sixth in the NFC in field goal percentage at 75.8% (22-of-29) ... on 10/30 at Cin., drilled a 38-yd. game-winning FG with 5:00 left for a 23-20 win ... for the season, amassed 114 points to rank third in the NFC and sixth in the NFL in scoring among kickers.

COLLEGE: The holder of virtually every kicking record at Louisiana Tech, Boniol ended his career 3rd on the school's all-time scoring list with 255 points ... led the team in scoring three of his four years and was 50-81 on FGs, including five from over 50 yds. ... during his career, won or tied five games in the final seconds ... hit a 55-yd. FG in his 2nd career game.

PERSONAL: He and his wife, Christine, reside in both suburban Philadelphia and Baton Rouge, LA ... in '98, hosted a celebrity-filled fundraiser benefitting Cystic Fibrosis ... hit 10 of 18 career FGs and 113-121 PATs at Alexandria HS ... as a senior, nailed 34 of 35 PATs and a 47-yard FG while averaging 41.8 yards per punt ... his father, Don, coached the state high school baseball champions with Chris as the catcher ... started a kicking camp in his hometown during the '98 spring that he intends to hold annually ... majored in civil engineering ... owns a license to pilot single-engine aircraft after catching the flying bug in the fall of '94.

JAMES BOSTIC

Originally a third round draft pick (the 83rd selection overall) of the then-LA Rams in 1994, Bostic spent his rookie season with the Rams before being released in training camp the following year ...

subsequently spent '96 on the Green Bay Packers' Injured Reserve list and was out of football in 1997 before attending the Kansas City Chiefs' 1998 training camp ... a late pre-season cut by KC that year, he then had a brief stint with the Miami Dolphins before being signed to the Eagles' practice squad on 10/6/98 ...

1994-95: A third round pick of the Rams in '94, he spent the first 10 games of that season on the club's 53-man roster but saw no action before being placed on Injured Reserve with an ailing right wrist ... one year later, was released by the Rams during training camp and was idle the remainder of that year ...

MIKE CALDWELL

Although he didn't win an Academy Award for his 1998 season in Philadelphia, Caldwell certainly played his role to perfection ... signed by the Eagles as an unrestricted free agent on 4/9/98 to provide depth at linebacker and punch on the special teams units, Caldwell did just that en route to being voted by his new teammates as the club's special teams MVP ... a third round draft pick of Cleveland in 1993, he spent four seasons with the Browns/Ravens before moving to the Arizona Cardinals in 1997 ... experienced, versatile and extremely athletic, Caldwell has shown a knack for making big plays throughout his career - evidence of such are his two TDs on interception returns and his game-clinching INT vs. the Patriots' Drew Bledsoe ...

1998: In his first season as an Eagle, was voted by teammates as the club's special teams MVP after he led those units with 18 tackles and helped the Birds coverage teams improve dramatically over the previous season ... began the year as a reserve linebacker and registered an INT vs. Brian Griese at Den. (10/4) ... when starting LLB James Darling suffered a knee injury, however, Caldwell stepped in as the starter for the final 8 contests, maintaining that role even when Darling returned for the last 4 games ... posted a sack vs. Det., 7 tackles apiece at NYG and vs. StL, and a season-high 10 stops vs. NYG (12/27) ...

1997: Signed a free agent contract with Arizona and played in all 16 games for the Cardinals as a special teamer and backup at outside linebacker ... collected 33 tackles, two sacks and one interception (the INT came against the Eagles' Ty Detmer at Arz.) ...

A second round draft pick (the 57th selection overall) of the Birds in 1997, Darling battled incumbent James Willis for the middle linebacker spot as a rookie but ended up carving out his own niche as the Birds' starting left linebacker ... despite an injury-riddled '98 campaign, has become a very promising and aggressive defender ... during his first two seasons, has started 14 games at outside linebacker and posted 59 tackles, including 2 sacks, and knocked down 8 passes ...

1998: Opened the season as the club's starting LLB and logged sacks in consecutive games at Den. and vs. Wash. ... also broke up 3 Trent Green passes vs. Wash. before suffering a sprained MCL in his right knee vs. Dal. (11/12) ... missed the next four contests but returned to a reserve linebacker/special teams role in games 13-16 ...

1997: After veteran James Willis met the rookie's challenge for the starting MLB job in camp, Darling played primarily on special teams until taking over the LLB spot when injuries sidelined Darrin Smith and Ray Farmer ... first played LLB when Smith re-injured his ankle in game 10 vs. the 49ers ... made his first start the following week at Balt. (11/19) and held down the #1 role for the remainder of the year ... saw his only action as a MLB in the opener at NYG when he filled in for the injured Willis (high) for the final 3.5 quarters.

COLLEGE: A two-year starter at middle linebacker for Washington State, Darling was a first-team All-Pac 10 Conference selection in 1996 after registering 136 tackles ... in 43 games (20 starts) for the Cougars, Darling recorded 258 tackles, 2.5 sacks, 4 forced fumbles, and 1 interception.

BRIAN DAWKINS

The latter of the Eagles' two 2nd-round picks in 1996 (the 61st selection overall), Dawkins needed only three games to step into the starting lineup during his rookie season and has not looked back since ... capped his first pro campaign by earning numerous NFL All-Rookie team honors ... less than three years later, this young, aggressive free safety was rewarded for his fine play with a contract extension on 11/4/98 that will keep him in Philadelphia through the year 2003 ... armed with this new deal, Dawkins is now looking to solidify his place as a cornerstone of an Eagles defensive backfield that already includes stalwart cornerbacks Troy Vincent and Bobby Taylor ... one of the Eagles most dependable tacklers (he logged 241 stops in his first three seasons), Dawkins also provides such tremendous pass coverage ability from the safety position that many NFL observers equate his presence with that of having a third cornerback on the field ... said ESPN's Joe Theismann during the 1998 season, "Brian Dawkins is going to be a star in this league." ...

1996: A 2nd round draft pick of the Eagles, Dawkins started 13 games en route to NFL All-Rookie team honors from Pro Football Weekly, College & Pro Football Newsweekly, and Football News ... saw reserve duty in the opener, started game 2 at Green Bay when the Birds opened with five DBs, and took over the starting free safety spot from Eric Zomalt the following week ... notched his first career INT vs. Atl.'s Bobby Hebert on 9/22 and later added thefts off Mia's Craig Erickson and Buf.'s Jim Kelly ... registered a big play in a Monday night contest vs. Dal. (9/30) when he sacked QB Troy Aikman, forcing a fumble that DT Rhett Hall returned 32 yds. for a TD ... halted a Panthers' drive by recovering a Kerry Collins fumble deep in Eagles territory in a win over Car. ... suffered a strained groin at Ind. that sidelined him for the final two regular season contests ... returned to the lineup for

KOY DETMER

After spending the first 24 games of his NFL career either on the Injured Reserve list or as a backup to Rodney Peete, Bobby Hoying, and his older brother, Ty, Koy seemed an unlikely candidate to provide a jump start to the Eagles' lackluster offense in 1998. But it was the 2nd-yr. QB's unique blend of ability and charisma that indeed sparked the Birds' offense during the final five contests of the '98 campaign ... the first of the Eagles' three 7th round draft choices in 1997 and the son of a renowned Texas high school football coach, Koy joined Ty (an Eagle from 1996-97 and a current member of the Cleveland Browns) in becoming the first pair of brothers to each start an NFL game. Terry and Craig Bradshaw were the only other brother quarterback tandem in NFL history, but Craig never started a game ... also became the 10th quarterback to start for the Eagles in the 1990's.

• KOY'S KEYS •

- Koy and his older brother, Ty (an Eagle from 1996-97), became the first pair of brothers to start NFL games at quarterback.
- After spending his rookie season of 1997 on IR, went on to start the final 5 games in '98.
- Set the University of Colorado career record for TD passes with 40.
- Played high school football under his father, Sonny, in Texas and finished with a state-record 8,221 yards and 82 TD strikes.

the Eagles eventually lost, 24-16, Detmer finished 36-22-185-0-2TDs passing ... Detmer then fueled a victory vs. StL (12/3), going 33-17-169-2TDs passing, incl. a 61-yd TD to Irving Fryar ... posted career highs in atts. (43), comps. (24), and yards (231) at Dal. on 12/20 ... in the five starts by Detmer, the Eagles' offense showed marked improvement, increasing its scoring by over 5 pts. per game and its yardage output by more than 60 yards per contest ... over that same span, Detmer's agility, decision making, and quick release helped the offense surrender 3.9 fewer sacks per game (in fact, Detmer was not sacked at all in 3 of his 5 starts) ... in addition, Detmer fired 5 TD passes in the last five games compared to a combined total of two by Eagles QBs in the first 11 games combined ... in the preseason, was 47-27-333-0-4TDs passing and finished with a team-high 107.8 QB rating ...

1997: The first of the Eagles' three 7th round picks (the 207th selection overall), Detmer saw action in a scrimmage vs. Bal. but did not play in the preseason ... injured his right knee on 8/19 and spent the rest of the season on Injured Reserve ... had previously undergone season-ending surgery to the same knee in '95 while at the Univ. of Colorado.

COLLEGE: One of the most prolific passers in Colorado history, Detmer set the school record for most touchdown passes with 40 ... by throwing for 3,156 yds. and 22 TDs in 1996, Detmer became the first QB in Buffaloes history to throw for over 3,000 yards in a season ... capped his career with a 45-25-371-0-3TD passing effort in a 33-21 win over Washington in the Holiday Bowl ... earned first-team All-Big 12 Conference honors and was a finalist for the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award given to the nation's top senior passer ... amassed career passing totals of 594 atts., 350 cmps., 5,390 yds., 25 INTs, and 40 TDs.

PERSONAL: Koy is the younger brother of former Eagle and current Browns' QB Ty Detmer ... with a five year age difference, their stint together with the '97 Eagles marked the first time that the two brothers were teammates in any sport ... Koy and his wife, Katie - a former University of Colorado skier - have a son, Koy, Jr. (3/1/96) ... holds a degree in communications ... was an all-state QB in a pro-style passing offense at Mission (TX) HS, where he was coached by his father, Sonny ... finished his career with a state-record 8,221 passing yards and 82 TDs ... also lettered in basketball and golf ... is a deadly three-point shooter on the Eagles' offseason basketball squad ... enjoys golf, fishing, and hunting ... named after Ernie Koy, Sr. and Jr., both legendary football players in the state of Texas ... boyhood heroes include Roger Staubach and Joe Montana ... born 7/5/73 in San Antonio, TX.

HUGH DOUGLAS

In the winter of 1998, an offseason that saw high-profile defensive linemen such as Dana Stubblefield and Sean Gilbert switch teams, the Eagles made perhaps the best acquisition in the form of defensive end Hugh Douglas ... a former 1st round draft pick of the NY Jets and the 1995 NFL defensive rookie of the year, Douglas was acquired by the Eagles in a trade with the Jets on 3/13/98 ... three days after the trade, the Eagles then signed Douglas - who would likely have become one of the hottest commodities in the winter '99 free agency period - to a new six-year contract ... has established himself as one of the league's top pass rushers, recording eight multiple-sack games and 34.5 sacks overall in his first 53 outings.

DOUGLAS' 2-PLUS SACK GAMES

2.0 at Chi.	11/16/97
4.5 at SD	10/18/98
2.5 vs. Det.	11/08/98

1998: One of the NFL's premier, young pass rushers, Douglas was acquired by the Eagles from the Jets in March in exchange for the Birds' 2nd and 5th round draft choices in '98 ... subsequently put together a superb campaign, leading the Eagles and ranking 7th in the NFL with a career-high 12.5 sacks ... also tied a club record with a career-high 4.5 sacks at San Diego en route to earning All-Madden Team honors from Fox Sports analyst John Madden ... was named NFC defensive player of the month for October as he registered 7 sacks among his 20 tackles in just three games ... posted a career-high 4.5 sacks of Ryan Leaf at SD (10/18) to tie a club record set by Clyde Simmons on 9/15/91 at Dal. ... racked up a career-high 9 tackles at Den. (10/4), including a sack of Bobby Brister ... a week later, registered 1.5 sacks vs. Wash. ... posted 2.5 sacks of Charlie Batch vs. Det. (11/8) and 1.5 of Trent

Green in the next game at Wash. ... suffered a groin injury vs. STL (12/3) that caused him to miss significant action the rest of the year ... saw only limited reserve action in games 14 & 16 and was deactivated for game 15 at Dal. ...

1997: In his third and final season with the Jets, started 15 games at RDE (missed game 3 vs. Buf. with a groin injury) ... forced QB Warren Moon into two intentional grounding penalties in a season-opening rout of Sea. ...

• HUGH'S HIGHLIGHTS •

- The NFL's defensive rookie of the year in 1995, Douglas was acquired by the Eagles in a trade with the Jets on 3/13/98.
- In 1998, led the Eagles and ranked 7th in the NFL with a career-high 12.5 sacks.
- Tied an Eagles' record with a career-high 4.5 sacks at San Diego on 10/18/98.
- Named NFC defensive player of the month for October '98 when he registered 7 sacks in just three games.
- With the Jets on 12/14/96, recorded 3 sacks and a fumble recovery vs. Phila. QB Ty Detmer.
- Scored his first touchdown at any level of play when he returned a fumble 62 yards for a TD vs. Miami (12/22/96)
- Led the Jets in sacks as a rookie in '95 (10) and again in '96 (8).
- Was the Jets' second selection in the 1st round of the '95 draft (the 4th DE selected and the 16th pick overall) ... the Jets' other 1st round choice that year was TE Kyle Brady, the 9th pick overall.
- A two-time NAIA Division I All-America, Douglas lined up against Erik Williams, the Cowboys all-pro tackle, in practice.

prior to week two, however, coach Bill Parcells changed the Jets' base defense from a 4-3 to a 3-4; that switch put Douglas over the offensive tackle and guard, an uncomfortable role change that resulted in far more double-teams and fewer sacks for Douglas ... finished the season with 4 sacks and a career-high 3 forced fumbles ...

NFL SACK LEADERS - 1998

1. Michael Sinclair (DE), Seattle	16.5
2. Reggie White (DE), Green Bay	16.0
3t. Chris Doleman (DE), San Francisco	15.0
3t. Kevin Greene (LB), Carolina	15.0
3t. Michael Strahan (DE), NY Giants	15.0
6. Michael McCrary (DE), Baltimore	14.5
7. Hugh Douglas (DE), Philadelphia	12.5

1996: Led the Jets for the second straight year with 8 sacks ... also tied for the team lead in forced fumbles (2) and fumble recoveries (3) ... recorded 7 tackles, including 3 sacks and a fumble recovery vs. Phila. QB Ty Detmer on 12/14 ... the following week he recorded his first touchdown at any level of play when he returned a fumble 62 yards for a score vs. Mia. (12/22) ...

1995: Was the Jets' second selection in the first round of the '95 draft (the 4th defensive end selected and the 16th pick overall) ... went on to become the consensus NFL defensive rookie of the year after recording 10 sacks (8th best in the AFC) ... that number was just 2.5 shy of the NFL rookie record held by Leslie O'Neal and broke the Jets' rookie record of 8 set by Joe Klecko in 1977 ... was hampered late in the season due to an ankle sprain suffered in game 12 (was second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL in sacks at the time of his injury) ... played in 15 games, including three starts at right defensive end ... made his first NFL start at RDE vs. NE on 11/5 ... recorded three sacks vs. Jax. (9/17) ...

COLLEGE: A two-time NAIA Division I All-American, Douglas would line up against Erik Williams, the Cowboys all-pro tackle, in practice each day ... that experience, Douglas insists, made him a better player ... collected 42 sacks in just 32 games over his three-year college career and had 13 multiple-sack games ... as a senior was named defensive player of the year by the Washington D.C. Pigs Club and had four sacks in the Hula Bowl ... helped lead the Marauders to the national championship as a sophomore.

PERSONAL: Hugh and his wife, Ayanna, have two daughters, Kayla Rachelle (10/10/95) and Brianna Syann (1/7/99), and reside in Atlanta, GA ... majored in elementary education ... lettered in football at Mansfield HS in his hometown and birthplace of Mansfield, OH ... in 1999, started the Hugh Douglas Foundation (HDF), which benefits children in the Mansfield area ... with the Jets, Douglas learned hand-fighting techniques from former Dallas Cowboy Randy White's instructional video ... following the '96 football season, Central State dropped its football program; however, Douglas already has discussed with school officials how he could help them field a team in the future ... lists chicken as his favorite food and South Park as his favorite TV show ... names Bills' DE Bruce Smith as the athlete he idolized most as a child ... his favorite non-football team is the Philadelphia 76ers. "I love the way Allen Iverson handles the rock," said Douglas.

STEVE EVERITT

Entering his 7th NFL season and his third in Philadelphia, Everitt has become a staple in the middle of the Eagles' offensive line ... a starter in 29 of the club's 32 contests in the past two years,

Everitt has anchored an O-line that paved the way for a 1,000-yd. rusher in both 1997 (Ricky Watters) and '98 (Duce Staley) ... so sought after was Everitt when the free agent signing period commenced in the winter of 1997, the acquisition of his services became the Eagles' top priority ... indeed, Everitt's move to Philadelphia followed that of other much-heralded free agents, Ricky Watters and Troy Vincent, whom the Eagles lured away from the 49ers and Dolphins, respectively, in '95 and '96 ... began his NFL career as a first round draft choice of the Cleveland Browns in 1993 ...

1993: Was named to the NFL's All-Rookie squad by Pro Football Weekly, PFWA, Football Digest, College & Pro Football Newsweekly, and Football News after being the 14th selection overall in the draft and the first offensive lineman taken by the Browns in round one since Pete Adams in 1973 ... saw action at center and guard in the preseason before taking over the starting center job on opening day ... went on to start all 16 games and banged heads with all-pro DT Michael Dean Perry in practice every day ... Cleveland obtained the pick they used on Everitt (along with the 83rd selection overall) from Denver in exchange for the Browns' first round pick (the 11th choice overall which the Broncos subsequently used to select Toledo DE Dan Williams) ...

1994: Earned 2nd team all-pro honors from Tom Jackson's Pro Football Update after starting 15 of 16 regular season games and both playoff contests at center for the Browns ... anchored a line that permitted the league's fewest sacks, a team-record 14 ... also helped the offense ring up 340 points (Cleveland's highest total since '87) and propelled Pro Bowl back Leroy Hoard to 890 yards on 209 carries ... handled the long-snapping duties on placekicks as well ... was deactivated vs. NY (pinched nerve) ...

• EMPHASIS ON EVERITT •

- Has anchored an Eagles' O-line that paved the way for a 1,000-yd. rusher in both 1997 (Ricky Watters) and '98 (Duce Staley).
- Was the first offensive lineman taken by the Browns in round one since Pete Adams in 1973.
- Acquired a reputation for toughness in college when he missed only four games due to a broken left foot and just one game with a broken jaw ... and, after breaking his right thumb, he snapped flawlessly with his left hand.
- Sponsors two college scholarships at his alma mater, Southridge HS - one for a promising senior artist and another for a scholar-athlete.
- Missed the 1993 Senior Bowl because he returned to his parents' home in Florida that had been devastated by Hurricane Andrew.

1995: Started 14 of the 15 games in which he played for Cleveland, once again holding down the Browns' #1 center role ... was deactivated at Min. (12/9), one week after suffering a hamstring injury ... handled deep-snapping duty in place of the injured Brian Kinchen in games vs. KC (9/24) and vs. Buf. (10/2) ...

1997: A highly sought after free agent, Everitt left the Ravens to sign with the Eagles in March ... started all 16 games at center (only Everitt and LT Jermaine Mayberry started all 16 games on the O-line) ... suffered various nagging injuries, the most serious of which occurred during a preseason scrimmage when the Ravens' Tony Siragusa and then-Eagle Joe Panos tumbled on Everitt, severely spraining his knee and ankle ... subsequently missed the first two preseason games and was slowed at the start of the regular season ... did, however, go on to help pave the way for Ricky Watters' 1,000-yard rushing season ...

1998: After being slowed by an injury at the start of the season for the second straight year, Everitt bounced back to anchor a line that improved dramatically by season's end ... suffered a fractured foot while jogging prior to the start of training camp and was sidelined through the first three weeks of the regular season ... returned to the lineup for the first half of game 4 vs. KC ... he then played full-time at center in games 5-16, and helped pave the way for RB Duce Staley's first 1,000-yd. rushing season ... also helped the vastly improved line hold three of the Birds' final four opponents without a sack.

COLLEGE: A four-year starter for the Wolverines, Everitt left the Michigan program as the top-rated center in the 1993 NFL draft ... helped UM post a 29-3-3 record in the 35 games he started ... acquired a well-earned reputation for toughness when he missed only four games due to a broken left foot and just one game with a broken jaw ... added to that reputation as a freshman and a senior when - after breaking his right thumb - he snapped flawlessly with his left hand ... earned 1st team All-Big Ten honors as a senior when Michigan beat Washington in the Rose Bowl ... as a junior, suffered a broken jaw vs. Notre Dame that required a steel plate and several screws ... missed only one game and went on to earn 2nd team All-Big Ten honors ... originally took over the starting center job as a freshman (after redshirting in 1988) and earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors that year.

PERSONAL: At 6-feet, 5-inches and 310 pounds, with long blond hair and a skull &

dagger tattoo across his back, Everitt's imposing physical characteristics belie the softer side of this gentle giant. In fact, Everitt is an accomplished artist and a quiet humanitarian who devotes much of his time to community service with little regard for fanfare ... earned a degree in fine arts from the Univ. of Michigan ... originally began building his art portfolio while in junior high and today specializes in painting (abstract and surreal) ... while with the Browns, frequently contributed time and effort to the Rainbow Babies and Children's Hospital of Cleveland; helped fund the hospital's art therapy program and, in addition, donated to the hospital a percentage of the proceeds generated from the sale of his prints ... also was a featured artist at Cleveland events that benefitted the art education programs of NOVA (New Organization for the Visual Arts) ... today Everitt sponsors two college scholarships at his alma mater, Miami's Southridge HS - one for a promising senior artist and another for scholar-athletes ... it was at Southridge that Everitt twice earned all-state honors in football and was named the Dade County offensive player of the year as a senior in 1987 ... his father, Michael, is an accomplished graphic artist and sculptor ... his mother, Barbara, is an elementary school teacher ... missed the 1993 Senior Bowl because he returned to his parents' home in Cutler Ridge, FL, six miles north of Homestead, which was devastated by Hurricane Andrew - the family's home had been leveled by the storm ... said Everitt of his biggest disappointment in football, "I was cut when I went out for 65-pound pee-wee football when I was around seven years old. They said I had no talent. My dad was one of the coaches." ... a regular at heavy metal rock concerts, he lists Metallica among his favorite groups. AL HARRIS

Although the phrase "being in the right place at the right time" is a bit of a cliché, it may indeed be the best way to describe Al Harris' 1998 season ... after being placed on waivers by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers on 8/30/98, Harris was claimed by the Eagles one day later and, not only dressed for the Birds' home opener vs. Sea. in what would be his NFL debut, but actually started at RCB in place of an injured Bobby Taylor (shoulder) ... a fearless and physical cornerback, Harris went on to start 7 games overall for the Eagles and, when not working with the first unit, served as a dependable third cornerback ...

TIM HAUCK

Said Eagles' new defensive coordinator Jim Johnson of Hauck this spring after the 10th-year safety signed with the Eagles as a free agent, "I wish Timmy Hauck was 210 pounds. I like him as a football player. He's smart, has great leadership qualities, and can run. The only thing that he lacks is size. With Timmy one of three things will happen: somebody's going to get hurt -- it's either going to be him, an opponent, or one of our players. The guy is like a missile out there." ... after nine seasons with the NFL's Patriots, Packers, Broncos, Seahawks and Colts, the hard-nosed Hauck has earned a reputation as a special teams demon and a solid defensive back ... has served as a backup to some of the better safeties in the league (LeRoy Butler and Chuck Cecil with the Packers, Steve Atwater and Tyrone Braxton with the Broncos, and Darryl Williams with the Seahawks) ... joined the Eagles on 4/15/99 as an unrestricted free agent and is expected to open the season at strong safety, the position manned by Michael Zordich since 1994 ...

BOBBY HOYING

A third round draft choice of the Birds in 1996 and the 85th pick overall, Hoyer was the second QB selected that year (behind Michigan the 42nd selection overall) ... a year later, after taking only one snap as an NFL rookie, this big, strong-armed Ohio State product took over the reins of the Eagles' offense for the final six games of 1997 and showed flashes of brilliance ... entered 1998 as the Birds' #1 QB but struggled somewhat before returning to a backup role ...

State's Tony Banks, a 2nd round choice of the Rams and

1998: Opened the season as the Eagles' starting signal caller and after struggling in the opener vs. Sea. (23-9-60 with 9 sacks and an INT returned for a TD) rebounded at Atl, completing his first 10 attempts en route to a 35-24-232-0-0 passing effort ... left game 3 at Arz. in 3rd qtr. with a stiff back and neck after being tackled by LB Ronald McKinnon while scrambling and subsequently missed one game ... returned to the lineup at Den. (10/4) and was 24-11-96-1-0TD passing before relinquishing the starting role to Rodney Peete for the next three contests ... was pressed back into action in the 1st qtr. of game 8 vs. Dal. after Peete was injured (finger) and remained the starter for games 9-11, completing 15 of 21 atts. for 97 yds. in a win vs. Det. (11/8) ... went on to serve as the 3rdQB/deact. until both he and Peete gave way to 2nd-year QB Koy Detmer for the final 5 games ...

1997: In his second NFL season, Hoyer bided his time as a backup to veterans Ty Detmer and Rodney Peete before taking over the #1 role in game 11 ... exploded out of the gate, leading the Eagles to a 2-0-1 record in his first three starts and went on to finish the season as the NFC's fifth highest rated passer (83.8 QB rating, behind the 49ers' Steve Young, Falcons' Chris Chandler, Packers' Brett Favre, and Vikings' Brad Johnson) ... also ranked fifth in terms of 4th quarter passer rating (94.2 on 46-77-642-3TDs passing) ... did not throw an INT until the 92nd pass att. of his career - the third best mark in NFL history behind Warren Moon (130, Hou.-1984) and Steve Dils (110, Min.-1980) ... after dressing as the #3 QB for the first 10 games, saw

GREG JEFFERSON

A third round draft pick from Division 1-AA Central Florida, Greg Jefferson has developed his game on an annual basis to become a solid contributor and part-time starter on the Birds' defensive line ... in fact, it was Jefferson's improved play, along with his strong work habits, that prompted the Eagles to sign him to a four-year contract extension on 11/4/98 that will keep him in Philadelphia through the year 2001 ...

after a knee injury sidelined him for most of his rookie campaign in 1995, Jefferson eventually worked his way into the starting lineup in 1997 ...

1995: The first of the Eagles' two third round picks in the '95 draft, Jefferson earned a spot on the roster and saw action on special teams in games 1-3 before having his rookie season cut short by a torn ACL in his right knee ... suffered the injury while on kickoff coverage vs. SD and subsequently underwent surgery and was placed on Injured Reserve on 9/21 ...

1996: Held down a backup role on the Birds' D-line and tallied 23 tackles, including 2.5 sacks, in 11 games ... after not playing in the first three games, Jefferson saw his first action at Atl. and, on his first play from scrimmage, pressured Atl. QB Jeff George into a pass that was INT'd by William Thomas ... later in that contest, split a sack vs. Bobby Hebert ... notched the first full sack of his career vs. Mia.'s Craig Erickson and added another vs. NYG's Dave Brown ... was deactivated for games 15-16 and the Wild Card Game ...

1997: Played particularly well late in the year, recording career-highs of 10 tackles vs. NYG (12/7) and two sacks vs. Atl. QB Chris Chandler a week later ... overall, recorded a career-high 55 tackles, along with 3 sacks ... started 11 of the 12 games he played at LDE (did not start game 3 at Dal. when Birds opened in a 3-4 formation) ... was deactivated for games 4-7 as Jon Harris started at LDE ...

1998: After a season-ending knee injury to fellow DE Mike Mamula in August, Jefferson was thrust into a starting role (11 games at LDE and 3 at RDE) and responded with 47 tackles and a career-high 4 sacks ... was hampered himself by a lower leg injury early on and saw only limited duty in the opener ... posted a sack of Jake Plummer at Arz. but left game 6 vs. Wash. with an ankle sprain that caused him to be deactivated at SD ... notched a season-high 7 tackles vs. StL (12/3), including a sack of Tony Banks ... went on to start the final 3 games at RDE in place of an injured

Hugh Douglas (groin) and posted sacks of Arizona's Plummer and the Giants' Kent Graham ... one day after his wife, Twana, gave birth to their first child, Greg inked a four-year contract extension (11/2) with the Birds.

• GREG'S GOODS •

- After a knee injury sidelined him for most of his rookie campaign in 1995, Jefferson eventually worked his way into the starting lineup, opening 11 games in 1997 and 14 in 1998.
- In consecutive weeks in December, 1997, recorded career highs of 10 tackles vs. NYG (12/7) and two sacks vs. Atl's Chris Chandler.
- Led Central Florida in sacks during both his junior and senior campaigns.
- Played only one year of high school football because he had to work after school to help support his family.

COLLEGE: A skilled pass rusher, Jefferson finished his career at Division I-AA Central Florida with 31 sacks and 11 forced fumbles in 43 games (33 starts) ... led the Golden Knights in sacks during both his junior and senior campaigns with 15 and 8, respectively.

PERSONAL: Greg and his wife, Twana, reside in suburban Philadelphia with their daughter, Victoria (11/1/98) ... prepped at Bartow (FL) HS, where he garnered all-district and team MVP honors following his only season of high school football ... played only one year because he had to work after school to help support his family ... enjoys playing pool and video games ... has a twin brother, Craig ... majored in criminal justice ... Greg Benton Jefferson was born on 8/31/71 in Orlando.

CHARLES JOHNSON

A tough, talented receiver, this former 1st round pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers joined the Eagles as a veteran free agent on 2/16/99 after

was a prime target of Eagles' director of football operations, Tom Modrak, and head coach Andy Reid when the free agent signing period opened in February (it was Modrak, in fact, who served as the Steelers' director of college scouting when that club made the University of Colorado product the 17th overall selection and the first receiver taken in the 1994 NFL draft) ... Johnson and fellow WR Torrance Small were the Eagles' first two free agent additions in the winter of '99 as both joined the club just three days after the onset of free agency ... said Reid about what influenced the club to pursue Johnson, "Charles is a big receiver with good speed. He's very aggressive, not only to the football, but in his blocking...he has tremendous hands and is very willing to do what it takes to get the job done." ...

1998: In the last of his five campaigns with the Steelers, enjoyed one of the best seasons of his career ... moved into 6th place on the Steelers' all-time reception list with 246 after posting career-high figures in catches (65) and TDs (7) ... finished 2nd on the club in receptions behind only Courtney Hawkins (66) while posting the second best yardage total of his career (815) ... led or tied for the team lead in receptions on 8 different occasions and in receiving yards 7 times ... logged a career-best 3 TD

MIKE MAMULA

"Entering last season, we were anxious to see Mike team up with Hugh Douglas as both are high-motor guys who have shown they can put pressure on the quarterback," said Eagles director of football operations Tom Modrak on 2/11/99, when Mamula was signed to a new four-year contract. "Our defensive staff believes we can move [Hugh and Mike] around, take advantage of match-ups and create situations that are in our favor" ... after Mamula missed the entire 1998 regular season due to a knee injury, the fifth-year pro is eager to put a year-long rehabilitation process behind him and team up with Douglas in the aggressive scheme of new defensive coordinator Jim Johnson.

1998: Suffered a torn ACL and a torn lateral meniscus cartilage in his right knee during the 2nd preseason game vs. Pit. (8/14) and had season-ending reconstructive surgery performed a day later by team orthopedist, Dr. Arthur Bartolozzi ... he was placed on the Injured Reserve list on 8/18 ...

1997: Finished the season in strong fashion with a sack in three of the final four games ... also finished the year with a team-leading 32 QB hurries ... started all 16 games at right defensive end and also saw action at left end ... led the team in tackles at NYG (7) and vs. SF (9 - which tied a career high) ... vs. Dal., the Cowboys continually moved all-pro RG Larry Allen to LT to face Mamula in passing situations (that attention, however, cleared the way for Eagles' RDT Rhett Hall to make 3.5 of the team's 6 sacks) ...

1996: Started 16 games at the RDE spot and finished the year with 8 sacks, second on the club to William Fuller's 13 ... led the team with 24 QB hurries and tied for the lead in both forced fumbles and fumble recoveries with 3 of each ... ranked third on the club and tops among the Birds' defensive linemen in tackles with 75 ... got off to a great start in the opener at Wash. with 2 sacks of Gus Frerotte ... had another multiple-sack effort at NYG (10/13) notching 2.5 sacks of Dave Brown. His final sack that day resulted in a 4th qtr. fumble that LB William Thomas returned 23 yds. for a TD, sealing a 19-10 win ... one week later, beat Miami's all-pro LT Richmond Webb to sack Craig Erickson ... closed the year with a sack in each of the final two games - vs. Jets' QB Glenn Foley and Arz.'s Kent Graham ... in that 29-19 win over Ariz., Mamula set the tone on the 2nd play from scrimmage as he sacked Graham, forced a fumble, and returned it 4 yards for his first NFL touchdown ...

• MAMULA'S MEMORIES •

- A day before he would have become a free agent, inked a 4-year pact with the Eagles on 2/11/99.
- Missed the 1998 campaign after injuring his right knee in the 2nd preseason game vs. Pittsburgh.
- Finished the '97 season in strong fashion with a sack in three of the final four games.
- In 1996, ranked 2nd on the club with 8 sacks and tied for the team lead in both forced fumbles and fumble recoveries with 3 of each.
- Notched 2.5 sacks of Dave Brown at NYG on 10/13/96. His final sack that day forced a fumble that William Thomas returned 23 yds. for a TD.
- In a win over Arz. on 12/22/96, set the tone when his sack of Kent Graham forced a fumble that he returned 4 yds. for his first NFL TD.
- Earned NFC defensive player of the week honors after a 3-sack game vs. NYG on 11/19/95.

1995: So coveted by the Eagles' was Mamula prior to the 1995 draft, that the Birds traded with Tampa Bay in order to move up from the 12th spot in the first round to the 7th position in order to take him ... was in the starting lineup by opening day and went on to record 5.5 sacks ... 5 of those sacks came vs. two of the league's best tackles, all-pro Willie Roaf of New Orleans, and former all-pro Jumbo Elliott, then of the Giants ... overall, helped the Birds post 48 sacks, tops in the NFC and 2nd in the NFL only to Buffalo (49) ... at NO (10/1), notched the first two sacks of his career vs. QB Jim Everett ... in game 10, combined with William Fuller on a 1st-qtr. hit of Denver's John Elway that sidelined the QB for the rest of the game with a concussion ... then had a bitter-sweet outing vs. the Giants' Elliott on 11/19 as he earned NFC defensive player of the week honors by recording 3 sacks and a FF, but exited the game early in the 2nd half with a dislocated shoulder ... subsequently missed games 12-13 before returning to action vs. Dal. and to the starting lineup a week later ... notched a sack of QB Scott Mitchell in the Birds' NFC Wild Card game win over the Lions.

COLLEGE: One of the most productive pass rushers in the nation in 1994, Mamula was a unanimous All-Big East Conference selection after compiling 17 sacks ... in 31 career games for Boston College, including two bowl contests, notched 29 sacks ...

capped his career by earning Aloha Bowl MVP honors after sacking Kansas St. QB Chad May 4 times ... as an outside linebacker in 1993, he registered 12 sacks and garnered NBC-TV's player of the game status with a 14-tackle, 2-sack performance in a stunning upset of top-ranked Notre Dame.

PERSONAL: Mike and his wife, Chantal, were married this past offseason (6/18/99) ... resides in Bala Cynwyd, PA ... attended Lackawanna (NY) HS in suburban Buffalo, NY, and earned all-state honors following his senior season ... was captain of the football, basketball and track teams ... was also the school's MVP in both basketball and track ... lists the Philadelphia Special Olympics as his charity of choice ... has a older sister, Nickole ... holds a degree in sociology ... born Michael Brian Mamula on 8/14/73 in Lackawanna.

STEVE MARTIN

Originally selected by Indianapolis in the 5th round of the 1996 NFL draft (the 151st selection overall), Martin spent two-plus seasons with the Colts before being plucked off waivers by the Eagles on 10/23/98 ... the 6-4, 303-pound Martin now enters his fourth NFL season and his first full campaign in Philadelphia ...

1996: A fifth round pick of the Colts, saw action in 14 games (5 starts) as a rookie and posted 51 tackles ... made his first career start vs. Mia. (9/23) in place of injured DE Tony Bennett ... posted a career-high 13 tackles at NE (11/24) ... notched first career sack vs. NYJ QB Frank Reich (11/17) ... started AFC Wild Card game at RDT at Pittsburgh ...

1997: Tallied 21 tackles while appearing in the first 12 games for the Colts ... was inactive for the final four contests ...

1998: Appeared in four games for the Colts before being released on 10/22 ... one day later, was claimed off waivers by Philadelphia and went on to play in each of the Eagles' last nine games ... first saw action as part of the Birds' defensive tackle rotation before injuries along the defensive line vaulted him into a starting role for the final three contests ... notched a sack of Troy Aikman at Dal. (12/20).

COLLEGE: A four-year starter at Missouri, Martin finished his career with 244 tackles, including 17 sacks ... tied a school record with 8 sacks as a junior and posted 6 more the following year.

JERMANE MAYBERRY

A team player in every sense, the talented and versatile Mayberry has willingly placed the good of the team ahead of his own goals and

first round pick (the 25th selection overall) in 1996, Mayberry spent the '97 campaign as the club's starting left tackle and '98 as the #1 left guard; now, in 1999, the 6-4, 325-pound Mayberry is again slated for a new venture - the starting right tackle role ...

1996: As a rookie first round pick, Mayberry had been slated to be the Birds' starting left guard when training camp began ... a pre-season bout with pneumonia and its lingering effects caused him, however, to lose a significant amount of weight and slowed his progress early on ... was subsequently deactivated for the first five games ... saw his first game action on special teams in games 7-8 vs. Mia. and Car., respectively, before being deactivated for games 9-14 ... earned the first starting assignment of his career vs. the Jets on 12/14, replacing regular LT Barrett Brooks ...

1997: Won the starting left tackle spot in a training camp battle with incumbent Barrett Brooks ... subsequently started the final three preseason games and all 16 regular season games at that position ... went on to be the only Eagles offensive lineman to play every snap in '97 ... showed significant improvement as the season progressed ...

1998: Moved from left tackle, his position in '97, to left guard and started 10 of 16 contests at his new position ... did not play in game 8 vs. Dal. due to sore ribs ... although he was replaced by George Hegamin in the starting lineup for the final 5 outings, Mayberry saw reserve action at LG in each of those contests.

MAYBERRY'S CAREER GAMES PLAYED/STARTED:
(Eagles 1996-98) 1996 (3/1), 1997 (16/16), 1998 (15/10); TOTALS: (34/27).

PLAYOFF GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1996 (1/0)

COLLEGE: Mayberry was a consensus Division II All-America selection and a two-time All-Lone Star Conference pick as a left tackle for Texas A&M-Kingsville ... anchored a line that led the Javelinas to the Division II semifinals three times ... was coached by current Eagles' offensive line coach Juan Castillo ... formerly Texas A&I University, this outstanding Division II program has produced NFL players such as Gene Upshaw, John Randle, Darrell Green, Johnny Bailey, Earl Dotson, and former Eagle RB Heath Sherman ... after playing behind Dotson during his freshman year, Mayberry spent 1993 at Navarro (TX) JC before returning to Kingsville for the '94 and '95 campaigns.

• MAYBERRY'S MANTLE •

- Spent the 1997 campaign as the Eagles' starting left tackle and '98 as the #1 left guard.
- In '97, was the only Eagle offensive lineman to play every snap.
- Having suffered from an underdeveloped optic nerve in his left eye throughout his life, contributed $100,000 in '96 to help start a vision testing program known as the Eagles Eye Mobile, which has helped thousands of children and earned national recognition.

PERSONAL: He and his wife, Danielle, live in Philadelphia with their newborn son, Jermame (6/29/99) ... having suffered from amblyopia (an underdeveloped optic nerve in his left eye) throughout his life, Jermame contributed $100,000 to help start a vision testing program sponsored by Eagles Youth Partnership, the charitable wing of the Eagles. This program, which has operated in conjunction with Wills Eye Hospital of Philadelphia since 1996, circulates the Eagles Eye Mobile (a 36-foot, mobile vision clinic) to Philadelphia-area schools during the football season. Over the past three falls, more than 3,000 students have been provided with free on-site eye exams. Approximately 1,500 students received free prescription eyeglasses, while many other children were referred to Wills Eye Hospital for treatment of more serious eye ailments. For his efforts, Mayberry received the NFL's Extra Effort Award for the month of Dec. 1996. In subsequent years, Mayberry's work in conjunction with the Eye Mobile has earned him special recognition from Prevent Blindness Massachusetts (1998) and from the Philadelphia Chapter of the NFL Alumni Association (1999) ... was an all-state selection at Floresville (TX) HS ... also lettered in basketball ... majored in sociology ... Jermaine Mayberry was born on 8/29/73 in Floresville.

KEVIN McKENZIE

Joined the Eagles' 53-man roster as a free agent 12 weeks into the 1998 season (12/1) when he was signed directly from the San Francisco 49ers' practice squad ... originally entered the NFL as a rookie free agent signee of the 49ers (4/24/98), but was released on that club's final preseason roster cutdown ... was re-signed, however, to the Niners' practice squad on 9/2/98 ... after becoming an Eagle, was on the team's roster but was deactivated for each of the final four games of '98.

COLLEGE: In his two-year career at Washington State, McKenzie amassed 1,537 yards on 86 receptions ... as a senior was a member of the "Fab Five," the Cougars' 5-man receiving corps that hauled in passes from QB Ryan Leaf (the #2 overall selection in the '98 NFL draft by San Diego) and helped WSU earn a trip to the Rose Bowl ... Leaf's favorite target, McKenzie became a 1st-Team All-Pac 10 Conference selection as a senior in '97 and led the Cougars with 55-911-11TDs receiving totals ... tallied 5 receptions and one TD in the Rose Bowl vs. Michigan ... as a junior, caught 32 passes for 626 yards ... prior to attending WSU, spent two years at Long Beach Community College, garnering 1,935 all-purpose yards and 20 TDs.

PERSONAL: The Los Angeles, CA, native attended Wilson High in Long Beach where he was the team MVP and a two-time Long Beach Press Telegram Dream Team selection ... has three brothers and five sisters ... enjoys chess, crossword puzzles and swimming ... born 9/20/75 ... majored in communications.

BUBBA MILLER

A proven commodity as a back-up along the offensive line during his brief NFL career, Miller has filled in at center, guard, and even tight end for

agent prior to the 1996 season ...

1998: With starting center Steve Everitt sidelined from the beginning of training camp through the early portion of the regular season due to a foot injury, Miller started games 1-3 and relieved Everitt in the second half of game 4 vs. KC ... then, with a plethora of injuries at the tight end position late in the season, Miller saw part-time duty as an extra blocker in multiple-TE sets during the final four contests ... actually started at TE at Dal. (12/20) and recorded his first NFL reception - an 11-ydr. - vs. NYG (12/27) ... saw special teams duty throughout the season ...

1997: After being deactivated for 18 straight games over two seasons, Miller saw his first NFL action in a Monday Night Football matchup at Dal. (9/15) ... also filled in admirably for center Steve Everitt in game 5 vs. Wash. and went on to play in 13 games overall ... a natural center, he played primarily on special teams but made three starts at left guard (games 10-12) after Joe Panos suffered an eye injury at Arz. ... filled in at center while starter Steve Everitt nursed leg cramps for parts of two series in game 5 vs. Wash. ... made his first career start at LG vs. the 49ers on Monday Night Football and lined up against the eventual 1997 NFL defensive player of the year, Dana Stubblefield, who was the league's sack leader entering the game.

1996: Earned a spot on the Eagles' 53-man roster after being signed as a rookie free agent ... was deactivated for all 16 regular season games and one postseason contest.

DOUG PEDERSON

Having spent the previous three-and-a-half seasons mastering the mental complexities of Green Bay's "West Coast" style offense,

Pederson rejoined his former Packers' mentor, new Eagles' head coach Andy Reid, when he signed with Philadelphia as an unrestricted free agent on 2/17/99 ... armed with that knowledge of the offensive system – and of Reid, the Packers' quarterbacks coach from 1997-98 – Pederson will now help the Birds' new head coach implement his version of that attack in Philadelphia ... said Reid, "Doug's a very smart quarterback with good size, and that helps. He has the physical ability to run and throw the ball. He's been able to study the West Coast offense [at Green Bay], so he knows the system. This is a very tough offense in terms of playing the quarterback position and it's one that takes time to learn and master. Doug's been able to sit back and learn those things over the last few years. We brought Doug in here with a plan in mind. Not only does Doug give me a security blanket at quarterback but he also can help teach Donovan McNabb [the Eagles' #1 draft pick in '99] the ins and outs of this offense. Doug's presence will give Donovan an opportunity to learn." ... although Pederson has yet to start a game in the NFL, he learned his craft as an apprentice behind two future Hall of Fame QBs – the Packers' Brett Favre and the Dolphins' Dan Marino ... after falling short in his original bid to make the Dolphins' roster as a rookie free agent in 1991, Pederson spent 1992 on Miami's practice squad and parts of the next three seasons as a Dolphins' reserve until being waived by Miami for the sixth and final time in Oct. '95 ... subsequently spent a month working as a truck driver for FedEx before signing with Green Bay in November of that year for what would become a three-and-a-half year stint with the Packers ... the highlight of his tenure in Miami came in 1993 at Philadelphia's Veterans Stadium, when he entered the game after starter Scott Mitchell went out with a shoulder injury (Marino sat out that game with an injured achilles) and directed the Dolphins to a 19-14, come-from-behind win that gave head coach Don Shula his NFL-record 325th career victory ... actually received the majority of his playing time as a pro during two tours of duty in the World League -- first with the NY/NJ Knights in 1992 and then with the Rhein Fire in 1995 ...

(12/20) but had no pass atts. ... was 57-31-423-4-1INT passing in the preseason for a 94.4 passer rating ...

1996: Served as the Packers' #3 QB for 14 regular season games as well as for all three playoff contests, including Super Bowl XXXI win over New Eng. ... was the #2 QB vs. Chi. (12/1) and vs. Den. (12/8) when usual backup Jim McMahon was sidelined by a rib injury ... saw his only action, however, in 4th qtr. of blowout win over the Broncos, handing off 3 times ... was 56-32-390-2-1INT passing during preseason, seeing added playing time with McMahon out due to arthroscopic knee surgery ...

1995 NFL: Was selected by Carolina in the expansion draft on 2/15 but became a free agent on 5/22 when the Panthers withdrew their qualifying offer, thereby terminating their rights to him ... subsequently re-signed with the Dolphins for the fifth straight season on 7/11 ... was, however, waived by Miami in training camp (8/21) but later re-signed with the Dolphins on 10/10 ... was inactive for two games before being released again (10/24) ... then signed with Green Bay as a free agent on 11/21 ... served as Packers' #3 QB for three of Green Bay's last five regular season games plus all three playoff contests ... was inactive for two other regular-season games while Packers carried four QBs on their 53-man roster ...

1995 WORLD LEAGUE: Played in two games for the Rhein Fire in the spring of '95, going 26-11-186-1-2INTs passing ... got into the team's final two contests (vs. Barcelona and Amsterdam) in relief of Andy Kelly ...

1994: Was a member of the Dolphins' 53-man roster for the entire season but was deactivated for all 16 regular season games and both playoff contests ...

1993: Played in 7 games for the Dolphins as a reserve ... was initially waived on Miami's final cutdown (8/30) but was immediately signed to the club's practice squad ... moved up to 53-man roster on 10/23 and made NFL debut the following day vs. Ind. as holder for placekicks ... saw action as a reserve QB in three games, including two occasions in an emergency role following injuries ... completed 4 of 8 passes for 41 yards over the course of the season ... saw first pro action at QB on 10/31 vs. Chiefs in late relief of Scott Mitchell but had no atts. ... also replaced Mitchell, who suffered a left (throwing) shoulder separation in 3rd qtr. at Phila. (11/14) ... was 6-3-34-0-0 passing in that game and led two field goal drives that turned a 14-13 deficit into a 19-14 win that gave Don Shula his NFL-record 325th career victory ... replaced the injured Steve DeBerg (jaw) briefly in 3rd qtr. vs. the Giants (12/5) and was 2-1-7-0-0 ... was waived by Miami on 12/14 ...

1992 NFL: Was released by Miami on the final cutdown (8/31) but was signed to the Dolphins' practice squad two days later ... spent five weeks with that unit before again being waived on 10/5 ...

1992 WORLD LEAGUE: Played with New York/New Jersey Knights in the spring of '92 and, while seeing action primarily as a reserve, was 128-70-1,077-8-3INTs ... led Knights to their first win of the season in his only start, when he was 39-18-257-2TDs vs. Frankfurt Galaxy ... enjoyed his best performance in season finale at Montreal Machine as he threw for 309 yards and 2 TDs on 17 of 27 passing ...

1991: Began his NFL career by signing with Miami as an undrafted free agent on 4/30, but was waived in training camp (8/16).

COLLEGE: A three-year starter (1988-90) at Northeast Louisiana, Pederson followed in the footsteps of a pair of passers who went on to the NFL -- Bubby Brister and Stan Humphries (Humphries is now the QB coach at UNL) ... also played with Titans' TE Jackie Harris, Patriots' WR Vincent Brisby, and Dolphins' RB Roosevelt Potts ... finished his career with 571 completions on 1,032 attempts for 6,445 yards and 33 TDs with 41 INTs ... still holds the Indians' single-game record with 619 passing yards vs. Stephen F. Austin in 1989 ... led Southland Conference in passing as a senior, when he was 367-205-2,282-10-14 INTs ... threw for 2,603 yards and 16 TDs as a junior.

PERSONAL: Born Douglas Irvin Pederson in Bellingham, WA, the son of Teri (a homemaker) and Gordon (a buyer and computer system designer) ... resides in Monroe, LA, with his wife Jeannie (a former college basketball player at Louisiana College), and two sons, Drew (2/2/95) and Josh (9/22/97) ... his father had a job transfer from Washington to Louisiana in 1985 prompting Doug's enrollment at UNL - in fact, it was his father who presented then-head coach Pat Collins with a video tape of Doug's high school career ... earned a B.A. degree in business management ... was an all-league selection as a quarterback, safety and kicker at Ferndale (WA) High ... also lettered in basketball and baseball ... hobbies include water sports and golf ... has worked with the Cerebral Palsy Telethon in Louisiana and often speaks to elementary school students in Monroe during offseasons.

Although one of the smallest players on the Eagles roster at 5-8, 178 pounds, Rossum provides the club with a unique blend of speed and quickness ... that speed, along with an NCAA-record nine touchdowns via returns, prompted the Birds to draft the Notre Dame product in the third round (the 85th selection overall in 1998) and use him as the club's primary kickoff and punt returner ... did not disappoint, logging 1,080 KOR yards as a rookie to become just the 4th player in team history to post 1,000-or-more such yds. in a single season (Derrick Witherspoon, Duce Staley and Herman Hunter were the others) ... his 24.5-yd. KOR avg. ranked 7th in the NFC and included 9 returns of 30 yards-or-more, with his best effort being a 54-ydr. vs. NYG (12/27) ... was thrown into the fire on defense as well, starting games 2-3 due to a quad injury to LCB Troy Vincent ... posted 13 tackles in those two contests while helping the Birds hold the Falcons and Cardinals to a combined total of just 333 yards passing ... saw action in nickel packages in the final two contests and posted a sack of Troy Aikman at Dallas.

COLLEGE: Set an NCAA career record with nine touchdowns via returns (3 after an interception, 3 on kickoffs, and 3 on punts) ... started 36 games at left cornerback and recorded 7 INTs along with 144 tackles ... also excelled as a kickoff returner, posting a 29.3-yard avg. on 33 kickoffs and a 15.8-yard avg. on 27 punts ... as a senior, ranked fourth in the nation in kickoff returns with a 28.5-yard avg. (20-570) and 2 TDs ... was the nation's top punt returner as a junior with a 22.9-yard avg. (5-344) and 3TDs ... tied an NCAA record with 2 punt returns for TDs vs. Pittsburgh ... as a track star, finished 7th in the NCAA 55-meter finals (6.26) en route to two-time All-America honors ...

at the onset of free agency by the Eagles, Small and fellow wide receiver newcomer Charles Johnson were inked to contracts just three days after the signing period began ... said head coach Andy Reid of the Eagles' new receiving corps, "We got two big wide receivers, and that was important for what we want to do. Torrance is a big target for a quarterback. When you shake hands with him it's like shaking a catcher's glove ... He developed into a go-to-guy in Indianapolis. Peyton Manning had a tremendous amount of confidence that Torrance would be there [for him]." ... predominantly a third receiver with the Saints and Rams, Small emerged as an effective starter with the Colts midway through the '98 season when an injury sidelined top wideout Marvin Harrison ... originally a fifth round pick (138th overall) of the Saints in 1992, he spent five seasons in New Orleans, before being released in May of 1997 ... was subsequently signed by the Rams two weeks later ... following the '97 season moved to the Colts, as an unrestricted free agent ...

1998: It was in this, his one and only season with the Colts, that Small showcased his receiving abilities after becoming a late-season starter ... on the way to catching a career-high 7 TD passes, amassed 681 yards on 45 receptions ... primarily the club's third receiver through the first 11 games, was just 24-255-3TDs in that span ... it was in the 12th game at Balt. that he was thrust into the limelight and responded with a 9-153-1TD effort ... the following week earned his first start as a Colt at Atl. and went 2-38 including a 30-yard TD reception from QB Peyton Manning ... in game 14 vs. Cin., was 5-57 with a pair of 16-yd TDs ... at Sea. logged the fourth multiple TD game and third 100-yard effort of his career by going 3-120 with scoring grabs of 48 and 53 yards ...

DUCE STALEY

Since being a third round pick of the Eagles in 1997, Staley has been asked to fill a variety of roles throughout his brief NFL career and has excelled in each and every one of them ... during his rookie season, Duce carved a niche for himself as the Birds' primary kick returner, finishing with a 24.2-yard KOR average that ranked fifth in the conference ... one year later, after RB Ricky Watters left for Seattle via free agency and Charlie Garner began the '98 campaign with ankle problems, Staley took on the role of a workhorse back ... in the process, the 2nd-year pro took a firm grasp of the starting job, shook off a painful, season-long hernia, and battled his way to 1,065 yards on the ground, while also leading the team with 57 receptions ... as a result, Staley became the first Eagle draft pick to surpass the 1,000-yard rushing plateau since Wilbert Montgomery did so in 1981 ... signed a six-year deal on 5/21/99 that will keep him in Philadelphia through 2004.

1998: Following the winter departure of Ricky Watters to Seattle via free agency and with Charlie Garner plagued by injuries early on, Staley was thrust into the spotlight and quickly blossomed ... after taking on the role of a featured back, Staley led the Eagles in rushing (1,065 yards), receptions (57), total yards from scrimmage (1,497), and TDs (6) ... that output was made all the more impressive by the fact that he played the majority of the year with a painful hernia ... by season's end, he became

Walker (1993) ... voted by his teammates as the club's offensive MVP, he finished the year ranked 5th in NFC/11th in NFL in total yds. from scrimmage

BOBBY TAYLOR

Most NFL observers will tell you it's difficult to be successful without good cornerbacks and the Eagles have quite a pair in Troy Vincent and the

6-3, 216-pound Bobby Taylor ... in fact, the Eagles consider

Taylor so important to the future of the franchise that they inked the former Notre Dame star to a 6-year contract extension on 11/2/98 that will keep him in an Eagles uniform through the 2004 season ... "Bobby has excellent size and athletic ability," said Eagles' director of football operations Tom Modrak. "He matches up well with the big receivers in the league and he takes those matchups as a personal challenge. And that's the great thing about Bobby ... he can be as good as he wants to be. Big plays come from the corner position, often, and if you have cornerbacks that are dependable out there, it permits you to do many other things with your defense." ... During his three NFL seasons to date, Taylor has been a staple in the Birds' defensive backfield while displaying the physical tools and psychological toughness to be one of the premier cornerbacks in the league ... as such, Taylor is often matched up against opponents' best receivers and usually comes out on top ... an NFL All-Rookie team pick in '95, he was paired the following year with Vincent, a 1996 free agent acquisition from the Dolphins, to give the Birds one of the NFL's top cornerback tandems ... coupled with fine, young free safety Brian Dawkins, Taylor and Vincent make the secondary one of the Eagles' strongest units ... keeping Taylor healthy, however, will be a key factor in the Eagles' fortunes as injuries slowed him in both the 1997 and '98 seasons ...

1995: The first of the Eagles' two 2nd round picks in '95, Taylor was selected with a choice obtained from Kansas City in a draft day deal that sent WR Victor Bailey and a 4th round pick to the Chiefs in exchange for the 50th selection overall and a later pick ... began the '95 campaign in a learning mode but prior to game 5 at NO was inserted into the starting lineup ahead of Derrick Frazier ... he then quickly excelled against some of the league's best, and

• TAYLOR MADE •

- Inserted into the starting lineup in game 5 of his rookie season in 1995 and went on to earn a spot on the NFL's All-Rookie team.
- Attained NFC defensive player of the week honors in December of '95 following big efforts vs. Dal.'s Michael Irvin and Det.'s Herman Moore.
- In a Monday night game at Dallas on 9/15/97, his two sacks vs. QB Troy Aikman resulted in fumbles, the second of which William Thomas returned for a TD.
- While at Notre Dame, returned an INT 31 yds. for a TD vs. Navy in a 1993 game played at Veterans Stadium.
- Was recruited to play basketball at Michigan and most of the Southwestern Athletic Conference schools.

biggest, receivers ... subsequently earned a spot on the NFL's All-Rookie team as well as praise from then-FOX-TV football analyst Jerry Glanville who said, "[Taylor's] got a great future ahead of him. In three years I haven't seen a rookie corner look this good." ... garnered national recognition by twice earning NFC defensive player of the week honors in December - first holding Cowboys' all-pro Michael Irvin to just 3 catches in a win over Dallas (when he also broke up two Troy Aikman-to-Irvin bombs on the 'Boys final series) and then after putting the clamps on Lions' all-pro Herman Moore in a playoff win ...

1996: Big things were expected of Taylor heading into his sophomore season in the NFL and he did not disappoint ... often locking horns against opponents' top wideouts, Taylor tallied 62 tackles, 3 INTs, 23 pass deflections and 2 fumble recoveries while starting all 16 games ... was credited with his first NFL sack at GB vs. Brett Favre ... a week later, recorded his first INT of the season, snaring a pass by Det.'s Scott Mitchell in the end zone ... also notched INTs at NYG off Dave Brown and in a game 9 win at Dallas, the Birds' first win at Texas Stadium since 1991 ... in that game, Taylor again matched up against Michael Irvin and held the all-pro to no receptions in the 1st half ...

1997: After being injury free in his first two campaigns and with stardom within his reach, Taylor's third season was cut to just six games ... saw limited preseason action due to a groin injury that rendered him unable to start the opener ... then, when finally at full strength, suffered a season-ending knee injury in the 1st qtr. of game 6 at Jax. (10/12) that required surgery by Dr. James Andrews ... suffered torn lateral meniscus cartilage and a partial tear of the anterior cruciate ligament in his right knee while breaking up a pass from Mark Brunell to WR Jimmy Smith and was placed on Injured Reserve on 10/17 ... Taylor's best game - and an example of what might have been - came at Dal. (9/15) on Monday Night Football. In that game his two sacks vs. QB Troy Aikman resulted in fumbles, the second of which William Thomas returned 37 yards for a TD ...

1998: Taylor's return from a '97 knee injury was slowed in the third preseason game at Balt. when he suffered a fractured scapula after being tackled by Ravens' T Jonathan Ogden while returning an interception ... subsequently missed the first five regular season games before returning to the lineup vs. Wash. (his first regular season action in 364 days) ... went on to post a team-best and career-high 10 tkcls. at Wash. (11/15) ... did not start at Dal. due to a stomach virus.

COLLEGE: Was named to numerous All-America teams following his senior season of '94 when he started 11 games at cornerback for the Irish ... a three-year starter, he finished his Notre Dame career with 142 tackles and 5 INTs ... his only sack came in 1994 vs. Florida State when he not only forced a fumble but returned it 57 yds for a TD ... ret'd an INT 31 yds for a TD vs. Navy in a 1993 game played at Veterans Stadium.

PERSONAL: Single ... resides in Sugarland, TX ... attended Longview (TX) HS and was a USA Today and Parade Magazine All-America selection ... also lettered in basketball and track and, in fact, was recruited to play basketball at Michigan and most of the Southwestern Athletic Conference schools ... sociology major ... born Robert Taylor on 12/28/73 in Houston, TX.

HOLLIS THOMAS

Since entering the NFL as an undrafted rookie free agent from Northern Illinois in 1996, Thomas has gone on to make a name for himself as one of the Eagles' top run defenders over the course of the last three seasons ... enters '99 having logged 33 career starts and 200 tackles, including 8.5 sacks ... first impressed the Eagles with a home-made college highlight tape he sent to all 30 NFL clubs; the tape included shots of Thomas wrecking havoc on the football field accompanied by the rapping of Eric B. & Rakim (I Ain't No Joke and How Can I Move the Crowd?) ...

1996: A long shot to make the club as a rookie free agent, Thomas defied the odds and not only fought his way onto the roster but capped his first pro campaign by earning NFL All-Rookie Team honors from Football News ... finished the season with 64 tackles, 1 sack, and 12 QB hurries ... saw reserve action in every game before earning the starting left defensive tackle role in games 12-16 ... took over that role when he jumped ahead of vets Kevin Johnson and Ronnie Dixon, the original replacements for starter Andy Harmon, who missed 14 games with a knee injury ... notched the first sack of his career vs. Car.'s Kerry Collins, and in a game 9 win at Dal., set up the Birds' go-ahead FG when he pressured Troy Aikman into an ill-advised 4th qtr. pass that was INT'd by James Fuller ...

1997: Started all 16 games at LDT despite a strained abdomen and dislocated finger ... a solid run-stopper, Thomas tied MLB James Willis for the club lead with a career-high 82 tackles and was named to the NFL's 1997 All-Underrated team by Fred Edelstein ... at Arz. (11/2), posted a career-high 8 tackles, including 1.5 sacks vs. QB Jake Plummer ... also sacked Wash. QB Gus Frerotte and tipped a Vinny Testaverde pass that Willis INT'd at Baltimore ...

1998: Despite missing the final four games due to injury, Thomas ranked 3rd on the team with a career-high 5 sacks ... started 12 games at LDT ... posted a career-best 2 sacks vs. Wash. (10/11) ... a week later at SD, collected 7 tackles, incl. a half-sack of Ryan Leaf, and 2 blocked passes ... registered a sack of Troy Aikman vs. Dal. and a sack of Trent Green at Wash. ... suffered a torn left biceps tendon at GB (11/29) and underwent surgery on 12/2 ... was subsequently placed on the Injured Reserve list and missed the first games of his career.

TRA THOMAS

The Eagles' first round draft choice and the 11th player selected overall in 1998, Thomas started all 16 games at left tackle - one of the game's most demanding positions - during his rookie season ... with a 6-7, 349-lb. frame and a long reach, Thomas displayed flashes of greatness during his inaugural campaign, earning all rookie-team honors from College and Pro Football Newsweekly along the way ... proved early on that he could excel at the NFL level when in game 4 vs. KC (9/27), he held Chiefs' all-pro LB Derrick Thomas without a sack or tackle ... did not allow a sack in the entire month of December as the line gave up just 4 sacks in their last five contests ... in addition, helped pave the way for RB Duce Staley's first 1,000-yd. rushing season.

COLLEGE: Polished his pass blocking skills during Florida State practices against top-flight defenders such as Andre Wadsworth, Peter Boulware, Reinard Wilson, and Greg Spiers (Boulware and Wilson were NFL 1st round picks in 1997 by Baltimore and Cincinnati, respectively; Wadsworth was the third selection overall in 1998 by Arizona; and Spiers was taken in the 3rd round by New England in 1998) ... played the "tight" tackle position,

- Earned trips to the Pro Bowl following the 1995 and '96 seasons.
- Voted by his teammates as the Eagles' defensive MVP three straight years from 1995-97.
- Is the only NFL player to have posted at least one sack and one interception during each of the last seven seasons (1992-98).
- Enters the 1999 season ranked 9th on the club's career sacks list with 30.5 and 12th on the club's all-time INT list with 18.
- Has the longest current tenure with the Eagles and, in fact, is the only starter remaining from the Birds' legendary 1991 defense that ranked #1 in the NFL across the board.
- Registered 4 career TDs and 1 safety throughout his NFL career.
- Earned NFC defensive player of the week honors following wins over the Cardinals (12/17/95) and the Giants (10/13/96).
- Donated a large sum of money to help his high school - Palo Duro - build a track in 1999.

William Thomas earned his first Pro Bowl berth following a 1995 campaign in which he registered a career-high 7 interceptions.

selection), he took over the starting right line-backer role in game 9 vs. NYG (11/4) and helped the Birds' defense, a unit that sent five players to the Pro Bowl, become the first since the 1975 Vikings to rank #1 in the league across the board ... began pushing for playing time that preseason with a TD on an INT return at Cin. ... earned his keep on special teams before shining vs. the 49ers and stepping into the #1 role ahead of veteran Jessie Small for seven of the final eight games ... made his 1st career sack on 9/22 vs. Pit.'s Bubby Brister ...

1992: In only his 2nd season, served notice that he was a versatile OLB with a penchant for big plays ... made 2 very timely INTs - the first came at GB off Brett Favre at the Eagles' 7; the other halted a Redskins' scoring drive ... recovered fumbles vs. Dal. & at NYG and again at Dal. in the NFC Divisional Playoff ... finished the year ranked 7th on the club with 94 tackles, including 1.5 sacks ...

1993: Finished 3rd on the club in tackles with 107, behind only fellow LBs Seth Joyner & Byron Evans ... in addition, had a career-high 6.5 sacks, 2 INTs, and team-highs of 4 forced fumbles & 3 fumble recoveries ... over the final 7 games, truly displayed his big-play ability ... his totals in that span included 5.5 sacks, 3 FFs, 2 FRs, & 1 INT ... that stellar streak began vs. NYG with a career-high 16 stops, including a sack ... a week later at Wash., grabbed an INT off Rich Gannon ... added a key sack vs. NO's Mike Buck as he forced a fumble that resulted in a safety ... then finished the season strong at SF with 10 tkls and 2 FFs, one of which came on a sack of Steve Young and resulted in a 30-yd. TD return by Evans ...

1994: Started all 16 games at RLB and finished 2nd on the club in tackles (126) and 3rd in sacks (6) ... after MLB Byron Evans was lost for the year with a knee injury in game 10, Thomas took over Evans' role as the sole LB on the field in the dime defense ... big outings included 2 sacks vs. Hou. (10/24), an INT off Dallas QB Rodney Peete (12/4), and a 14-tackle/1-sack effort at Pit. (12/11) ...

1995: Was challenged early on by new head coach Ray Rhodes who said it was time for Thomas to truly elevate his game ... indeed, he did just that ... earned his first selection to the Pro Bowl (as the backup OLB to Ken Harvey and Lee Woodall) after recording a career-high

7 interceptions ... those 7 INTs, the most by a linebacker since the Jets' Lance Mehl had 7 in '83, tied him for 3rd in the NFL behind Vikings' safety Orlando Thomas (9) and Lions' S Willie Clay (8) ... was truly a Cardinal and Giant killer, registering 6 of his 7 INTs in four games vs. those clubs ... had 2-INT outings vs. Tommy Maddox at NYG on 10/15 and vs. Dave Kreig in the playoff clinching win over Ariz. on 12/17 ... in that 21-20 win vs. Ariz., Thomas' 2nd theft came with 33 seconds remaining and sealed not only a victory and the Eagles' first playoff berth since '92, but also resulted in his earning NFC defensive player of the week honors as well ... had earlier returned another INT off Kreig for a 37-yd. TD at Ariz. on 9/10 and set up an Eagles' TD vs. NYG on 11/19 with an INT off Dave Brown ... continued his fine play in the Birds' 58-37 NFC Wild Card playoff win over Det. on 12/30, scoring the Birds' final points when he stepped in front of a Don Majkowski pass and returned it 30 yds. for a score ... in a win over the Rams, registered a key 4th-qtr. INT off Chris Miller and alertly stopped a 2-pt. conversion try when he tackled Carlos Jenkins on a "swinging gate" play ... moved to LDE on passing downs in games 5-7 when starter William Fuller was sidelined (hamstring) ...

1996: Once again put together a season full of big plays that - for the second consecutive year - resulted in his being named to the NFC Pro Bowl squad and as the Eagles' defensive MVP ... tied for second on the club with 3 INTs

NO DOUBTING THIS THOMAS

William Thomas has recorded four touchdowns and one safety as a pro. The breakdown:

- 37-yd. INT return off Cards' QB Dave Kreig at Arizona (9/10/95)
- 30-yd. INT return Lions' QB Don Majkowski in a Wild Card Game vs. Detroit (12/30/95)
- 23-yd. return of fumble by Giants' QB Dave Brown at New York (10/13/96)
- 37-yd. return of fumble by Cowboys' QB Troy Aikman at Dallas (9/15/97)
- Blocked Tom Rouen's punt out of the end zone for a safety at Denver (10/4/98)

while also ranking third in sacks (5.5) and passes broken up (11), and fifth in tackles (71) ... in a week 4 win at Atl., registered the third 2-INT game of his career (one of Jeff George and another of Bobby Hebert) ... earned NFC defensive player of the week honors two weeks later following a 19-10 win over the Giants when he notched 1.5 sacks vs. QB Dave Brown and returned a fumble by Brown 23 yds. for a score. The fumble return came late in the 4th qtr. with the Birds holding a slim 12-10 lead ... notched a sack of Wash.'s Gus Frerotte in game 11 and two more of Boomer Esiason in game 12 at Ariz. ... helped the Birds clinch a playoff spot with a game 15 win over the Jets when he sacked Glenn Foley once and then sealed the game late in the 4th qtr. with an INT off the Jets' passer ...

1997: Was voted by his teammates as the Eagles' defensive MVP for the third straight season and was leading the club in tackles before a knee injury in game 14 vs. NYG (12/7) ended his season ... the injury ended a streak of 79 straight starts (dating back to 12/20/92 when the Eagles opened in a 5-DB set) and forced him to miss the first game of his career ... still finished third on the club in tackles (81) and second in sacks (5.0) ... returned a Troy Aikman fumble 37 yards for a TD at Dal. on Monday Night Football (9/15) ... made several other big plays on the year, including two sacks vs. Dal. (10/26) and an INT off Bal. QB Vinny Testaverde that halted a Ravens' drive at the PE7 ... was selected to the '97 NFL All-Underrated team by Fred Edelstein ...

1998: Anchored the Eagles' linebacking corps once again ... started all 16 games at RLB and finished third on the club with 95 tackles ... also recorded 2 sacks, 1 INT, and a team-high 14 pass knockdowns ... at Den., notched an INT off Bubba Brister and blocked a Tom Rouen punt through the end zone for a safety (the blocked punt was the first by an Eagle since 11/22/92) ... snuffed a Redskin drive by forcing a Terry Allen fumble in a win vs. Wash. (10/11) ... recorded sacks of Ryan Leaf at SD and Jake Plummer vs. Arz. ... posted season-high 11 tackles vs. StL.

COLLEGE: Was voted as the Southwest Conference defensive player of the year, a consensus 1st team All-SWC choice, and an All-America honorable mention pick as a senior when he led Texas A&M with 13 sacks ... as a junior, received All-America honorable mention acclaim after finishing with 8.5 sacks ... a 3-year starter, he played his final 2 seasons at LB after beginning as a free safety.

PERSONAL: William and his wife, Susan, reside in Sewell, NJ, with their two sons, Zion

* Thomas blocked a punt out of the end zone for a safety at Denver (11/4/98)

CAREER HIGHS: TACKLES - Total 16 vs. NYG 11/21/93, Solo 11 vs. StL 12/3/98; SACKS - 2 (three times) vs. Dal. 10/26/97, at Arz. 11/24/96, and vs. Hou. 10/24/94; INTs - 2 (3 times) at Atl. 9/22/96, vs. Arz. 12/17/95, and at NYG 10/15/95, Long 37 yds. for a TD at Arz. 9/10/95 and 37 yards at Atl. 9/22/96.

A knee injury suffered by William Thomas vs. NYG on 12/7/97 ended a streak of 79 straight starts and forced him to miss the first game of his career.

Michael (2/15/95) and Noah Andrew Harrison (1/3/98) ... majored in sports management ... also lettered in football, track, and basketball at Palo Duro High in his hometown and birthplace of Amarillo, TX ... served as Delaware (PA) County's honorary chairman for National Alcohol Awareness Month in April 1996 ... an excellent golfer, Thomas also is a self-proclaimed EA Sports video game junkie ... has two older brothers, Darrell and Charles ... in '99, donated a large sum of money to help his high school build a track ... in '97, saw sports psychologist, Wayne Diamond, to help him with the mental preparation toward the game. Said Thomas, "A lot of it is upstairs. You have to believe you can make big plays. You have to take on a certain frame of mind to play well every week. You have to believe you can do it. If you believe you can play your best, you're going to play your best. I believe I can do it. I visualize it all the time. I visualize myself making a sack, or an interception."

JEREMIAH TROTTER

With a year under his belt learning the intricacies of being a middle linebacker in the NFL, this aggressive, 261-pound defender now looks to make his mark in defensive coordinator Jim Johnson's attacking style of defense ... the first of two third round draft picks by the Eagles in 1998 (the 72nd selection overall), this former outside linebacker challenged incumbent James Willis for the MLB role during his rookie training camp ... after being deactivated for 7 of the first 8 contests, he saw special teams action and reserve duty at linebacker during the latter part of the season ... due to injuries along the defensive line, Trotter also saw action at defensive end at Dal. (12/20).

COLLEGE: A three-year starter as a strong side linebacker at Stephen F. Austin, he finished his collegiate career with 265 tackles, including 25 behind the line of scrimmage, 7.5 sacks, 3 interceptions, 3 forced fumbles and 4 fumble recoveries ... was a consensus first team All-America and All-Southland Conference selection as a senior after leading the Lumberjacks with 85 stops, including 4 sacks.

PERSONAL: Trotter and his wife, Tammi, reside in Mt.

Laurel, NJ ... majored in business management ... was a three-time all-district selection and added District MVP honors as a senior at Hooks (TX) High ... learned the value of hard work - while also developing his massive upper body - by chopping wood for the family business run by his late father, Myra. Said Jeremiah, "Football really wasn't that hard. Running and lifting, that was easy compared to the work I did at home." ... was encouraged by his father to leave college after his junior year to help support his family ... has four sisters and three brothers ... was one of several NFL rookies featured in ESPN commercials to promote preseason games in 1998.

KEVIN TURNER

One of the NFL's best all-around fullbacks, Kevin Turner enters his 8th NFL season and his 5th in Philadelphia ... a text-book lead blocker and

quiet, hard-nosed, throwback style has made him a perfect complement to RBs Ricky Watters, Charlie Garner, and most recently, Duce Staley, during his tenure in Philly ... his blocking prowess has helped generate four straight 1,000-yd. rushing performances, including 3 by Watters from 1995-97 and one by Staley in 1998 ... a 3rd round draft pick of New England in 1992, Turner established himself as a favorite target of Patriots' QB Drew Bledsoe before being lured to Philadelphia as a restricted free agent in 1995 ... despite having his inaugural Eagles campaign ended prematurely by a knee injury in game 2, Turner has hauled in 129 passes for 1,113 yds. and 4 TDs in a Birds' uniform ... in fact, when excluding that injury-shortened '95 campaign, Turner has averaged over 41 receptions per year while with Philadelphia.

1998: For the third straight season, played in all 16 games (15 starts) at fullback and helped RB Duce Staley record his first 1,000-yd. rushing season ... finished fourth on the team with 34 receptions for 232 yards ... got off to a solid start by going 8-54 rushing in the opener vs. Sea. (his single-game bests as an Eagle) ... had 4 catches apiece in games vs. KC, at GB, and vs. NYG ...

1997: Enjoyed his best season as an Eagle recording a career-high 3 TD receptions (at NYG, at Min., and vs. Cin.) and contributing 539 total yards ... officially started only 10 games (the Birds opened their other contests with a variety of formations) ... had an outstanding game vs. Wash. (10/5) - posted his longest run as an Eagle (29 yards), added four catches (3 for 1st downs), gained 81 yards overall, and was the lead blocker for Watters' 104 yards ... vs. Cin. (11/30) helped the Birds gain 196 yards on the ground and had 4 receptions, including a highlight-film TD catch when he grabbed the ball from behind DB Sam Shade's head ...

• TURNER'S TURF •

- His blocking prowess helped generate 4 straight 1,000-yd. rushing performances, including 3 by Ricky Watters from 1995-97 and one by Duce Staley in 1998.
- Has averaged over 41 receptions per year with the Eagles from 1996-98.
- In '94, his final season with New England, caught a personal-high 52 of QB Drew Bledsoe's aeriels, including a 14-yd. game-winning TD toss in OT vs. Minnesota.
- Ten of his 11 career TDs have come through the air from a total of seven different quarterbacks.
- Scored his first collegiate TD at Phila.'s Veterans Stadium as Alabama defeated Temple in 1988.

1996: Made a complete recovery from the knee injury that had shelved him for the final 14 games of '95 and became a vital cog in an Eagles' offense that ranked first in the NFC ... provided his trademark blocking and pass-catching ... in the process, helped Ricky Watters earn his second-straight 1,000-yd. rushing season and his second consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl ... carried the ball just 18 times but ranked 4th on the club in receptions with 43 (for 409 yds. and 1 TD) ... started 12 of 16 games (DNS at Wash. when Watters and Garner opened in a 2-RB set, and in games 10-12 when the Eagles opened with a 2-TE, one-RB set) ... hauled in a career-long 41-yd. pass vs. Dal. and a 23-yd. TD strike vs. Buffalo ...

1995: Had his first Eagles' campaign cut short by a season-ending knee injury in game 2 ... a free agent acquisition by the Birds in the spring, Turner was expected to team with RBs

Ricky Watters and Charlie Garner in the backfield ... was sidelined for the year, however, when he suffered a torn MCL and ACL in his right knee while on punt coverage at Arz. (9/10) ... subsequently had surgery performed by Dr. Art Bartolozzi on 9/11 ...

1994: In his final season with New England, started 9 games for the resurgent Patriots and caught a personal-high 52 of QB Drew Bledsoe's aeriels (471 yards, 2 TDs) ... in fact, Turner, TE Ben Coates (96), WR Michael Timpson (74), RB Leroy Thompson (65), and WR Vincent Brisby (58) enabled the Pats to become the first team in NFL history with 5 receivers all surpassing 50 receipts. in a single season ... on opening day at Mia., snared 7 passes and logged a 2-yd. TD run ... caught a 14-yd. game-winning TD toss from Bledsoe in OT vs. Min. as the Pats overcame a 20-3 half-time deficit ...

1993: Despite not moving into the starting lineup until game 6 vs. Hou., finished as the Pats' 2nd leading rusher with 231 yds. on 50 carries ... led all Patriot running backs and ranked 4th on the team with 39 catches (333 yds., 2TDs) ... had a personal-best 63 rushing yds. at Cle., including a 49-yd. jaunt that led to the winning TD ... registered a career-high 8 receipts. for 61 yds. in an OT win vs. Miami ...

1992: As a rookie, saw action primarily on special teams and led the team with 13 tackles on those units ... was 10-40 rushing and 7-52-1TD receiving in limited offensive duty ... made his first NFL start vs. SF in place of injured RBs John Stephens and Leonard Russell ... recorded his first career TD with a 19-yd. reception from Hugh Millen vs. Cleveland.

COLLEGE: Enjoyed an outstanding career as a pass-catching and blocking fullback at Alabama where he left as the school's 4th all-time leading receiver, first among running backs ... in fact, his 48 receptions as a sophomore was the fifth-highest single season total in Crimson Tide history and again, tops among RBs ... as a senior, went 73-432-3TDs rushing and 12-156 rec., while helping pave the way for backfield mate - and future Eagles' draft pick - Siran Stacy's 966 rushing yards ... as a junior in 1990, went 66-269 rushing and 26-240-1TD receiving ... scored his first collegiate TD at Philadelphia's Veterans Stadium as Alabama defeated Temple on 9/10/88.

PERSONAL: Kevin and his wife, Joyce, have one son, Nolan Reese (11/28/97), and reside in Cherry Hill, NJ ... born in Prattville, AL ... was an all-metro running back at Prattville HS where he served as team captain and earned player of the year honors as a senior after rushing for 1,077 yards on 165 carries ... also lettered in basketball and track ... majored in finance ... is an avid golfer.

TROY VINCENT

After having been a play-off participant in four of his first six NFL seasons (including his first campaign as an Eagle in 1996), Vincent is anxious for the Eagles to return to their winning ways ... "I'm gung-ho about another chance because last year was demoralizing," said the 7-year veteran after Andy Reid was named the Eagles' new head coach in January. "I think all of our careers kind of took a step back because we didn't win, we didn't have success. I'm ready to taste success so I can start feeling better about myself and about this team." ... since being the Dolphins' first round draft choice in 1992, Vincent has been one of the NFL's premier left cornerbacks ... in the spring of '96, Vincent inked an offer sheet with the Eagles that the salary cap strapped Dolphins could not match ... the signing proved to be a homecoming for Vincent who grew up in Trenton, NJ ... today, Vincent teams up with Bobby Taylor to give the Eagles one of most formidable cornerback tandems in the NFL ...

VINCENT AT A GLANCE ...

Position: Cornerback Height, Weight: 6-0, 194
Born: 6/8/70 in Trenton, NJ
College: Wisconsin
High School: Pennsbury, Fallsington, PA
NFL Experience: 8th (4th as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: TFA (Mia.) 1996
Originally joined NFL: D1A-92 by Miami (7th overall selection)

A Trenton, NJ, native, Vincent went on to be the Miami Dolphins' first round draft choice in 1992 (the 7th selection overall).

1998: Despite a slow start to the season due to a quad injury suffered in the preseason, Vincent went on to share the team lead in INTs (2) with Brian Dawkins and rank 2nd on the club in passes knocked down with 13 ... reagravated the quad injury in the season opener vs. Sea. and was sidelined for the next two contests, breaking a streak of 60 consecutive starts ... also missed game 10 at Wash. due to a concussion suffered a week earlier vs. Det., when he collided with SS Michael Zordich ... notched INTs vs. GB's Brett Favre and Arz.'s Jake Plummer ... also posted the first sack of his career (vs. Dal.'s Troy Aikman on Monday Night Football, 11/2) ...

• VINTAGE VINCENT •

- Shared the team lead in interceptions in 1998.
- In 1997, led the Eagles in passes knocked down and tied with FS Brian Dawkins for the club lead in interceptions.
- Entered the NFL record books on 11/3/96 when he took a lateral from LB James Willis (who had INT'd a Troy Aikman pass at Dal.) and raced the final 90 yards of a 104-yd. TD return.
- Scored another TD after taking a lateral from Dolphin teammate Gene Atkins (who had INT'd a Chiefs' pass) and covered the final 58 yards of a 76-yd. TD return in 1994.
- When he left the Dolphins to join the Eagles in 1996, it was a homecoming of sorts for Vincent who was born and raised in Trenton, NJ.
- An avid motorcycle rider since his teenage years, he owns "Team 23" - an NHRA Pro Stock Motorcycle Racing team.
- Each Thanksgiving, he and his wife distribute 600 supermarket gift certificates to needy families in Trenton.

1997: Entered the season paired with RCB Bobby Taylor to give the Eagles one of the top cornerback tandems in the league ... but when Taylor's season ended with a knee injury in game 6, Vincent stepped up his play, matching up well against the opponents' top receiver week after week ... started all 16 games at LCB and finished the season leading the Eagles in passes knocked down (23) and tied with FS Brian Dawkins for the club lead in INTs (3 -- at Min., vs. Pit. and at Wash.) ... starred in the Birds' 13-12 win over Dallas (10/26), limiting WR Michael Irvin to just three receptions, all in the 1st half ... in the first Dal. game (9/15), broke up consecutive deep passes to Anthony Miller before being sidelined by a strained left shoulder with :08 remaining in the 2nd qtr. ... shared the punt return chores with Freddie Solomon for games (5-6) ...

1996: A highly sought after free agent "transition" player, Vincent officially became an Eagle on 3/3/96 and, along with RCB Bobby Taylor, provided the Birds with one of the NFL's top cornerback duos ... started all 16 games at the LCB spot ... after missing the first two preseason games with a strained groin, returned to the lineup in a season-opening win at Wash. ... but it was in the final seconds of a 31-21, game 9 win at Dal. that Vincent etched his name into the NFL record books. With Dallas trailing by 3 and facing a 3rd-n-goal situation at the Eagles' 3, MLB James Willis INT'd a Troy Aikman pass 4 yds. deep in the end zone and ret'd it 14 yds. Willis then lateralled the ball to Vincent who raced the final 90 yds. for a game-clinching score. As such, the combined efforts of Vincent and Willis resulted in the longest INT return for a TD in NFL history (topping the 103-yd. effort by San Diego's Vencie Glenn vs. Den. on 11/29/87) ... other big plays by Vincent included INTs off Atl.'s Jeff George (9/22), Wash.'s Gus Frerotte (11/17), and the Giants' Dave Brown (12/1) ... helped seal a win vs. Car. when he forced two fumbles deep in Eagles' territory - one by QB Kerry Collins at the Eagles' 4 and one by Anthony Johnson that set up a Birds FG ...

1995: In his fourth and final season with Miami, Vincent started 16 games and the AFC Wild Card Game at Buf. and continued to establish himself as one of the finest young cornerbacks in the NFL ... tied for third in the AFC with five INTs ... had three INTs off Jets' QBs as he pilfered a Bubby Brister pass at NYJ (10/22) and had two thefts off Boomer Esiason on 9/3, including one that he returned 69 yds. for a TD ... also registered INTs vs. KC's Steve Bono and Buf.'s Jim Kelly ...

1994: Rebounded from a 1993 knee injury to play in 13 games, including 12 starts at LCB ... finished with 62 tackles and team-high totals of 5 INTs and 20 KDs ... those 5 thefts tied him for sixth in the AFC and 10th in the NFL ... was the Dolphin winner of the 1994 Ed Block Courage Award, an honor given annually to one player on each NFL team for his courage, strength, and leadership ... in season opener vs. NE, registered an INT off Drew Bledsoe but was inactive for games 2-4 because of a sore knee ... returned to his starting role in week 6 at Buf. ... posted 2nd INT of season off Bledsoe vs. NE ... Vincent's 4th qtr. interception at NYJ set up a Dolphin TD in a come-from-behind win over the Jets ... registered an INT and his first career TD vs. the Chiefs. His score came following an interception by teammate Gene Atkins, who returned the ball 18 yards before laterally to Vincent, who then raced the final 58 yards. ... started both of Mia.'s postseason contests ...

1993: Despite having his season cut short when he suffered a knee injury in game 13, Vincent finished the year with 68 tackles, 2 INTs, a fumble recovery, and 11 passes defended en route to being voted by the South Florida media as the Dolphins' outstanding defensive back ... his interceptions came in the season opener at Ind. (off Jack Trudeau) and in game 4 vs. Wash. ... in fact, the INT vs. Wash.'s Rich Gannon ended the Redskins' final drive and preserved a 17-10 victory ... however, Vincent tore ligaments and cartilage in his right knee on a reverse of a punt return vs. Pit. and underwent reconstructive surgery on 12/23 ...

1992: After Miami made him the 7th overall pick in the '92 draft, Vincent went on to start the final 14 regular season games and both playoff contests at LCB ... finished his rookie campaign with 77 tackles, 2 INTs, and a team-high 13 knockdowns ... for his efforts, Vincent earned NFL all-rookie honors from Football News, Pro Football Weekly, and College and Pro Football Newsweekly ... opened the season on inactive list (hamstring) ... posted a career-high 10 tackles at Buf., before registering his first career INT off of Jeff George at Ind. ... also recorded a theft off Cody Carlson vs. Hou. ... truly made his mark in the postseason as he garnered AFC defensive player of the week honors following a 5-tackle, 2-INT performance vs. SD ... both of his INTs in that game (off Stan Humphries) led to TDs in the Dolphins' 31-0 win over the Chargers ... became the first rookie in Dolphin history to intercept a pass in a playoff game.

COLLEGE: A four-year letterman and three-year starter at Wisconsin, Vincent was one of the most honored defensive backs as a senior, when he garnered first team All-America honors from College and Pro Football Newsweekly, The Football News and The Sporting News, while also earning co-defensive player-of-the-year accolades from the Big Ten ... was also a finalist for the Jim Thorpe Award, given to the nation's top defensive back ... a dangerous return man for the Badgers as well, he averaged 11.4 yards and scored 3 TDs on punt returns and had a 22.0-yard kickoff return average during his collegiate career.

PERSONAL: Troy and his wife, Tommi, reside in Fort Lauderdale, FL, during the offseason ... was born and raised in Trenton, NJ, but graduated from Pennsbury HS in the Fallsington Twp. area of suburban Philadelphia. In the process, he moved in with the family of his best friend, James Bodley - years later, Bodley's parents, Linda and Jim, would become Vincent's agents ... earned letters in football, basketball, and track ... an avid motorcycle rider since his teenage years, Vincent owns an NHRA Pro Stock Motorcycle Racing team - Team 23 - that is sponsored by Herman and Sons Natural Style Beef Jerky, Players Corp., Bell Additives, and Health Corp.; his rider is Antron Brown ... Vincent's hobbies also include fishing as well as being an avid follower of boxing and track ... placed 3rd in the 1993 NFL's Fastest Man Competition ... is very active in the community and has done extensive work with Eagles Youth Partnership, the American Cancer Society, the Leukemia Foundation, Boys and Girls Club of Trenton, Trenton P.A.L., Trenton's "Single Parents Program," Women in Distress and the Make-A-Wish Foundation ... in '99, joined Paul Miles, a former player at Nebraska, to organize the "Miles to Go Foundation," which benefits children with cancer ... each year, Troy and his wife distribute 600 supermarket gift certificates to needy families in Trenton so that they might enjoy Thanksgiving ... said Vincent, "I'm very fortunate. My family will not go hungry. I wanted to do something for those who are not as fortunate as we are. I did these kinds of things all the time when I was in Miami but now that I'm home, it means even more to me." ... always one to remember his roots, he started the Troy Vincent Scholarship Fund in 1992 and

COREY WALKER

Signed with the Eagles as an undrafted rookie free agent in 1997 after raising scouts' eyebrows at the East-West Shrine Game where he was that game's leading rusher ... after missing his entire rookie season due to a knee injury, Walker returned in '98 to become a valuable special teams performer and reserve running back for the Eagles ...

1997: A rookie free agent, Walker scored a TD during a preseason scrimmage vs. Balt. but suffered a knee injury that kept him from seeing action in any preseason games ... on 8/19 was placed on the Injured Reserve list, where he spent the remainder of the season ...

1998: After an impressive preseason in which he led the Birds with a 5.6-yds-per-carry average, Walker earned a roster spot as a reserve running back/special teamer ... went on to finish 5th on club with 12 special teams stops and averaged 18.8 yds. on 8 kick returns ... with #2 RB Charlie Garner sidelined (ribs), Walker spelled Duce Staley late in the season and went 3-40 rushing at Dal., including a 20-yd. scamper ... had a 33-yd. reception from Koy Detmer in game 5 at Den., but suffered a hand injury in that contest that caused him to be deactivated for the next two games.

COLLEGE: Finished his Arkansas State career ranked fifth in school history in rushing (2,340), fourth in receptions (90-730), and second in kickoff return yards (1,175) ... scored 28 TDs in just 33 games and was the first non-kicker to lead the Indians in scoring in consecutive seasons ... topped the 100-yard rushing plateau 10 times ... as a senior vs. Louisiana Tech, gained 100+ yards in rushing, receiving, and kickoff returns (a feat never before accomplished in NCAA Division I).

CHANGING OF THE GUARD

The Eagles have started three different quarterbacks during each of the last two seasons. In fact they have started 10 different signal callers in the 1990's (a span of 144 regular season games)

The following is a list of the team's starting QBs in the '90's (listed in order of starts):

1. Randall Cunningham.....54
2. Rodney Peete24
3. Ty Detmer18
4. Bobby Hoying13
5. Jim McMahon12
6. Bobby Brister10
7. Koy Detmer5
8. Ken O'Brien.....4
- 9t. Jeff Kemp2
- 9t. Brad Goebel2

► Denotes starting quarterback

By making his first NFL start at Green Bay on Nov. 29, 1998, Koy Detmer became the 10th quarterback to start a game for the Eagles in the 1990's.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 1998
SEATTLE 38, PHILADELPHIA 0
VETERANS STADIUM • 66,418

The visiting Seattle Seahawks logged their first shutout in 12 years, handing Philadelphia a 38-0 defeat at Veterans Stadium. For the Eagles, it was the club's worst opening day loss since 1933 when they fell to the Giants, 56-0, in the franchise's first game ever. Seattle's offense, which amassed 406 total yards, was led by WR Joey Galloway (6-142-2TDs) and 41-year old QB Warren Moon (21-13-204-0-3TDs). The Seahawks also got a jolt from rookie RB Ahman Green (6-100-1TD). Conversely, Philadelphia's offense struggled for most of the day. Although RB Duce Staley and FB Kevin Turner led an Eagles' ground game that averaged 5.1 yards/carry en route to a 162-yard effort, the club's passing game never took wing, netting just 12 yards. Philadelphia QB Bobby Hoyer was sacked nine times and finished the day just 23-9-60-1-0TDs. Turnovers also played a significant role in the outcome of the game - while Seattle committed no turnovers, Philadelphia gave the ball away three times, twice with costly results ... On the Eagles' second possession of the game, a Hoyer pass to Irving Fryar was off the mark and intercepted by CB Shawn Springs who returned the ball, untouched, 42 yards for a TD and a 7-0 lead. On Philadelphia's ensuing offensive series, DE Michael Sinclair's sack of Hoyer resulted in a fumble that DT Sam Adams recovered at the PE 25. From there, Moon needed only one play to lead a TD strike to Galloway. That score gave Seattle a 14-0 lead they would take into the locker room at halftime ... The Eagles, who opened the game without cornerback Bobby Taylor (fractured shoulder blade), lost their other top notch corner, Troy Vincent, to a quad injury in the 2nd quarter. With Vincent out, and with three first-year CBs seeing action for the Eagles (Al Harris and rookies Allen Rossum and Clarence Love), Moon went right to work on Seattle's first possession of the 3rd quarter. First the Seattle QB set up an 11-yd. TD strike to RB Mack Strong with a 34-yd. pass to Galloway. He then capped the visitors' next series with a 35-yd. scoring pass to Galloway for a 28-0 lead. After the Seahawks added a field goal late in the 3rd quarter, they closed out the scoring early in the final stanza when Green's 64-yd. scamper set up his own 6-yd. TD jaunt.

NOTES: Philadelphia opened the game with five starters out of the lineup due to injuries - C Steve Everitt (foot), TE Jason Dunn (knee), RB Charlie Garner (ankle), DE Mike Mamula (IR/knee), RCB Bobby Taylor (shoulder) ... Seattle was without injured all-pro DT Cortez Kennedy ... Seahawks LB Darrin Smith, who left the Eagles in the spring of '98 to join Seattle as a free agent, led his club with 12 tackles (including 2 sacks) and a fumble recovery.

ATLANTA 17, PHILADELPHIA 12

GEORGIA DOME • 46,456

Philadelphia took to the road for the first time in 1998 but fell to the Atlanta Falcons, 17-12, at the Georgia Dome. The Eagles actually controlled the game for the first 30 minutes and took a 9-0 lead into the locker room at half-time. Indeed, the lead could have, and probably should have been greater – a fact that would come back to haunt the visitors, who surrendered 14 third quarter points and then fell short in their last-minute bid for a comeback win ... After taking the opening kickoff, the Eagles quickly grabbed a 6-0 lead when RB Duce Staley capped a 79-yd., 13-play drive with a 1-yd. TD run. (Philadelphia's PAT try, however, was blocked by DT Travis Hall). The Birds' offense, which had struggled to move the ball through the air a week earlier vs. Seattle, generated six passing 1st downs on the opening drive vs. Atlanta ... In the 2nd qtr., a screen pass to Duce Staley and a 9-yd. completion to Freddie Solomon gave the Eagles a 1st-n-goal at the Falcons' 1 with less than a minute to go before intermission. From there, Staley's TD plunge was negated by an illegal motion penalty. Then, after another infraction moved the Eagles back to the 11, Philadelphia had to settle for a Chris Boniol FG and a 9-0 lead ... The 2nd half opened with Boniol's kickoff sailing out of bounds and the Falcons taking over at their own 40. Shortly thereafter, Atlanta QB Chris Chandler got his club on the board with a scoring strike to TE Brian Kozlowski. One series later, Philadelphia seemingly halted the Falcons on a 3rd-n-19 play. However, a very questionable roughing the passer call against safety Matt Stevens (the second such penalty against the Eagles after they halted Atlanta on a 3rd-n-long play) gave Atlanta a first down in Philadelphia territory. The Falcons subsequently got a TD run from RB Jamal Anderson that put the hosts on top 14-9. But Philadelphia responded quickly as a bomb from Bobby Hoyer to WR Jeff Graham (and a facemasking call on the tackler) helped set up a FG that cut Atlanta's lead to 14-12 ... The Falcons came right back, however, as kickoff returner Tim Dwight gave his club field position at their own 39. From there, Atlanta used two passes to WR Tony Martin and five runs by Jamal Anderson to set up another Morten Andersen FG. That kick put Atlanta up 17-12 with 7:31 left to play and, although Philadelphia would get the ball back twice more, the Eagles could not get beyond midfield.

NOTES: The TD run by Staley in the 1st quarter was the first of his career and the first score of '98 for the Eagles, who were shut out the previous week by Seattle ... After surrendering 9 sacks to the Seahawks in game 1, Hoyer was dumped just twice at Atlanta ... The Eagles again played without a number of key starters as C Steve Everitt (foot), TE Jason Dunn (knee), and RCB Bobby Taylor (shoulder) were idle for the second consecutive week, LCB Troy Vincent (thigh) sat out the contest as well ... When the Falcons' took the lead with their second TD of the 3rd qtr., FS Brian Dawkins was temporarily sidelined by a wrist injury; that meant that Philadelphia was without three of its four starters in the secondary (Taylor, Vincent, and Dawkins).

SUN DEVIL STADIUM • 36,717

In a game televised nationally by ESPN, the host Arizona Cardinals and visiting Philadelphia Eagles battled the 100 degree heat – and each other – to a 0-0 standoff entering the final quarter. As such, it marked the first time that two NFL teams went scoreless through three full quarters of play since the New York Giants' and Buffalo Bills' replacement teams clashed during the 1987 NFL players strike. And despite the fact that the Eagles broke the scoring drought first with a field goal by Chris Boniol early in the final stanza, the Cards responded by registering 17 unanswered points en route to a 17-3 victory After Arizona responded to the Eagles' FG with one of their own, a 47-ydr. by Joe Nedney that tied the game at 3-3, the Cardinals' defense turned up the heat on the already steamy night, sending LB Ronald McKinnon on a blitz. McKinnon subsequently stripped the football from QB Rodney Peete, who had come on in relief when starter Bobby Hoyer was injured in the 3rd qtr. DE Simeon Rice scooped up the loose ball and returned it to the PE 18. Moments later, QB Jake Plummer drilled a 7-ydr. scoring strike to TE Johnny McWilliams for a 10-3 Arizona lead with 7:19 to play. Then, when the Eagles' offense could move no further than the Cards' 40 on their ensuing series, Arizona took over on their own 14 following a punt. The Cards then proceeded to put the game out of reach by marching 86 yards in nine plays. RB Adrian Murrell, who had set up the Cards' FG with a 28-yd. scamper, capped this decisive drive with a 25-yd. TD run. The TD run enabled Murrell to finish with a game-high 145 yards on 22 carries, including a 12-101 effort in the 4th qtr. alone The Eagles, due in large part to the fine play of their defense, had enjoyed good field position in the first half. Of Philadelphia's first seven possessions, all began beyond their own 30. But while four of those drives reached Cardinals' territory (including one that ended with a failed 4th-n-1 run by Duce Staley at the AC27), the Eagles had no points to show for their efforts shortly after intermission, Hoyer moved the Eagles deep into Cards' territory before he himself lost a fumble when upended by McKinnon following an 11-ydr. scramble to the AC8. In all, it marked the fifth time Philadelphia passed midfield only to come away with no points. In addition, Hoyer suffered a strained lower back on the play and was subsequently replaced by Peete on the Birds' next offensive series. With Peete at the helm, Philadelphia mounted an 18-play drive that was capped by a 29-ydr. Chris Boniol field goal. The Eagles' lead would ultimately prove to be a short-lived one, however, as the Cardinals subsequently reeled off 17-straight points.

VETERANS STADIUM • 66,675

For the second week in a row, Philadelphia saw an early fourth-quarter lead vanish after surrendering 17 points. The result was a 24-21 defeat at the hands of the visiting Kansas City Chiefs, who made their first-ever trip to Philadelphia. A week earlier in Arizona, the Eagles led 3-0 before falling 17-3. This time the Birds had built a 14-7 edge over KC before suddenly finding themselves down 24-14. Although the Eagles fought back, using the third touchdown of the day by RB Duce Staley to pull within three points with 1:01 to play, Philadelphia's subsequent onside kick attempt failed ... Perhaps the key point in the game came in the final minute of the 3rd qtr. when, facing a 4th-and-inches situation at the KC46, Staley was halted on a run off right tackle. The visitors capitalized, cutting the Eagles' lead to 14-10 with a 21-yd. FG by Pete Stoyanovich. It was KC's next possession, however, that proved to be the back-breaker. On that series, Rich Gannon lofted a 57-yd. bomb to WR Joe Horn. That strike set up the 2nd of Donnell Bennett's 3 TD runs on the afternoon and provided the Chiefs with their first lead of the day, 17-14. Kansas City then added another Bennett TD run after former Eagle CB Mark McMillian intercepted a pass by Rodney Peete in Philadelphia territory The Chiefs had begun the game by taking the opening kickoff and marching deep into Eagles' territory, only to miss a 40-yd. FG. The Birds responded quickly. With Peete at QB in place of the injured Bobby Hoyer (back), Philadelphia marched 70 yds to a TD and a 7-0 1st qtr. lead. Staley's 5-yd. TD run up the middle capped the drive. Kansas City, in turn, responded with a TD of their own on their ensuing possession. Using a 33-yd. pass interference penalty on CB Troy Vincent to move deep into Eagles territory, the Chiefs tied the score with a 1-yd. TD plunge by Bennett. The score would remain knotted at 7-7 into the 3rd qtr. until Staley's 3-yd. TD scamper put Philadelphia back on top and set the stage for the dramatic final stanza.

NOTES: With 5 receptions, WR Irving Fryar moved past Charlie Joiner and into eighth place on the NFL's all-time reception list with 751 ... Philadelphia's 21 points were the most scored by the Eagles in '98 ... Both clubs opened with backup QBs at the helm - Gannon replaced Elvis Grbac (shoulder) for KC, while Peete got the call in place of Hoyer, who had suffered a strained lower back at Arz. ... C Steve Everitt made his first start of '98. Everitt had suffered a fractured foot while jogging before the start of training camp. Vincent, who had missed the last two games with a bruised thigh, also returned to the lineup ... The 3-TD effort by Staley was the first by an Eagle since WR Irving Fryar scored three times at Jacksonville (10/12/97) ... A key matchup in the game saw LT Tra Thomas, the Eagles' rookie first round pick, square off against Chiefs' sack artist Derrick Thomas, who opened the season with six sacks vs. the Raiders. Derrick was kept at bay, however, as Tra held the all-pro without a tackle or sack.

With former Eagle Bubby Brister at quarterback in place of John Elway (strained back), Denver scored on its first four possessions en route to a 28-0 first quarter lead at Denver. The loss was the fifth of the season for the Eagles in as many outings. In all, it marked the eighth straight defeat for Philadelphia dating back to the 1997 campaign ... In the opening stanza, the Broncos registered 242 yards of total offense and 13 first downs compared to just 16 and 1, respectively, by the Eagles ... Denver took the opening kickoff and quickly marched 87 yds. to a TD for a 7-0 lead. On the Broncos' first play from scrimmage, Brister fired a short pass that WR Ed McCaffrey turned into a 48-yd. gain. That play set up Terrell Davis' 20-yd. scoring run. Then, when the Eagles were forced to punt after just three plays on their first possession, Denver jumped on top 14-0 after Davis' 23-yd. run set up a short scoring strike from Brister to WR Rod Smith ... After again forcing the Birds' offense to go 3 plays-and-out on their next series, Davis' 57-yd. run around left end paved the way for Brister's 9-yd TD pass to TE Shannon Sharpe that put the Broncos up 21-0 with 4:13 left to play in the first stanza. Things then continued to snowball in the wrong direction for Philadelphia when Allen Rossom lost a fumble on the Birds' ensuing kickoff return. Denver subsequently took over at the PE23 and quickly marched to their fourth TD, a 1-yd. Davis plunge up the middle, for a 28-0 lead with 1:11 left to play in the first stanza ... William Thomas halted Denver's 6th drive with the Eagles' first pass theft of the year. Although the Eagles were unable to score on their subsequent possession, they managed to pin the Broncos deep in their own end of the field and Thomas made another key play, blocking a punt by Tom Rouen. The ball rolled through the end zone and resulted in a safety that made the score Denver 28, Philadelphia 2. When the Eagles got the ball back following a punt/kick-off, a pass by Hoyer went off the hands of FB Kevin Turner and was intercepted by Darrius Johnson, who returned the ball to the PE 12. Two plays later, Brister fired his third TD pass of the day, a 12-ydr. to McCaffrey to up the Broncos' lead to 35-2 ... The 156 rushing yards by Davis before intermission was his most-ever in a half ... On their second possession after intermission, Brister fired his fourth TD pass of the game, a 31-ydr. to Rod Smith. That play extended Denver's lead to 41-2 (Broncos' punter Tom Rouen, on in relief of injured kicker Jason Elam, missed the subsequent extra point try). Philadelphia countered with two 3-yd. TD runs by Charlie Garner in the final quarter. Garner's first score capped a 73-yd. drive; his second came after LB Mike Caldwell intercepted a pass by Broncos' backup QB Brian Griese deep in Denver territory.

VETERANS STADIUM • 66,183

In a battle between NFC foes sporting identical 0-5 records, the Eagles defeated the visiting Washington Redskins, 17-12. The win, the first for the Eagles after eight straight losses, marked Philadelphia's first victory since they defeated Cincinnati on 11/30/97 Although the Birds' offense was held to under 200 total yards (198), Philadelphia got just enough from QB Rodney Peete who ran for one touchdown and a throw for another. At the same time, the Eagles' defense registered 6 sacks and three takeaways, both season-highs. The first of those takeaways by the Philadelphia defense came on Washington's second possession. Eagles' DE Al Wallace sacked QB Trent Green, causing a fumble that Brandon Whiting returned 24 yards to the WR21. That play set up the Birds' first score as Peete who, after dropping back to pass, saw an opening and ran, untouched, 19 yards for a TD and a 7-0 lead. Washington responded quickly by marching from their own 27 to the Eagles' 5. Facing a 3rd-n-1 situation from there, RB Terry Allen surged to the one-foot line, only to be stripped of the ball by LB William Thomas. While the Redskins argued that Allen's progress had been stopped, the officials disagreed. When FS Brian Dawkins subsequently recovered the ball in the end zone, Philadelphia had turned back the visitors. After the Skins' Cary Blanchard missed a 47-yd FG try early in the second qtr., they got on the board midway through that same stanza following an interception off Peete by Leomont Evans in Eagles' territory. Evans' INT set up a 46-yd FG by Blanchard. Philadelphia quickly countered that score as Chris Boniol made good on a 44-yd. FG attempt that put the Eagles on top, 10-3, at the half Late in the 3rd qtr., after Gus Frerotte had replaced Trent Green at QB for Washington, the Redskins narrowed their deficit to four with a 34-yd. FG by Blanchard. Philadelphia answered quickly, however, mounting a 15-play, 75-yd. drive to what would prove to be the game-winning TD. On that particular drive, the Eagles converted five 3rd down plays, including two 3rd-n-16 situations on which Peete drilled 19-yd. strikes to Irving Fryar and Russell Copeland, respectively. Philadelphia capped the drive with a perfect play-action pass as Peete lofted a 3-yd. TD aerial to wide open TE Kaseem Sinceno Washington later narrowed the gap to 17-12 on Brian Mitchell's 1-yd. TD run with 3:46 remaining to play. But, after forcing the Eagles to punt on their ensuing series, the Redskins were halted on downs at their own 43. A sack by DE Hugh Douglas on the first play of that series, coupled with good coverage by the secondary, helped the Eagles shut the door on the Skins.

SAN DIEGO 13, PHILADELPHIA 10
QUALCOMM STADIUM • 56,967

Four costly turnovers, including three inside San Diego territory, and 10 penalties hurt the Eagles as they fell to 1-6 on the 1998 season with a 13-10 loss at the hands of the Chargers. The loss marred a great performance by the Eagles' defense who allowed only 168 yards of total offense to the Chargers, including 28 net yards passing. Leading the way for the Birds on defense was DE Hugh Douglas, who sacked rookie QB Ryan Leaf 4.5 times to set a career high and tie a team record first set by DE Clyde Simmons at Dallas in 1991 ... The Chargers opened the scoring on the game's first series as they drove 64 yds. before K John Carney booted a 23-yd. FG. After going 3-and-out in each of their first two offensive series and missing a 42-yd. FG on their third, the Eagles embarked on a 18-play, 62-yard drive that culminated in a 35-yard FG by Chris Boniol to tie the score at 3-3 in the 2nd qtr. The Eagles appeared to be in good scoring position later in that quarter after Allen Rossum returned a punt to the SD29. But, as Rossum was making his way toward the end zone, P Darren Bennett stripped the ball loose from him and the Chargers recovered ... San Diego took the lead in the third quarter as RB Natrone Means, who finished with 112 yards on 21 carries, rumbled 14 yards on a draw play for a touchdown. The Eagles bounced right back on their next possession as they drove down to the SD4 before Peete was blitzed by LB Junior Seau and forced into throwing an INT to former Eagle Charles Dimry in the end zone. Seau notched 10 tackles in the game and played a large part in stymying the Birds' rushing attack (24 carries for 51 yards) ... The Birds, however, got the ball back early in the 4th stanza and tied the game as Charlie Garner raced 12 yards for a score. Looking to take the lead, Philadelphia retained possession later in the qtr., but a Peete pass was deflected at the line of scrimmage, INTD by Charger DT Norman Hand and returned to the PE18. Four plays later, Carney gave San Diego the winning points with a 26-yd. FG. The Eagles had one last chance to win or tie the game as Peete connected with Irving Fryar for 18 yds. and Duce Staley for completions of 16 and 20 yards to get inside Chargers' territory. But Russell Copeland fumbled after a making a reception from Peete at the Chargers' 31-yd. line. Seau recovered the loose ball and San Diego took over and promptly ran out the clock.

NOTES: Bill Musgrave, the Eagles' offensive quality control coach, called the offensive plays for the first time in 1998, a role he would keep for the rest of the season ... FS Brian Dawkins and LDE Greg Jefferson were both deactivated due to ankle sprains ... LB Jeremiah Trotter, a third round pick of the Eagles in 1998, saw his first action of the season, playing on special teams ... The Eagles were 9-17 (52.9%) on third down conversions, including four first downs after facing 3rd-and-14 or longer ... Boniol's 35-yd. FG in the 2nd qtr. was his 64th in a row from 35 yds. and under ... Douglas' 4.5 sacks, which accounted for a combined loss of 43.5 yards, were the most by an NFC player since Atl.'s Chuck Smith notched 5 sacks at New Orleans on Oct. 12, 1997.

VETERANS STADIUM • 67,002

Before a national television audience and a sold out Veterans Stadium, the visiting Dallas Cowboys handed the Eagles a 34-0 shutout. The loss dropped the Birds' record to 1-7 at the season's half way point while the Cowboys stayed atop the NFC East after raising their record to 5-3 The Cowboys' core of all-pros contributed heavily to Dallas' victory. CB/PR Deion Sanders returned a punt 69 yards for a TD and also intercepted a pass. QB Troy Aikman, who returned to action after missing five games with a broken collarbone, fired two scoring passes, including one to WR Michael Irvin. RB Emmitt Smith also rushed for 101 yards and 1 TD After opening the scoring with a 33-yd. FG by Richie Cunningham on their first drive, the Cowboys increased their lead to 10-0 with a 10-yd. TD pass from Aikman to Irvin. A fumble by Eagles RB Charlie Garner at the Birds' 11 set up that score. Then, late in the 2nd qtr, Sanders fielded a Tom Hutton punt and raced 69 yds to the end zone for a TD that put Dallas on top, 17-10, at intermission Although the Eagles actually out-gained Dallas in the first half (117 total yds. to 91), the Birds' offense sputtered for most of the evening. Philadelphia was forced to insert #2 QB Bobby Hoyer early on after starter Rodney Peete suffered a lacerated index finger on his throwing hand during the Birds' first offensive series. But while the Cowboys' Aikman was 26-14-171-0-2TDs passing, Hoyer could muster only a 39-13-124 effort with no TD passes and 2 interceptions. Altogether, the Birds would commit three turnovers while the Cowboys committed none. In fact, the Eagles' deepest penetration into Dallas territory ended with safety Darren Woodson intercepting a Hoyer pass at the Cowboys' 10-yd. line In the 2nd half, Dallas scored on its first three possessions. Dallas went on top 27-0 when Aikman's 44-yd. bomb to Billy Davis set up a 9-yd. TD strike to TE David LaFleur. The Cowboys then added another Cunningham FG late in the 3rd qtr. and got a 15-yd. TD run from Smith early in the final stanza to round out the scoring.

PHILADELPHIA 10, DETROIT 9

VETERANS STADIUM • 66,785

Thanks to a ground game led by RBs Charlie Garner and Duce Staley, Philadelphia got its second win of the season, a 10-9 decision over the visiting Lions. Garner provided a career-high 129 rushing yards and set up his 3-yd. TD run with a 40-yd. scamper. Staley contributed 89 rushing yards and 7 receptions. Altogether, the Eagles duo outperformed Detroit all-pro Barry Sanders, who rushed for a game-high 140 yards but was kept out of the end zone. In the end, however, the game was not decided until a 58-yd. FG try by Lions' kicker Jason Hanson fell short with 25 seconds left to play. Detroit began its final drive at its own 21, trailing by one point with 3:23 left to play. The Lions moved to the Birds' 34 but committed four penalties on the drive, none more costly, however, than the false start called against Tony Ramirez. That penalty set up a 3rd-n-7 situation for the Lions from the PE39. When an incomplete pass from Charlie Batch to Herman Moore followed, Lions' head coach Bobby Ross was left with a key decision - try for the first down on 4th-n-7 or attempt a 58-yd. FG. Ross opted for the latter alternative and sent in Hansen, who already had boomed FGs of 41, 48, and 35 yards in convincing fashion Philadelphia had opened the scoring, taking a 7-0 lead early in the 2nd qtr. on Garner's 3-yd. TD run. Detroit, however, came right back as Terry Fair returned the ensuing kickoff 61 yds. to the Eagles' 28. But the Lions were forced to settle for a FG and the Eagles would hold a 7-3 lead at halftime Shortly after intermission, Hanson's 48-yd. FG cut the Eagles' lead to 7-6. Detroit then closed the 3rd qtr. with a 44-yd. scamper by Sanders. That play set up a 35-yd. boot by Hanson that gave the Lions their first lead of the day, 9-7, with 14:21 left to play. Philadelphia wasted little time, however, quickly recapturing the lead on their ensuing possession. In fact, the Eagles used the pass receiving and running of Staley to set up a 39-yd. FG by Chris Boniol. That boot, which came just over four minutes into the final stanza, would prove to be the game-winner.

NOTES: Eagles' DE Hugh Douglas notched 2.5 sacks to raise his season total to a career-best 11 Garner's 129 rushing yards gave him the fifth 100-yd. game of his career The combined 33-218 rushing performance by Garner and Staley came against a Lions' defense that had entered the game ranked sixth in the NFC against the run. In all, the Birds' rushing output was the club's best since amassing 272 yds. vs. Wash. on 10/8/95 Philadelphia WR Irving Fryar caught 2 passes and, in so doing, moved ahead of James Lofton and into 7th place on the NFL's all-time reception list With his 140 rushing yards, Detroit's Sanders became the only NFL runner to gain 1,000 yards in 10 straight seasons Eagles' backup QB Koy Detmer took two snaps (both handoffs to Staley) late in the 2nd qtr. when Hoyer was briefly shaken up.

JACK KENT COOKE STADIUM • 67,704

The Redskins got three interceptions from their defense and three short TD runs from rookie RB Skip Hicks en route to a 28-3 victory over the visiting Eagles. With that, Philadelphia and Washington left Jack Kent Cooke Stadium with identical 2-8 records and a split of their season series Washington got on the board first, taking a 7-0 lead on a 1-yd. TD plunge by RB Skip Hicks with 1:53 left to play in the 1st quarter. The Redskins' TD was set up just three plays earlier when Washington DE Kelvin Kinney tipped a screen pass by Bobby Hoyer into the air. DT Dan Wilkinson came up with the interception and returned it to the Birds' 10-yard line. Midway through the 2nd stanza, Philadelphia garnered a similar scoring opportunity when DE Al Wallace sacked the Redskins' Trent Green and caused a fumble that Hollis Thomas recovered at the Washington 9. Although the Eagles were unable to punch it into the end zone, Chris Boniol's FG narrowed the Skins' lead to 7-3. Shortly before halftime, however, Washington's defense stopped the Eagles for the second time on a short-yardage, 4th down play inside Redskins' territory - this time halting a quarterback sweep by Hoyer at the WR34. Thus energized, the Skins' offense quickly converted the 4th down stop into points as Green marched his club 66 yards to a TD in 6 plays. Runs of 13 and 16 yards by Brian Mitchell, along with a 21-yd. pass interference penalty on CB Bobby Taylor, set up Hicks' second 1-yd TD plunge. With that, the hosts held a 14-3 advantage heading into the locker room In the 3rd qtr., Green drilled a strike to wide open WR Albert Connell who finished off a 56-yd. TD play that put the Skins on top 21-3. Then, with just over 10 minutes left to play in the game and the Eagles backed up against the goal line, a Hoyer pass to WR Russell Copeland bounced off the receiver's hands and into the arms of CB Kris Dishman. The Redskins' defender brought the ball back to the Birds' 1 and, two plays later, Hicks got his 3rd rushing TD of the day, a tally that would make the final score 28-3.

NOTES: Both clubs were stopped on 4th down inside the opponent's territory on their first offensive series. In all, Washington's defense would halt the Eagles three times on 4th down plays inside Redskins' territory ... The sack/forced fumble by Wallace that set up the Birds' first score was a bit of déjà vu. In the October meeting between these two clubs, Wallace also set up the Birds' first score with a sack/forced fumble vs. Green ... For the Eagles, Al Harris started at LCB in place of Troy Vincent, who was inactive due to a concussion suffered the previous week vs. Detroit ... Washington was without a number of offensive starters, including RB Terry Allen.

GIANTS STADIUM • 65,763

With a 2-8 record and an offense ranked 30th in the league in scoring and total yards, the Eagles ventured north to the Meadowlands for their first meeting of the year against the defending NFC East champion New York Giants. For their part, the New Yorkers also entered the game with a struggling offense that ranked only 29th in the NFL. But when the contest was over, the Eagles headed back down I-95 on the wrong end of a 20-0 decision. And while the Giants had notched their first shutout since 1990, it marked the third time in 1998 alone that the Eagles had been held scoreless ... New York got on the board first, taking a 3-0 lead 10 minutes into the contest with a 40-yd. FG by Brad Daluiso. Philadelphia, however, responded with a respectable drive of its own but came away empty when Chris Boniol's 44-yd. FG try was off the mark. New York then had a chance to add to its lead just before intermission when Kent Graham's 59-yd. bomb to rookie WR Joe Jurevicius moved the Giants to Philadelphia's 20-yd. line. Eagles free safety Brian Dawkins ended the Giants' threat, however, intercepting a Graham pass that had been tipped by CB Bobby Taylor. As a result, New York headed into the locker room at halftime clinging to its 3-0 lead Midway through the third stanza, New York fielded an Eagles punt and, following an unnecessary roughness penalty on Philadelphia LB Mike Caldwell, took over on the Birds' 49-yd. line. Five plays later, Graham turned a key 3rd-n-13 situation into a first down with a 14-yd. strike to WR Amani Toomer. The Giants quickly capitalized, increasing their lead to 10-0 on Gary Brown's 4-yd. TD run off right tackle. Moments later, New York upped its lead to 13-0 with a 49-yd. FG by Daluiso The Eagles responded quickly, however, putting together their best march of the afternoon, a 69-yd. drive that reached the NY 11. From there, Hoyer rolled to his right and, under pressure from DE Michael Strahan, lofted a pass to WR Jeff Graham into double coverage. Giants' CB Phillip Sparks came down with the ball in the end zone and the Birds' best opportunity to get back into the game had been snuffed out. Sparks also halted the Birds' next drive, this time intercepting a Hoyer pass at the Birds' 36-yd. line. New York subsequently closed out the scoring when Graham's 25-yd. strike to Toomer set up his 8-yd. TD toss to RB Tiki Barber.

NOTES: With the loss, Philadelphia suffered three shutouts in a single season for the first time since 1942 The shutout also meant that the Birds' extended their string of quarters without a TD to 10-plus, having last reached the end zone on Charlie Garner's 3-yd. run in the 2nd qtr. of game 9 vs. Detroit.

LAMBEAU FIELD • 59,862

With second-year QB Koy Detmer making his first pro start, the Eagles entered Green Bay to face the defending NFC Champion Packers. Detmer got the nod when injuries sidelined veteran Eagle signal callers Bobby Hoving (shoulder) and Rodney Peete (lacerated index finger on his throwing hand). Indeed, the spunky youngster put on an admirable performance by going 36-22-185-0-2TDs as a passer and by putting the Birds in position to win. In fact, Detmer rallied the Eagles from a 10-point deficit to a 13-10 lead shortly after intermission and later brought Philadelphia to within one point of the Pack at 17-16 midway through the final stanza. When it was all over, however, three-time league MVP Brett Favre and the Packers' offense would prove to be nearly unstoppable. Green Bay rolled up 499 yards of offense and ultimately earned a 24-16 win over the feisty Eagles. Favre (321 passing yds.) got help from WR Bill Schroeder whose 5-128 receiving effort included four grabs of over 20 yards and four 3rd down conversions. RB Darick Holmes (26-163-6.3 rushing) also contributed mightily to GB's victory ... Philadelphia came into the game ranked 30th in the NFL in both total offense and scoring offense. In fact, the Birds entered Lambeau Field having been shut out in two of their previous four outings, a stretch that saw them score just one TD and log just one win. Against the Packers, however, Detmer and the Birds overcame a dreadfully slow start to score two TDs on lengthy drives ... So slow was the Eagles' start that the first 26 minutes of the game were played primarily in their end of the field where the Packers had plenty of scoring opportunities. After TE Mark Chmura dropped a TD pass on Green Bay's second series, Eagles CB Troy Vincent preserved a scoreless 1st qtr. with an end zone interception off Favre on Green Bay's next possession ... Favre did get his club on the board early in the 2nd stanza when his 46-yd bomb to Schroeder set up a FG by Ryan Longwell. Favre again went to work on Green Bay's next series, leading his club 91 yards to a TD and a 10-0 lead with 3:54 to play in the half ... To that point, the Pack had logged 13 first downs while Philadelphia had managed none. On the Eagles' ensuing possession, however, Detmer led a 13-play, 78-yd. TD march. It was on that drive that the Birds moved into Green Bay territory for the first time. Detmer capped the march with a 17-yd. scoring strike to Jeff Graham. The TD cut the Birds' deficit to 14-6 (Vaughn Booker blocked Chris Boniol's PAT try) just 28 seconds before intermission ... Philadelphia then took the 2nd half kickoff and mounted an 11-play, 79-yd. drive that ended with the second Detmer-to-Graham TD pass of the day ... Green Bay responded immediately with a 6-play drive capped by Favre's 33-yd. laser to Antonio Freeman for a TD that put the Pack back on top, 17-13, midway through the 3rd stanza. Favre had the Packers on the move on their next two possessions as well although the first ended on downs at the PE 42 and the second was halted when Tim McTyer intercepted a Favre pass. Philadelphia subsequently turned that takeaway into points as a Boniol FG brought the Birds to within one at 17-16 with 8:41 left in the game. Green Bay again answered with a score of their own. Taking over on his own 27, Favre fired a 24-yd., 3rd down strike to Schroeder that helped set up William Henderson's 2-yd. TD run. That TD put Green Bay on top 24-16 and ended the scoring for the day.

VETERANS STADIUM • 66,155

In a game televised nationally by ESPN, quarterback Koy Detmer made just the second start of his young pro career and guided the Eagles to a 17-14 victory over the St. Louis Rams. The Eagles' victory spoiled the homecoming of Rams' head coach Dick Vermeil who, in his seven years as Philadelphia's head man (1976-82), had led the Birds to the 1980 NFC title and a berth in Super Bowl XV ... For the second straight week, Detmer tossed two TD passes to Eagles wide receivers, a group that - until a week earlier at Green Bay - had gone 10 games without finding the end zone. His 7-yd. scoring strike to Freddie Solomon in the 1st qtr. and his 61-yd. hookup with Irving Fryar in the 3rd stanza helped stake Philadelphia to a 17-6 lead. St. Louis eventually cut into that lead when Tony Banks' 41-yd. pass to J.T. Thomas set up a 1-yd. scoring run by June Henley with 11:04 left to play. Thus inspired the Rams' offense mounted two more drives in search of a come-from-behind victory. The first of those marches came up empty, however, when Jeff Wilkins' 52-yd. FG try was wide to the left. Then, with 1:52 remaining to play and the ball at their own 20, the Rams exerted one last-gasp effort. Banks quickly connected on 5 of 7 passes. But on his final completion, a 17-yd. strike to Thomas that moved the Rams to the Birds' 35, Thomas was unable to get out of bounds and the final seconds ticked off the clock with the Eagles clinging to their 17-14 lead.

NOTES: The TD catch by WR Irving Fryar was the 76th of his career, tying him for 15th on the NFL's all-time list with Fred Biletnikoff and Harold Jackson ... that scoring grab also added to a league record Fryar owns outright - TD receptions by different passers to (17) ... for good measure, Fryar also posted the a longest rushing attempt of his career, a 32-yd. effort on an end-around ... with an interception off Rams' QB Tony Banks, Eagles SS Michael Zordich extended his string of seasons with at least one pass theft to 11 ... Boniol's 50-yard field goal in the 1st qtr. was the longest by an Eagle since Roger Ruzek nailed a 50-ydr. vs. Denver on September 20, 1992 ... Eagles' RB Duce Staley led all rushers with 99 yards.

ARIZONA 20, PHILADELPHIA 17 (OT)
VETERANS STADIUM • 62,176

The Cardinals left cold, rainy Veterans Stadium with a 20-17 overtime victory, their first season series sweep of the Eagles since 1984, and more importantly, with their post-season dreams still alive ... Both clubs came into the game with depleted defensive lines. The Eagles were without four of the top five linemen who entered their camp in August. The fifth, team sack leader Hugh Douglas, came into the game with a severely strained groin that would limit his playing time. Arizona opened without its strong pair of DTs, Eric Swann (knee) and Mark Smith (ankle). As such, both clubs sought to exploit the other's weakness by establishing a strong running game. In the end, the Cards were led by Adrian Murrell's 32-174 rushing effort while Duce Staley's 30-141-1TD output paced the Eagles ... Arizona took the opening kickoff and put together a 65-yard drive culminating in a 28-yd. FG by Chris Jacke. The visitors then increased their lead to 10-0 on the final play of the 1st qtr. when safety Tommy Bennett intercepted a pass by Koy Detmer and returned it 70 yards for a TD ... Undaunted, Detmer came right back and led Philadelphia on a 7-play, 71-yd. scoring drive. Staley's 30-yd. TD scamper capped the drive and cut the Eagles' deficit to 3. When Arizona responded with an impressive drive of its own, the Eagles slammed the door on their guests - FS Brian Dawkins forced a fumble by Murrell that the Eagles recovered on their own 7. Detmer then proceeded to calmly lead another scoring drive that would tie the game at 10-10 just before intermission. A 45-yd. bomb to Jeff Graham moved the Eagles deep into Arizona territory but Philadelphia would have to settle for FG, however, when they were left with a 4th-n-goal at the Cardinals' 1-yd. line ... Arizona opened the 2nd half with yet another impressive march. Once deep inside the Eagles' end of the field, however, RB Mario Bates was stuffed for a 6-yd. loss on 4th-n-1 at the PE 11 ... Nonetheless, a scoreless 3rd qtr. gave way to a furious final stanza. Philadelphia went on top for the first time with 12:49 to play. The Eagles' lead came courtesy of a 26-yd. scoring strike from Detmer to WR Irving Fryar. That lead was short-lived, however, as the Cards evened the score on their ensuing possession, using 23 and 10-yd. passes to TE Chris Gedney to set up Jake Plummer's 9-yd. TD pass to WR Rob Moore ... In response, Detmer marched his club to the Cards' 15. But the effort was for naught as Chris Boniol's 33-yd. FG try was wide to the right. It was then Plummer's turn to work his magic. Seven plays later, a 19-yd. Plummer pass and a 23-yd. Murrell run seemingly had the Cards in line for a last-minute, game-winning FG try. Chris Jacke's 34-yd. boot was also off the mark and the game went into overtime ... In OT, Arizona won the coin toss and receptions of 30 and 16 yds. by Moore helped give Jacke another shot. This time he drilled a 32-yd. boot that gave Arizona the win.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1998
DALLAS 13, PHILADELPHIA 9
TEXAS STADIUM • 62,722

For the fourth consecutive week, the Eagles had an opportunity to win the game late in the fourth quarter. Trailing 13-9 with just over 3 minutes to go, Philadelphia faced a 4th-n-2 at the Cowboys 12-yd. line. Under heavy pressure from a Dallas blitz, QB Koy Detmer completed a pass to Andrew Jordan but the Eagles' tight end was dropped short of the first down. Philadelphia's defense then proceeded to halt three straight Emmitt Smith runs and forced the Cowboys to punt the ball back to the Birds who would in turn have one last shot to pull out a victory. But two plays after Detmer's bomb to Freddie Solomon went off the fingertips of the diving receiver at the goal line, Dallas forced Philadelphia to turn the ball over on downs and needed just two QB kneel downs to run out the clock. The win enabled the Cowboys to up their record to 9-6 and clinch the NFC East Division title.... Philadelphia, with Detmer making his fourth straight start (and the fourth start of his career overall), had taken a quick 3-0 lead. The Eagles took the opening kickoff and marched to the DC 3-yd. line, setting up a Chris Boniol field goal. Midway through the opening stanza, the Cowboys used a 41-yd. Troy Aikman-to-Michael Irvin pass to set up a FG try of their own. But when Dallas lined up for the FG try, holder Eric Bjornson - after noticing the Birds had just 10 men on the field - executed a fake. Bjornson ran 6 yards off left tackle, untouched, into the end zone to give the hosts a 7-3 lead. Although Philadelphia would venture into Cowboys' territory three times in the 2nd stanza, they would mount just one serious scoring threat. That effort was for naught, however, as a 48-yd. FG try fell short ... After intermission, Eagles DE Jon Harris tipped a Troy Aikman pass that resulted in an INT by safety Michael Zordich inside Dallas territory. The Birds subsequently settled for a 41-yd. Boniol FG that cut the Cowboys' lead to 7-6 ... Midway through the 3rd stanza, the Cowboys upped their lead to 10-6 with another Richie Cunningham FG. And when the Eagles' subsequent possession saw a Detmer pass go through the hands of Chris Fontenot for an INT by CB Kevin Smith, Dallas was perched on Philadelphia's doorstep once again. The Eagles' defense stiffened, however, forcing Dallas to settle for yet another FG that would increase the home club's lead to 13-6. Philadelphia responded in kind with a FG early in the final stanza, cutting the Cowboys' lead to just four points and setting up the dramatic finish.

NOTES: For the third straight week, the Eagles' offense did not allow a sack. As such, it marked the first time since the final three games of the 1971 campaign (at Det., vs. StL, at NYG) that Philadelphia's offense put together such a three-game string ... the Eagles entered the game without their top six defensive linemen (with Mike Mamula, Rhett Hall, Bill Johnson and Hollis Thomas already on IR, ends Hugh Douglas and Al Wallace were deactivated with groin and knee injuries, respectively). As a result, the Birds often employed a 3-1-7 alignment with rookie LBs Ike Reese and Jeremiah Trotter lined up as ends, William Thomas as the lone LB, and 7 DBs in the secondary. From that set, young DT Steve Martin notched a sack and a forced fumble while blitzing DBs Allen Rossum and Tim McTyer frequently pressured Aikman.

VETERANS STADIUM • 66,596

The New York Giants traveled down the New Jersey Turnpike and into the Vet in hopes of gaining a Wild Card playoff berth. To do so, they would need a victory over the Eagles as well as losses by the Buccaneers and Cardinals. By kickoff at 4:05 PM, however, the Giants had been mathematically eliminated when the Bucs defeated the Bengals in an early game ... Philadelphia and the New Yorkers both turned to their respective ground games with the Giants amassing 209 rushing yards and the Eagles 123. New York's offense was spearheaded by veteran RB Gary Brown. After rushing for 96 yards and 1 TD vs. the Birds earlier in the season at NY, Brown this time posted 25-112 rushing numbers. In addition, NY got two TD catches by WR Chris Calloway en route to a 20-10 win over the Birds. The game proved to be head coach Ray Rhodes' final appearance at the Eagles' helm - Rhodes would be fired the following day with one year remaining on his original 5-year contract. Although Brown's Eagles' counterpart, RB Duce Staley, eclipsed the 1,000-yard plateau with his 97 yards and 1 TD, that effort would not be enough to halt the Eagles' record from dropping to 3-13. Eagles' owner Jeffrey Lurie pointed to that record the following day when announcing his decision regarding Rhodes ... After the visitors had taken a 3-0 lead on a FG by Brad Daluiso, Staley put the Birds on top just seconds into the 2nd quarter. Staley's 64-yd. burst off right tackle resulted in a TD and a 7-3 Eagles lead. Staley's jaunt - his longest run of the year - also put the second-year pro over the 1,000-yd. rushing mark for the season. The two clubs then traded field goals on their next two possessions and entered halftime with Philadelphia on top, 10-6. Late in the 3rd qtr., NY put together a 77-yd. drive, capping the march with a 5-yd. TD pass by Kent Graham. Graham's pass had been intended for WR Ike Hilliard but was tipped by Eagles CB Bobby Taylor into the arms of Calloway for a 13-10 lead. The Giants then closed out the scoring in the final stanza with an 18-yd. Graham-to-Calloway strike that made the final score 20-10 ... For just the 14th time in history and the first since 12/5/65, the Birds finished a game without being assessed a penalty.

NOTES: Just days after wide receiver Irving Fryar had announced his plans to retire following the season finale, the Eagles honored the 15th year pro in a pregame ceremony. Fryar, who began his career in 1984 as the #1 overall pick in the draft by New England, had followed a three-year stint in Miami ('93-'95) with a similar stint in Philadelphia. Now, after twice being selected to the Pro Bowl as an Eagle, and after becoming one of the club's most popular figures, Fryar was closing out a marvelous career in which he truly blossomed after the age of 30 and only seemed to improve year after year. The pre-game ceremony included three of the greatest receivers in Eagles' history - Hall of Famer Tommy McDonald, Harold Carmichael, and Mike Quick. Surrounded by 50 friends and family members along with his Eagles teammates, Fryar was presented with a brand new Harley Davidson motorcycle, courtesy of the Eagles' organization. In addition, each of his four children received portraits of their father. "The Rev," as his teammates called him, concluded the ceremony by climbing onto his new chariot and taking a spin around the Veterans Stadium field, enjoying what would be his final day in the NFL.

1943 STEAGLES

With the shortage of manpower due to World War II, the Eagles and Steelers merged for the 1943 football season to become the Steagles. The Steagles, who finished their only season 5-4-1, split their home games between Philadelphia's Shibe Park and Pittsburgh's Forbes Field.

WHAT WAS THE PLAYOFF BOWL?

Following the 1961 and 1966 seasons, the Eagles participated in the Playoff Bowl. If case you never heard of the Playoff Bowl, here's the scoop. From 1960-1969, the National Football League took each conference's runner-up and matched them up in a consolation game at the Orange Bowl in Miami. The Eagles, by the way, lost both of their Playoff Bowl appearances (28-10 to Detroit in 1962 and 20-14 to Baltimore in 1967).

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME REVIEW

A frozen field in Comiskey Park did not prevent an offensive game as the Chicago Cardinals defeated the Philadelphia Eagles 28-21 in their first NFL championship playoff. The Cardinals' Elmer Angsman set a record by rushing for 159 yards in 10 carries, scoring twice on 70-yard runs. Philadelphia's Tommy Thompson set a record for pass completions (27-44-297-1TD) and returned a punt 75 yards for another TD. The Cardinals' Charlie Trippi also scored 2 TDs on a 44-yard run from scrimmage and a 75-yard punt return. Steve Van Buren, the NFL's leading ground gainer with 945 yards during the season, gained only 26 yards on 18 carries due to the slippery conditions.

The Cardinals, who had started the game wearing basketball shoes, had a 7-0 lead after Trippi's 44 yard TD run with 8:38 left in the first quarter. The Eagles themselves changed to sneakers after being penalized for illegal equipment, but trailed 14-0 before scoring on Thompson's pass to William (Pat) McHugh, who caught a 36-yard pass on Chicago's 17 and completed a 53-yard play.

Philadelphia never got closer than a touchdown as the Cardinals held leads of 21-7 and 28-14 in the second half. The Birds did lead 357-336 in total offense, partly because Paul Christman of the Cardinals completed only 3 of 14 passes for 54 yards as the Eagles' eight-man defensive line succeeded in pressuring Christman into hurried passes.

1948 NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME EAGLES 7, CHICAGO 0 DECEMBER 19, 1948 AT SHIBE PARK

After many years of waiting, the Philadelphia Eagles finally won the National Football League championship. Playing in a driving snowstorm at Shibe Park, Coach Greasy Neale's team triumphed over the champion Chicago Cardinals 7-0.

A protective tarpaulin was not removed from the playing field in Shibe Park until 30 minutes before the kickoff but snow blanketed the entire field by game time.

Of the 36,309 persons who bought tickets, a total of 28,864 braved the storm with the temperature below the freezing mark to watch the title game, which began a half hour later than scheduled because the snow made removal of the tarpaulin a difficult operation. The sidelines were marked by ropes tied to stakes and conditions were so adverse that commissioner Bert Bell decreed that while the 10-yard first-down chain would be used, there would be no measuring; referee Ron Gibbs would be the final judge of all first downs.

The Eagles started the game's only touchdown drive near the conclusion of the third quarter when the Cardinals' Elmer Angsman fumbled a handoff from Ray Malouf that Eagles' lineman, Frank (Bucko) Kilroy, recovered on the Cards' 17. Three plays into the fourth qtr, Steve Van Buren scored on a five-yard run and Cliff Patton kicked the PAT.

Van Buren had pounded out 98 yards in 26 carries. Bosh Pritchard rushed for 67 yards and Thompson ran mainly up the middle for 50 yards. The rugged weather conditions made it almost impossible to complete passes. Thompson was 2 out of 12 for 7 yards while Malouf threw 3 of 8 for 35 yards. Kicking was just as difficult; Patton attempted 3 field goals but made none while Pat Harder of Chicago bobbled his only attempt.

1949 NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

EAGLES 14, LOS ANGELES 0

DEC. 18, 1949 AT LA MEMORIAL COLISEUM

The Philadelphia Eagles, in the NFL title game for the third consecutive year, defeated the Los Angeles Rams 14-0 as halfback Steve Van Buren set records with 31 carries and 196 yards gained. Van Buren achieved the record after a storm, that began 24 hours before kickoff, dropped almost two inches of rain on the muddy Los Angeles Coliseum field. A crowd of more than 60,000, which would have set a playoff record, was expected before the storm but only 22,245 attended the game.

With all-pro Van Buren carrying the ball, the Eagles were able to control possession for 70 plays on 274 rushing yards. The Rams rushed for only 21 yards and did not advance the ball further than the Eagles' 26-yard line. The Birds scored their first TD in the second quarter on a 31-yard pass from quarterback Tommy Thompson to Pete Pihos.

The Eagles' other score came in the third quarter as defensive end Leo Skladany blocked Bob Waterfield's punt from the 5-yard line. The snap of the ball was high and Waterfield had no chance to get the kick away. Skladany picked up the bouncing ball on the 2-yard line and scored.

The victory marked the Eagles' second straight shutout in the NFL title game, climaxing the rise that began when Earle (Greasy) Neale was hired as coach in 1941.

1960 NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

EAGLES 17, GREEN BAY 13

DECEMBER 26, 1960 AT FRANKLIN FIELD

The Philadelphia Eagles overcame leads of 6-0 and 13-10 by the Green Bay Packers to score a 17-13 victory for their first NFL championship in 11 years. Bill Quinlan intercepted Norm Van Brocklin's pass on the first play of the game and Eagles' rookie Ted Dean fumbled on the Birds' second possession. Five plays later the Packers' Paul Hornung kicked a 20-yard field goal. Another Hornung field goal increased Green Bay's lead to 6-0 in the second quarter before Philadelphia got on the scoreboard with a two-play, 57-yard drive. Van Brocklin passed 22 yards to Tommy McDonald, then teamed with McDonald on a 35-yard TD pass.

A Bobby Walston field goal for Philadelphia made it 10-6 at the half, but Green Bay took a 13-10 lead in the first two minutes of the fourth quarter. Bart Starr's 7-yard pass to Max McGee marked the Packers' only touchdown. On the ensuing kickoff, Dean returned the ball 58 yards to the Packers' 39. Dean then completed the drive with a 5-yard TD run. Chuck Bednarik endured 58 minutes of the contest — playing center on offense and linebacker on defense.

1980 NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

JANUARY 11, 1980 AT VETERANS STADIUM

With only two healthy wide receivers and a passing game that was hampered by frigid temperatures and blustery winds, the Eagles rode a tremendous defensive effort and Wilbert Montgomery's 194-yard rushing performance to the NFC title. The Birds never trailed after Montgomery's 42-yard scoring burst early in the first period, although Dallas managed a 7-7 tie at halftime after their only long drive of the day in the middle of the second period. The Eagles continued to dominate after intermission as fullback Leroy Harris (10 carries, 60 yards) complemented Montgomery's effort. Dallas managed only 202 yards of total offense and 11 first downs to the Eagles 340 yards and 19 first downs.

SUPER BOWL XV

JAN. 25, 1981 AT NEW ORLEANS SUPERDOME

The Eagles' first Super Bowl appearance was a disappointing one as they fell behind early and could never play the type of football that had made them champions of the National Football Conference. Behind quarterback Jim Plunkett, the game's MVP, the Raiders jumped out to a 14-0 lead in the first period. The first score, a two-yard pass from Plunkett to Cliff Branch, was set up by an Oakland interception and return to the Eagles' 30-yard line with less than two minutes elapsed in the opening period. Plunkett followed late in the period with an 80-yard scoring pass to running back Kenny King. The Eagles trailed by 14-3 at halftime and by 24-3 after three periods before Keith Kreple scored the only Philadelphia touchdown on an 8-yard pass reception from Ron Jaworski. A first period apparent touchdown toss of 40 yards from Jaworski to Rodney Parker was nullified by an illegal motion penalty against the Eagles. That score, if it had stood, would have made the score 7-7 at the time and might have gotten the Eagles untracked.

HONOR ROLL INDUCTEES

In 1987, the Philadelphia Eagles Honor Roll was created in order to pay tribute to outstanding members of the organization. Automatically included at the inception of the Honor Roll were the 11 members of the Hall of Fame who played all or part of their NFL careers with the Eagles. From 1987 through 1996, additional inductees were honored in each season.

#60

Center/Linebacker
Pennsylvania
Years with Eagles: 1949-62

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1967
Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

As long as there is football in Philadelphia, the name Chuck Bednarik will long be remembered. "Concrete Charley" played in 253 of a possible 256 games with the Eagles during his illustrious 14-year career. Elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1967, he played in eight Pro Bowl games (an Eagles record) and was named the most valuable player of the 1954 Pro Bowl. Although the Eagles won the league championship in 1949, Bednarik's rookie year, his star shined brightest in 1960 when he played every minute at both center and linebacker during the Birds 1960 NFL Championship victory over Green Bay. In addition to his Hall of Fame status (he was inducted in 1967 with former Eagles coach Earle "Greasy" Neale as his presenter), Bednarik was named to the Eagles' "All-Time Team," and was cited by the nation's press as "Lineman of the Decade" for the 1950s. Born May 1, 1925, in Bethlehem, PA, Bednarik was an All-America selection at the University of Pennsylvania in 1948 before joining the Eagles as their first selection in the 1949 NFL draft.

DE BENNEVILLE "BERT" BELL

Owner
Pennsylvania
Years with Eagles: 1933-40

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1963
Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

The first owner of the Philadelphia Eagles, Bell proved to be a man of extraordinary vision. As owner of the Birds (1933-40), co-owner of the Pittsburgh Steelers (1941-46), and as NFL commissioner (1946-59), Bell was responsible for instituting the college draft and setting up visionary television policies, including the implementation of home-game blackouts. In 1933, he moved the Frankford Yellowjackets to Philadelphia and renamed them the Eagles, in honor of the symbol of President Franklin Roosevelt's National Recovery Act. In 1946, Bell moved the NFL office from Chicago to the Philadelphia suburb of Bala Cynwyd, PA where it remained until his death on October 11, 1959. Bell played and coached at the University of Pennsylvania where he led the Quakers to the Rose Bowl in 1916. A founder of the Maxwell Football Club, Bell was born February 25, 1895, in Philadelphia. He was elected to the Hall of Fame posthumously in 1963. A member of the inaugural H.O.F. class, Bell was represented by Steelers owner Art Rooney at the induction ceremony.

#66

Middle Linebacker
Arkansas State
Years with Eagles: 1974-80

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1988

The 6-foot-4, 245-pound product of Arkansas State regularly set the defensive tempo of a game with his intimidating, hard-hitting tackles and his explosive quickness. After coming to the Eagles in a 1974 trade with Cincinnati (in exchange for Philadelphia's first round picks in '77 & '78 as well as a second round pick in '78), Bergey recorded nearly 1,200 tackles in seven seasons as an Eagle. He was a key factor in the Birds' rise to the 1980 NFC Championship and a berth in Super Bowl XV. His play also earned him Eagles' MVP status three times and trips to the Pro Bowl on four occasions. Bergey was born February 9, 1945 in South Dakota, NY.

Texas
Years with Eagles: 1969-76

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1993

One of the most versatile players in Eagles' history, Bill Bradley played eight years (1969-76) with the Birds as a defensive back, punter, and kick returner. As of today, over 20 years after the end of his Eagles career, Bradley remains tied for the team's all-time lead in career interceptions (34) and still ranks first on the Birds' all-time interception yardage list (536). As an Eagle, Bradley earned three trips to the Pro Bowl (following the 1972-74 seasons) and became the first player in NFL history to lead the league in interceptions in consecutive seasons (1971 & 1972). It was in that 1971 campaign that Bradley set an Eagles' single-season record for most INTs and most INT return yards (11-248). Originally the Birds' third round draft choice out of the University of Texas in 1969, Bradley also handled the majority of the Birds' punting duties for six of his eight years with the club, averaging 39.0 yards per punt.

#40

Defensive Back
Colorado
Years with Eagles: 1953, 1956-61

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1989

An inspirational player who could turn a game around with one big play, Tom Brookshier spent seven seasons with the Eagles and collected 20 interceptions along the way. Originally a tenth-round pick from the University of Colorado, Brookshier made an immediate impact with 8 interceptions in his rookie season of 1953. Then, after a two-year stint in the Air Force, the defensive back returned to the Eagles and twice earned all-pro honors - first in 1959, and again in 1960 as a member of Philadelphia's world championship team. Upon retiring as a player, Brookshier entered the broadcasting field and went on to be teamed with Pat Summerall on CBS's telecasts of NFL games including the 1980 Super Bowl.

#99

Defensive Tackle
Miami (FL)
Years with Eagles: 1987-91

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1996

A two-time Pro Bowl selection and a member of one of the most dominant defensive lines in NFL history, Jerome Brown's life was cut short at the age of 27. Brown was killed in a tragic automobile accident on June 25, 1992, in his hometown of Brooksville, FL. The Eagles' first round draft pick out of the University of Miami in 1987, he quickly became a fan favorite not only because of his outstanding ability but because of the passionate leadership and competitive fire he displayed. Despite playing only four years in the NFL, Brown will long be remembered as a key figure on the Birds' legendary 1991 defense - a unit that led the NFL in terms of fewest yards allowed overall, against the run, and vs. the pass. He capped the 1991 season by joining fellow linemates Reggie White and Clyde Simmons as starters in the Pro Bowl. Born February 4, 1965 in Brooksville, he went on to attend that town's Hernando High.

Running Back
Ball State
Years with Eagles: 1960-67

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1990

One of the most electrifying players in Eagles' history, Brown holds the club record for longest kickoff return with his 105-yarder vs. Cleveland in 1961. Brown also set a then-NFL record for all-purpose yardage in a season with 2,428 yards in 1963. Today, he still shares the NFL record for kickoff returns for touchdowns in a single game with two vs. Dallas in 1966 (90 and 93 yards). Originally a 27th round draft pick of Green Bay in 1959, Brown spent time on the Packers taxi squad that year and was then signed by the Eagles as a free agent just after the start of the 1960 season. Brown finished his Eagles career in 1967 as the third leading rusher in club history in terms of both yards (3,703) and TDs (29) on 805 carries.

#17

Wide Receiver
Southern
Years with Eagles: 1971-83

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

The 6-foot, 8-inch Carmichael was not only one of the tallest receivers ever to play the game, he was one of the best. The Birds' seventh round pick out of Southern University in 1971, Carmichael played 13 seasons with the Eagles before finishing his career with the Dallas Cowboys in 1984. Upon retirement, he ranked sixth on the NFL's all-time reception list with 590 catches, including 589 as an Eagle, the most in team history. Today he also remains the Birds' career receiving leader in terms of yards (8,978) and touchdowns (79). During his tenure with Philadelphia, Carmichael led the Birds in receptions eight times. His outstanding play earned him trips to the Pro Bowl following the '74, '79, '80, and '81 seasons. Moreover, he was a key figure on the Eagles 1980 club that defeated Dallas in the NFC Championship Game and earned a berth in Super Bowl XV vs. the Raiders. Carmichael was born on Sept. 22, 1949 in Jacksonville, FL, where he attended William Raines High. On April 28, 1998, Harold was named the Eagles' Director of Player and Community Relations.

JIM GALLAGHER

Temple

Years with Eagles: 1949-1995

He never put on a uniform, he never played a down. But many would say that "Jimmy Gal," an Eagles executive from 1949-95, was a first round pick in his own right. In that remarkable 46-year span, Gallagher worked with 17 head coaches and for 12 owners, GMs, and team presidents. During that time, Gallagher saw the Eagles capture two NFL titles and one NFC crown, and watched the Birds play home games in four different stadiums. A native of Philadelphia, a graduate of Northeast Catholic High School and an Army veteran of the Korean War, Gallagher joined the Eagles in 1949 and worked nearly every phase of the operation until being named personnel director in 1957. Gallagher went on to serve stints as director of public relations and associate director of sales and marketing before being named the club's director of alumni relations/traveling secretary in 1990. It was in that capacity that Jimmy Gal served until retiring on August 1, 1995.

BILL HEWITT

#56

End

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1971

Michigan

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

Years with Eagles: 1936-39, 1943

Considered by many to be the best "two-way" end the league ever produced, Hewitt was the first player to be named All-NFL with two different teams - the Bears (1933, '34, '36) and Eagles (1937). A Michigan Wolverine and a member of the 1933 NFL Champion Chicago Bears before he joined the Eagles, the fast, elusive Hewitt revolutionized the end position. Nicknamed "Stinky," Hewitt is known for pitching a lateral to Bill Karr for the touchdown that won the 1933 championship game for the Bears. He also was credited with inventing many trick plays. Hewitt, who played without a helmet until a rule change forced him to wear headgear, was born October 8, 1909, in Bay City, Michigan. He died in an automobile accident on January 14, 1947, at the age of 37. Twenty four years after his death, Hewitt was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He was represented by his daughter Mary Ellen Cocozza at the induction ceremony and was formally presented for induction by Upton Bell, then the GM of the New England Patriots.

#7

Quarterback

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1992

Youngstown State

Years with Eagles: 1977-86

Few players have had as great an impact on their teams as Ron Jaworski had on the Eagles of the late 1970s and early 1980s. After coming to the Birds in a 1977 trade with the Los Angeles Rams (in exchange for the rights to TE Charles Young), "Jaws" went on to enjoy a stellar 10-year career in Philadelphia. With the Eagles he set seven club passing records, including career marks for completions (2,088), touchdowns (175), and yards (26,963). After leading the Eagles to the NFC title in 1980 and a berth in Super Bowl XV vs. the Raiders, the Youngstown State product earned a Pro Bowl selection and was named the NFL Player of the Year by UPI and the Maxwell Football Club. Known throughout his career as one of the NFL's most durable quarterbacks, Jaworski earned the respect of his peers by starting 116 consecutive regular season games. His outstanding career, coupled with his involvement in numerous charitable and civic events, undoubtedly made him one of the most popular Eagles of all time. Jaworski was born March 23, 1951 in the Buffalo suburb of Lackawanna, NY, and attended Lackawanna High.

#9

Quarterback
Duke
Years with Eagles: 1957-63

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1983
Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

Despite spending the last 10 years of his career with the Redskins, Christian Adolph (Sonny) Jurgensen is remembered not only as one of the finest quarterbacks ever to wear an Eagles uniform, but as one of the best passers in NFL history. A fourth round draft pick of the Eagles in 1957, Jurgensen - a future Hall of Famer himself - was a backup to another Hall of Fame quarterback, Norm Van Brocklin, on the Birds' 1960 NFL Championship team. The following year the rifle-armed red-head took over as the Eagles starting signal caller and threw 32 TD passes, a single-season mark which still stands as a club record. In that stellar 1961 season he completed 235 of 436 passes for 3,723 yards. Jurgensen went on to finish his NFL career in 1975 with 32,224 passing yards. A member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's class of 1983, he was formally presented for induction by Edward Bennett Williams, then the President of the Washington Redskins.

OLLIE MATSON

Halfback
San Francisco
Years with Eagles: 1964-66

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1972
Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

In his career with Chicago, Los Angeles, Detroit, and Philadelphia, Matson compiled some very impressive numbers - 12,844 combined net yards and 5,173 yards rushing. He was selected to participate in five Pro Bowls and, in fact, earned MVP honors for his effort in the 1956 Pro Bowl. Matson was traded to the Rams by the Chicago Cardinals for nine players in 1959. The speedy halfback was also a medal winner in track at the 1952 Olympics. A member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's class of 1972, Matson was formally presented as an inductee by Joe Kuharich, his former coach with the Eagles as well as with the Cardinals and the University of San Francisco.

TOMMY McDONALD

#25

Wide Receiver
Oklahoma
Years with Eagles: 1957-63

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1998
Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1988

A game-breaking receiver from the University of Oklahoma, the 5-foot, 9-inch, 170-pound McDonald dazzled NFL fans with his acrobatic receptions for 13 seasons. During his seven-year stint with the Eagles, McDonald led or shared the team lead in receptions from 1959-62. In Philadelphia's 1960 NFL championship season he averaged one touchdown every third time he caught the ball, registering 13 TDs among his 64 receptions. In fact, McDonald capped that season by catching 3 passes, including one for a 35-yd TD in the Championship Game victory over Green Bay. He led the league in TD receptions in 1958 (9, tie) and in 1961 (13) when he also paced the NFL with 1,144 receiving yards. Born July 26, 1934, in Roy, NM, McDonald later starred for Bud Wilkinson's national champions at Oklahoma despite having lost half of his right thumb in a freak motorcycle accident in high school. As a senior with the Sooners, he won the Maxwell Award as the nation's top collegian and finished third in the Heisman Trophy voting behind Paul Hornung and Johnny Majors. He then became a third round selection of the Birds in the 1957 draft and went on to be named to the Pro Bowl six times (five times as a starter). After his final season with the Eagles, McDonald finished his NFL career, with the Cowboys (1964), Rams (1965-66), Falcons (1967) and Browns (1968). On August 1, 1998, McDonald was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

WILBERT MONTGOMERY

#31

Running Back
Abilene Christian
Years with Eagles: 1977-84

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

Wilbert Montgomery joined the Eagles as a quiet, shy, sixth round pick out of Abilene Christian in 1977. Eight years later, he finished his Philadelphia career as the Birds' all-time rushing leader in terms of yards (6,538) and attempts (1,465), surpassing Hall of Famer Steve Van Buren in the process. After playing for Detroit in 1985 (he was traded to the Lions that preseason), Montgomery retired as the 16th leading rusher in NFL history with 6,789 yards. Despite his smallish 5-foot-10, 195-pound frame, Montgomery won the hearts of Philadelphia fans with his dogged determination. His 194-yard effort in the 1980 NFC Championship Game victory over Dallas, including a 42-yard touchdown on the Birds' first offensive play, will never be forgotten. Montgomery scored 58 career TDs as an Eagle (45 of which came on the ground) including 14 combined TDs rushing and receiving during the 1979 season. He also tallied 6 playoff touchdowns, including 3 in the 1980 post-season when he averaged 104 rushing yards per game in three performances (including the Super Bowl against Oakland). Montgomery played in the Pro Bowl following the 1978 and 1979 seasons.

EARL "GREASY" NEALE

Head Coach
West Virginia Wesleyan
Years with Eagles: 1941-50

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1969
Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

After coaching extensively on the collegiate level at Marietta, Washington and Jefferson (1922 Rose Bowl team), Virginia, and West Virginia, Neale broke into the NFL in 1941 and quickly turned the Eagles into contenders. He went on to lead the Birds to three straight Eastern Division crowns and back-to-back NFL championships in 1948 and 1949. Neale was, in particular, recognized as a master of the T formation. From 1918 to 1922, just prior to beginning his coaching career, Neale was a scrappy outfielder with the Cincinnati Reds and the Philadelphia Phillies. He was born in Parkersburg, WV, on November 2, 1891. Two years after Neale served as presenter when former Eagle great Chuck Bednarik was inducted into the Hall of Fame, Bednarik returned the favor, presenting Neale to the assemblage at Canton, OH, upon the latter's induction into the Hall in 1969.

PETE PIHOS

End
Indiana
Years with Eagles: 1947-55

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1970
Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

An integral member of the Eagles' 1948 and 1949 championship teams, Pihos enjoyed a career that included six trips to the Pro Bowl and three straight seasons leading the NFL in receptions. The All-America selection from the University of Indiana may best be remembered for his game-winning catch in the 1949 NFL championship game vs. the Rams. Pihos came to the Eagles in 1947 and was a starter on offense for eight of his nine years with the team. He played defense in 1952 but returned to the offensive unit a year later. During his Eagles career, Pihos caught 373 passes, a figure that still ranks third on the Eagles' all-time list (his 61 TD catches also remain tied for third best in team history). He led the league in receptions and receiving yards in 1953 (63-1,049) and again in 1955 (62-864). In between, he tied for the league lead in catches with 60 in 1954. After the advent of the Pro Bowl in 1951, he made it six times in as many seasons.

#82

Wide Receiver
North Carolina State
Years with Eagles: 1982-90

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1995

One of the most graceful and athletic wide receivers ever to play the game, Mike Quick electrified Eagles fans for nine years. During that time, the former first round pick from North Carolina State distinguished himself as one of the NFL's premier pass catchers. A fixture among the league leaders during his career, Quick also became a regular selection to the Pro Bowl. Five consecutive times (following the 1983-87 seasons), the Hamlet, NC, native was voted to the Pro Bowl by his peers. At the conclusion of his brilliant career, Quick had etched his name into the Eagles record books, ranking among the club's all-time career and single-season receiving leaders in terms of catches, yardage, and TDs. Today, Quick serves as color analyst on radio broadcasts of Eagles games.

#44

End
South Dakota State
Years with Eagles: 1956-66

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1989

Acquired off waivers at the start of the 1956 season from Detroit for $100, the 6-foot-1, 210-pound Retzlaff went on to earn all-pro honors five times as an Eagle. At the time of his retirement, Retzlaff was the Eagles' all-time leader in receptions (452) and receiving yardage (7,412). Today, over 30 years later, those figures still stand as the second highest totals in club history. A 22nd round draft pick of the Lions in 1953, Retzlaff also scored 47 touchdowns in his career and was selected to the Pro Bowl five times. When Philadelphia acquired his services, coach Buck Shaw converted the fullback into one of the league's all-time best tight ends. Nicknamed "the Baron," Retzlaff went on to receive both the Washington Touchdown Club's Pro Football Player of the Year Award and the Maxwell Club's Bert Bell Award in 1965 when he was 66-1,190-10TDs receiving. Instrumental in founding the NFL Player's Association, Retzlaff later served as the Birds' general manager from 1969-72.

JIM RINGO

#54

Syracuse
Years with Eagles: 1964-67

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1981
Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

A member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Ringo began his career as the Packers' seventh round draft choice out of Syracuse in 1953. Despite being small for an offensive lineman, his quickness and determination enabled Ringo to earn all-pro honors eight times and play in 10 Pro Bowls. He also played in three NFL championship games. Ringo, who ignored numerous injuries to start in a then NFL-record 182 straight games from 1954-67, played on Green Bay's 1961 and 1962 World Championship teams. After 11 years with the Packers, Ringo spent his final four seasons as a player with the Eagles. Following his playing career, Ringo moved into the coaching ranks and became head coach of the Buffalo Bills from 1976-77. He was born November 21, 1931, in Orange, N.J., and inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1981 with Willard "Whiz" Rinehart, his former coach at Phillipsburgh (NJ) High, serving as his presenter.

#76

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1991

A first round draft pick of the Eagles in 1973 (the 3rd player selected overall) this University of Texas product became one of the cornerstones of an offensive line that helped lead the Eagles to the 1980 NFC Championship and a berth in Super Bowl XV. Sisemore ranks fifth on the Eagles' all-time career list in both number of seasons (12) and games played (156). During his illustrious career, Sisemore started 127 consecutive games and was selected to the Pro Bowl following the 1979 and 1981 seasons. Overall, he teamed with fellow tackle Stan Walters, QB Ron Jaworski, RB Wilbert Montgomery and WR Harold Carmichael (all members of the Eagles Honor Roll) to power an offense that helped Philadelphia reach the playoffs five straight times from 1978-82.

#11

Quarterback

Oregon

Years with Eagles: 1958-60

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1971

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

A 1971 inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Van Brocklin was a member of one of the Hall's most distinguished classes - a group that included Jim Brown, Vince Lombardi, Andy Robustelli, and Y.A. Tittle. Acquired in a 1958 trade with the LA Rams that many recall as the biggest deal in Eagles history, Van Brocklin went on to quarterback the Birds for three years. The fiery signal caller helped turn a last place Eagles club into one that eventually captured the NFL championship in 1960. As such, "The Dutchman" teamed with future Hall-of-Famer Chuck Bednarik to pace the Eagles to their third NFL championship with a 17-13 victory over Vince Lombardi's Green Bay Packers at Franklin Field. This storybook ending would garner Van Brocklin the league's MVP award and provide a fitting end to his playing career as both he and head coach Buck Shaw announced their retirements at the end of the season. In addition to ranking with the league's all-time great quarterbacks, "Dutch" was an accomplished punter, twice leading the league in punting average. An All-America selection at the University of Oregon, he went on to participate in 10 Pro Bowls. Van Brocklin threw for 23,611 yards and 173 TDs in an NFL career that spanned 12 seasons. He then went on to be the head coach for the Minnesota Vikings (1961-66) and Atlanta Falcons (1968-73).

#15

Halfback

Louisiana State

Years with Eagles: 1944-51

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1965

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

The Birds' first round draft choice (the fifth player selected overall) out of Louisiana State in 1944, Van Buren signed his first contract, in the amount of $4,000, with an Eagles team that had never finished above fourth place. They finished second in Van Buren's rookie season, were runners-up two more years and then won three straight division titles. In 1948 and '49, the Birds won consecutive league championships and Van Buren cemented his place in history as one of the most talented backs ever to play the game. Van Buren, nicknamed "Wham-Bam" by his teammates for his quick and punishing running style, twice surpassed the 1,000-yard mark while capturing the NFL rushing title on four occasions. In the 1948 title game against the Chicago Cardinals, he scored the game's only touchdown in a blinding snow storm. A year later, he waded through mud and torrential rains in the Los Angeles Coliseum to rush for 196 yards while helping the Eagles defeat the Rams and capture the title once again.

His 205 yards rushing vs. Pittsburgh earlier that same season (1949) still stands as a club record. Similarly, his 5,860 career rushing yards and 77 touchdowns both rank second in Eagles history. A five-time all-pro, Van Buren was inducted into the Pro Football's Hall of Fame in 1965 with fellow Hall member Clark Hinkle, a former Packers running back, serving as his presenter. In 1987, Van Buren was named to the Eagles Honor Roll. Seven years later in 1994, he was also selected to the NFL's 75th Anniversary Team. Van Buren was born December 28, 1920, in Tela, Spanish Honduras.

DICK VERMEIL

Head Coach
San Jose State
Years with Eagles: 1976-82

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1994

Dick Vermeil, the Eagles head coach from 1976-82, will long be remembered as a workaholic and perfectionist ... but he will be remembered most as a winner. A success at every level of coaching, from his first high school head coaching job in 1960, to a stint at UCLA in 1974-75 and, of course, with the Eagles, Vermeil attacked his profession with a degree of passion rarely seen. A native of Calistoga, CA, in the Napa Valley, Vermeil became a hero in Philadelphia where he coached the Eagles into the playoffs five consecutive times from 1978-82, including a trip to Super Bowl XV as NFC Champions in January of 1981. Vermeil's Eagles earned that trip to the Super Bowl after capturing the NFC East division title with a 12-4 regular season record and after defeating their arch rival, the Dallas Cowboys, in the NFC title game at Veterans Stadium. After one more season at the Birds' helm, Vermeil resigned, moving into the broadcasting booth before returning to the NFL in 1997 as head coach of the St. Louis Rams.

#75

Tackle
Syracuse
Years with Eagles: 1975-83

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1991

Originally a ninth round draft pick of the Cincinnati Bengals in 1972, Walters joined the Eagles via trade in 1975. The Syracuse University product went on to play in 122 consecutive regular and post-season games for Philadelphia. Walters provided solid play at left tackle throughout his career, anchoring the team's offensive line (along with fellow Honor Roll member Jerry Sisemore), especially during the successful seasons of the late 1970s and early 1980s. A key member of the Birds' 1980 NFC championship squad that participated in Super Bowl XV, Walters was honored by his peers following the '78 and '79 seasons when he was selected to the Pro Bowl. After his playing career, Walters became a color commentator on radio broadcasts of Eagles games until 1997.

#53

Center
Fordham
Years with Eagles: 1946-50

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1968
Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

A two-time All-America selection at Fordham where he was the center on the famed "Seven Blocks of Granite" line, Wojciechowicz was the Detroit Lions' top draft pick in 1938. One of football's original "iron men" for eight years with the Lions, Wojciechowicz joined the Eagles in 1946 as a defensive specialist and helped the Birds capture back-to-back NFL championships in '48 and '49. Known for his exceptionally wide stance as a center, "Wojie" also was an outstanding pass defender who pilfered 16 passes during his pro career. Born August 12, 1915, in South River, NJ, Wojciechowicz organized the National Football League Alumni Association. A member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's class of 1968, "Wojie" was presented for induction by Earle "Greasy" Neale, the Eagles head coach during his five seasons with Philadelphia.

The Eagles have a 2-1 record in the Pro Football Hall of Fame game with wins over the Browns (1967) and Dolphins (1978) and a loss to the Jets (1992).

YEAR-BY-YEAR HISTORY

1933 — Frankford Yellowjackets' franchise in the NFL awarded to syndicate headed by Bert Bell and Lud Wray for $2500. Club christened "Eagles" in honor of the symbol of the New Deal's National Recovery Act. Eagles and Chicago Bears play in Philadelphia's first Sunday game (Nov. 12) at Baker Bowl. Game ends in a 3-3 tie.

1935 — General manager Bert Bell proposes an annual college draft to equalize talent in the league. Proposal is adopted on May 19 for the 1936 season.

1936 — Eagles have first choice in the inaugural college draft and select University of Chicago back Jay Berwanger but fail to sign him. Bell becomes sole owner of the team with $4,000 bid. Playing site for home games moves from Baker Bowl to Municipal Stadium.

1939 — Davey O'Brien, Texas Christian's All-America quarterback, signs with the Eagles for a reported $12,000 per year salary and percentage of the gate. O'Brien plays in every game and sets NFL passing yardage record with 1,324 yards. On October 22, the Eagles play in the first televised pro football game and fell to the host Brooklyn Dodgers, 23-14, at Brooklyn Ebbets Field. Allan "Skip" Walz broadcasts the game for NBC from Ebbett's field to the approximate 1,000 TV sets then in Brooklyn.

1940 — Home playing site switches from Municipal Stadium to Shibe Park (later known as Connie Mack Stadium). Pittsburgh owner Art Rooney buys half interest in the Eagles after selling the Steelers franchise to Alexis Thompson of New York, a 30-year old heir to a six million fortune in steel stocks.

1941 — Bell and Rooney swap franchises with Thompson, Rooney returning to Pittsburgh and Thompson taking over the Eagles. Bert Bell joins Rooney as a full-time partner in Pittsburgh. Thompson hires Earl (Greasy) Neale as head coach of the Eagles.

1943 — Eagles merge with Pittsburgh Steelers to form the "Steagles" due to manpower shortage during World War II. Merger dissolved at end of season.

1944 — First draft choice Steve Van Buren debuts as Eagles' halfback. Team finishes in second place with 7-1-2 record.

1945 — Team again finishes in second place with 7-3 record and leads league in scoring with 272 points. Van Buren leads NFL with 838 rushing yards and 110 points.

1946 — Team finishes second for third straight year with 6-5 record.

1947 — Rookie end Pete Pihos, Van Buren, and Bosh Pritchard combine with an overpowering defense to lead Philadelphia into the NFL championship game for the first time but the Chicago Cardinals earn the NFL title with a 28-21 victory at icy Comiskey Park.

1948 — Eagles win their first NFL championship, defeating the Chicago Cardinals, 7-0, in a blinding snowstorm at Shibe Park.

1949 — Thompson sells the team to 100 buyers, each of whom paid $3,000 for one of the 100 shares. They were called the "Happy Hundred" or the "100 Brothers." Their leader was James P. Clark, a Philadelphia sportsman and business executive, and the 100 investors included some of the leading names in Philadelphia business, government and politics, including Leonard Tose. Vince McNally is named general manager. University of Pennsylvania All-America C/LB Chuck Bednarik is a 1st round draft choice. The Eagles win their 3rd straight Eastern Division title and defend their NFL championship with a 14-0 win over the Los Angeles Rams.

1950 — In Greasy Neale's final season as the Eagles' head coach, they finish tied for third in the American Conference with a 6-6 mark.

1951 — Alvin (Bo) McMillan replaces Greasy Neale as head coach. McMillan becomes ill the night before the season opener and is replaced by Wayne Millner. End-placekicker Bobby Walston is named rookie of the year.

1952 — Jim Trimble succeeds Wayne Millner as head coach. Team rides strong defense to 7-5 second place finish.

1953 — Bobby Thomason and Adrian Burk combine to pass for a league-high 3,089 yards. Pete Pihos catches 63 passes for 1,049 yards and 10 touchdowns to lead league. Eagles finish in second place and snap Cleveland's 11-game winning streak with 42-27 win in season finale.

1954 — Bobby Walston leads league in scoring with 114 points. Eagles finish second for third consecutive year with second straight 7-4-1 record.

YEAR-BY-YEAR HISTORY

1955 — Pihos again leads all NFL pass receivers with 62 catches for 864 yards. Joseph A. Donoghue, Eagles' vice president/secretary, is elected assistant treasurer of the NFL.

1956 — Hugh Devore replaces Jim Trimble as head coach.

1957 — Rookie QB Sonny Jurgensen highlights a 4-8 season by passing Eagles to a 17-7 upset of the NFL Eastern Division Champion Cleveland Browns.

1958 — Buck Shaw signs as head coach replacing Hugh Devore. Eagles acquire quarterback Norm Van Brocklin in trade with Los Angeles. Team moves home games from Connie Mack Stadium to University of Pennsylvania's Franklin Field and attendance almost doubles.

1959 — With Pete Retzlaff and Tommy McDonald his chief targets, Norm Van Brocklin passes Eagles to 7-5 record and second place tie with Cleveland.

1960 — QB Norm Van Brocklin and Chuck Bednarik, who plays 60 minutes at center and linebacker, pace the Eagles to their first Eastern Division title in 11 years. The Birds then win their third NFL championship with a come-from-behind 17-13 victory over Green Bay at Franklin Field. Van Brocklin, the league's MVP, and head coach Buck Shaw both announce their retirements at the end of the season.

1961 — Nick Skorich is named head coach and Sonny Jurgensen takes over as the starting quarterback. Despite Jurgensen's record-setting season as a passer and a 10-4 record, the Eagles fail to repeat as division champions.

1962 — Injuries in unprecedented numbers hit Eagles as the team wins only three games and fails to last place.

1963 — RB Timmy Brown sets a then NFL record for total offense (2,436 yards; 841 rushing, 487 receiving, 11 passing, 945 kickoff returns, and 152 punt returns) in a season. With the club's 91 outstanding shares now held by 65 stockholders, club president Frank L. McNamee said it would be put up for sale with an asking price of 4,500,000. Jerry Wolman, a 36-year old builder and self-made millionaire from Washington outbid Philadelphia businessman Jack Wolgin and became the new owner. The sale price was $5,505,000.

1964 — Former Chicago Cardinals and Washington Redskins coach Joe Kuharich signs as head coach and begins a series of major trades to rebuild the club.

1966 — After extensive roster changes, the Eagles finish 9-5 for their first winning season in five years.

1967 — Quarterback Norm Snead and flanker Ben Hawkins set team passing and receiving records, respectively, but injuries to other key players contribute to a disappointing 6-7-1 record and a second place finish.

1969 — After Wolman's empire fell into serious financial trouble, a bankruptcy referee in U.S. District Court in Baltimore oversees the team's sale to Leonard Tose, a millionaire trucking executive. The price was a reported $16.1 million, at the time a record price for a professional sports team. Tose names former Eagles' receiving great Pete Retzlaff as general manager and Jerry Williams as head coach.

1971 — The Eagles leave Franklin Field for a new home at Veterans Stadium. After three consecutive crushing losses at the beginning of the season, assistant Ed Khayat replaces Jerry Williams (who had led the club to only a 3-10-1 mark in 1970) as head coach.

1972 — After a stormy 2-11-1 season, Tose accepts general manager Retzlaff's resignation and releases the entire coaching staff. A bright spot, however, is Harold Jackson who leads the NFL in receptions and receiving yards (62-1,048).

1973 — Under new coach Mike McCormick and new quarterback Roman Gabriel, the Eagles have an exciting offensive season but can muster only a 5-8-1 record. In his first year as a full-time receiver, Harold Carmichael becomes the second consecutive Eagle to lead the NFL in receptions (67).

1974 — Under newly appointed general manager Jim Murray, the Eagles trade with Cincinnati and acquire LB Bill Bergey. Bergey bolsters the defense and wins Pro Bowl honors along with TE Charle Young, who becomes the third consecutive Eagle to lead the league in pass receptions (63).

1976 — After a 4-10 season in 1975, Tose appoints 39-year old Dick Vermeil of UCLA as head coach but the Birds again earn a 4-10 mark.

1977 — QB Ron Jaworski is obtained from the Los Angeles Rams in exchange for the rights to TE Charle Young. Bill Bergey, keying the newly-installed 3-4 defense of coordinator Marion Campbell, wins all-pro and all-conference honors and is selected to play in his third Pro Bowl.

1978 — The Eagles post a 9-7 record, their first winning season since 1966, and make the playoffs for the first time since 1960. They lose the NFC Wild Card playoff game in Atlanta, however, 14-13 as the Falcons score two 4th-quarter TDs and Eagles' Mike Michel misses a 34-yard FG try with 1:34 to play. Wilbert Montgomery, in his first starting season, rushes for 1,220 yards to become the first Eagle since Steve Van Buren to surpass 1,000 in a season. CB Herman Edwards provided the "Miracle of the Meadowlands" when he scooped up a fumbled handoff from Joe Pisarcik to Larry Csonka and raced 26 yards for the winning touchdown with 20 seconds left to play before a stunned Giants Stadium crowd of 70,318.

1979 — With an 11-5 regular season record — their best since 1961 — the Eagles tie Dallas for first place in the NFC East and go to the playoffs as a wild card team. After beating Chicago, 27-17, in the Wild Card Game, the Birds are upset at Tampa Bay, 24-17 in a divisional playoff round. Wilbert Montgomery sets a club record with 1,512 rushing yards, and Harold Carmichael sets a then NFL record on Nov. 4, catching a pass in his 106th consecutive game. Rookie barefoot kicker Tony Franklin boots the second longest FG in NFL history — 59 yards — in a 31-21 victory at Dallas. Dick Vermeil is voted NFL coach of the year.

1980 — The Eagles win 11 of their first 12 games and go on to a 12-4 mark and the NFC East championship. The Birds trounce Minnesota 31-16, in the divisional playoff round and then upend Dallas, 20-7 at Veterans Stadium, to win the NFC title and a berth in Super Bowl XV. The Oakland Raiders prevail in that game, however, 27-10. Ron Jaworski leads the NFC with a 90.9 passing rating while throwing for 3,527 yards and 27 touchdowns. He is named NFL player of the year by the Maxwell Football Club and NFC player of the year by UPI. Harold Carmichael's then-record NFL receiving streak is snapped at 127 games when he fails to catch a pass in the regular season finale at Dallas after sustaining a back injury in the first half.

1981 — After building a 6-0 record early in the season, the Birds struggle in their final eight games, post a 10-6 record and appear in the playoffs for the fourth consecutive year but are upset at home in the NFC Wild Card Game by the NY Giants, 27-21. The Birds' defense ranks first in the NFL in fewest yards allows (4,447) and fewest points allowed (221). On offense, Harold Carmichael enjoys the third 1,000-yard receiving year of his career and Wilbert Montgomery rushes for 1,402 yards.

1982 — An NFL players' strike takes place after two games and stops play for eight weeks. When play resumes on November 21, the long layoff hurts the Eagles. After splitting their first two games of the season, the Birds come back from the strike to lose four in a row and miss the playoffs for the first time since 1977. A 24-20 Eagles' victory at Dallas on December 26 is the last victory in the Philadelphia career of head coach Dick Vermeil, who resigns shortly following the season after compiling a 55-51-0 overall record.

1983 — Marion Campbell replaces Dick Vermeil as head coach after six seasons as the Eagles' defensive coordinator. Owner and president Leonard Tose announces in January that his daughter, Susan Fletcher, the Eagles' vice president and legal counsel, would eventually succeed him as primary owner of the Eagles. After winning four of their first six games, the Eagles become mired in a seven-game losing streak and finish with a 5-11 record. The Birds' offense is highlighted by first-team all-pro and AFC-NFC Pro Bowl selection Mike Quick, who leads the league and sets club records with 1,409 yards receiving on 69 catches.

1984 — After a 1-4 start, the Eagles post a 5-5-1 record over their final 11 games. Philadelphia's swarming defense sets a then club record of 60 quarterback sacks. Wilbert Montgomery establishes the Eagles' career rushing record for yards (6,538) and attempts (1,465) surpassing the marks set by Pro Football Hall of Famer Steve Van Buren from 1944-1951. Kicker Paul McFadden establishes an Eagles' season scoring record with 116 points (tops among rookies), surpassing Bobby Walston's 30-year mark of 114, and is named NFC rookie of the year. Ron Jaworski suffers a broken leg at St. Louis in week 13, snapping his streak of 116 consecutive starts (believed to be an all-time record for NFL QBs).

YEAR-BY-YEAR HISTORY

1985 — On March 12, Leonard Tose, the Eagles' owner since 1969, announces an agreement to sell the team to Norman Braman and Ed Leibowitz, highly successful automobile dealers from Florida for a reported $65 million. After obtaining the approval of the other NFL owners and fulfilling the terms of the transaction, Braman officially becomes the Eagles' new owner on April 29. That same day, Braman elevates Harry Gamble, general manager since February 4, to vice president-general manager overseeing day-to-day operations of the club. All-time Eagles' rushing leader Wilbert Montgomery does not report to training camp and is traded to Detroit for LB Garry Cobb in pre-season. The Eagles again overcome a 1-4 start, but fall off the pace and finish 7-9. Head coach Marion Campbell is released on December 16, and Fred Bruney takes over as interim head coach for final game at Minnesota.

1986 — Buddy Ryan, defensive coordinator of the Chicago Bears' Super Bowl XX Champions, is named the 17th head coach in Eagles' history on January 29. On July 16, Norman Braman becomes the sole owner of the team, purchasing the remaining 35 percent from his brother-in-law Ed Leibowitz. Harry Gamble is promoted to president-chief operating officer. Ryan makes sweeping changes in the Eagles' roster, keeping young players and releasing several veterans. The youthful Birds struggle to a 5-10-1 record against the toughest schedule in the league. The Birds place two players on the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl roster: WR Mike Quick and DE Reggie White. White ties a Pro Bowl record with 4 sacks and is named MVP of the game.

1987 — In March, Ron Jaworski, who set nearly every club passing record from 1977-1986, is put on waivers after the club decides not to guarantee his contract. The Eagles split their first two games of the season before the NFL was beset by a players strike. After all games of Week 3 were cancelled, the NFL resumed play with replacement teams for the next three weeks. The Birds' replacement team goes 0-3 and sets the stage for a surge by the regular players when they return to work. Philadelphia's regulars proceed to win three straight after the strike and move into a tie for 2nd place in the NFC East. They go on to finish 7-8 overall (7-5 in non-strike games) and due to a tie-breaking system, rank 4th in the NFC East behind Dallas and St. Louis who also posted 7-8 marks. Offensively, WR Mike Quick earns his fifth consecutive trip to the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl while QB Randall Cunningham (Pro Bowl 1st alternate) emerges as a rising talent. Cunningham threw 23 TD passes and became the first QB to lead his team in rushing (505 yards) since the Bears' Bobby Douglas did so in 1972. The defense was led by DE Reggie White, who was named the NFL's defensive player of the year. White's 21 sacks set an NFC record and fall one shy of the NFL mark.

1988 — The Eagles post the NFL's best mark (6-1) over the final seven weeks of the regular season en route to a 10-6 record and the NFC Eastern division title. But their playoff fate is not sealed until moments after the conclusion of their 23-7 victory at Dallas in week 16. It is then that NY Jets' QB Ken O'Brien throws a TD pass to Al Toon to defeat the Giants and ensure the division title for the Eagles. Philadelphia then travels to Chicago for an NFC divisional playoff game against the Bears and a place in NFL history. The game, which begins in sunny, 29 degree weather, would later be dubbed "The Fog Bowl," after a thick fog rolls off Lake Michigan late in the 2nd quarter. Due to the fog, visibility on the playing field was extremely difficult and the Bears prevail, 20-12. The shining season included the selection of QB Randall Cunningham, DE Reggie White and TE Keith Jackson as starters in the Pro Bowl. Cunningham, who sets a number of Eagles' single-season passing records and leads the club in rushing for the second straight season, earns Pro Bowl MVP honors. He also wins the Maxwell Football Club's Bert Bell Award as the NFL's top player. White leads the NFL in sacks for the second consecutive year and Jackson sets an Eagles' receiving record with 81 catches en route to earning rookie of the year honors from The Sporting News.

1989 — The Eagles used an aggressive, ball-hungry defense — which led the NFL in takeaways (56) and interceptions (30), and set a team record with 62 QB sacks — to finish 11-5. Philadelphia, however, finished second to the Giants in the NFC East (despite two victories in head-to-head competition) and faced the LA Rams in the Wild Card playoff. Although playing a post-season game at Veterans Stadium for the first time since 1981, the Birds fell 21-7. QB Randall Cunningham posted similar numbers to his superb '88 campaign despite missing receivers Mike Quick and Keith Jackson for most of the season due to injuries. A deeper loss came on December 9, when quarterback coach Doug Scovill passed away. The second alternate to the Pro Bowl, Cunningham started for the NFC squad when injuries kept the other QBs from participating. CB Eric Allen led the NFC in interceptions with 8.

1990 — In February, Buddy Ryan hired Rich Kotite as offensive coordinator to improve the Eagles' sluggish attack. At season's end, the offense led the NFL in rushing (2,556) and time of possession (33:19) and the NFC in scoring (396) and TD passes (34). The defense led the NFL in stopping the run thereby making the Birds the first team to lead the league in both rushing categories since Chicago did so in 1985. A 10-6 record put Philadelphia in the playoffs once again, but the Eagles suffered their third opening round defeat in as many seasons. The 20-6 Wild Card Game loss to Washington signaled an end to the five-year Ryan era. QB Randall Cunningham flourished with an NFC-leading 30 TD passes and 942 rushing yards, while rookie WRs Calvin Williams and Fred Barnett combined to make 17 TD receptions. RB Keith Byars tied a team record with 81 receptions and also threw 4 TD passes.

1991 — On January 8th, team owner Norman Braman opted not to renew the contract of Buddy Ryan, the Eagles' head coach since 1986. On the same day, Braman promoted then-offensive coordinator Rich Kotite, making him the 18th head coach in club history. When the season began, the Eagles opened with a 3-1 mark, their best start since 1981, despite having lost quarterback Randall Cunningham for the year due to a knee injury suffered at Green Bay on opening day. But after coming on to lead the Eagles to their solid start, backup QB Jim McMahon was also injured in game 5. With McMahon sidelined, the Birds suffered through a four-game skid. By midseason, Philadelphia had used five quarterbacks in eight games and seen its record sink to 3-5. The Eagles regrouped, however, and surged into contention for a playoff spot with a six-game winning streak (the club's longest since the start of '81) that upped their record to 9-5. And while a loss at home to Dallas in game 15 ended Philadelphia's remarkable run toward the playoffs, the Birds finished the season with a come-from-behind, 24-22 victory over the eventual Super Bowl champion Redskins. With a record of 10-6, the Eagles joined the 49ers as the only NFL clubs to post 10-or-more wins in each of the last four seasons. The defense finished the season ranked #1 in the NFL in terms of fewest yards allowed overall, vs. the run, and vs. the pass. As such, the Birds became only the fifth club in NFL history and the first since 1975 to accomplish this rare triple. In addition, the Eagles' defense led the NFL in sacks and fumble recoveries and tied for the league lead in takeaways. Five members of that defensive unit represented the Eagles in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl — DEs Reggie White and Clyde Simmons, DT Jerome Brown, and LB Seth Joyner were selected as starters while CB Eric Allen also made the NFC squad. The selection of White, Simmons, and Brown marked only the sixth time in NFL history that three defensive linemen from one team were elected to the Pro Bowl.

1992 — The Eagles were dealt a huge blow before the season even began as all-pro defensive tackle Jerome Brown was killed in an automobile accident on June 25th in his hometown of Brooksville, FL. The tragedy overshadowed the promise of the upcoming season which included the return of QB Randall Cunningham — out almost the entire '91 season with a knee injury — as well as the addition of RB Herschel Walker whom the Eagles acquired as a free agent just three days before Brown's death. The Birds, however, opened their second season under head coach Rich Kotite with 4 straight wins. The offense struggled at midseason, however, and the defense suffered several key injuries, particularly to starting safeties Andre Waters (broken leg) and Wes Hopkins (knee). The Birds finished second in the NFC East with an 11-5 record and returned to the playoffs, earning a Wild Card victory over the Saints before dropping a Divisional Playoff to the eventual Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys. The win over the Saints was the team's first postseason victory since 1981 and its first road playoff conquest since 1949. Offensively, Walker became only the fourth Eagle to top 1,000 rushing yards in a season and the first since Earnest Jackson in '85. Off the field, a September 24th ruling by U.S. District Judge David Doty paved the way for free agency in the NFL by finding the league's "Plan B" policy in violation of federal antitrust laws and provided the four plaintiffs in the suit with an opportunity to sign with another club. Among those four was Eagles TE Keith Jackson, who four days later inked a deal with the Miami Dolphins.

1993 — In January, lawyers for the NFL and the Players Association reached agreement on a Collective Bargaining Agreement, a seven-year deal that would institute a form of limited free agency to replace the "Plan B" system. The most prominent NFL player affected by the settlement was the Eagles' all-time sack leader Reggie White, who went on to sign with the Green Bay Packers on April 5th. On the field, the Eagles produced an 8-8 record. After a flying start in which the Birds jumped out to a 4-0 record on the strength of three consecutive dramatic come-from-behind wins, season-ending injuries to QB Randall Cunningham, WR Fred Barnett and others were followed by a six-game losing streak (their worst skid since 1983). Nonetheless, the Eagles bounced back behind backup QB Bubba Brister to win 4 of their final 6 contests, a stretch that kept them in the playoff hunt until the final week of the season.

1994 — A new chapter in Eagles history began on April 6th when Norman Braman, the Birds' owner since 1985, reached an agreement in principle to sell the franchise to Boston native and Hollywood-based movie producer Jeffrey Lurie. Once NFL owners voted to approve the sale on May 6th, Lurie officially took over the club on May 17. Despite losing the season opener to the Giants, the Birds bounced back to win 7 of their next 8 contests, including a 40-8 thumping of the eventual Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers. However, the Eagles went on to drop their last 7 games, finishing 7-9 and out of the playoffs for the second consecutive season. Two days after the season finale, Rich Kotite's 4-year reign as head coach ended when he was dismissed. RB Herschel Walker etched his name into the NFL record books as the first player in the 75-year history of the league to record a 90-plus yard run, reception, and kickoff return in a single season. To appreciate the uniqueness of this feat, one need only note that just one other player - Hall-of-Famer Bobby Mitchell - had previously recorded that trifecta in a career. With back-to-back 100-yard rushing performances at SF and vs. Wash., rookie RB Charlie Garner became only the 7th back in NFL history to eclipse the century mark in his first two contests. DE William Fuller, a free agent acquisition from Houston, notched at least one sack in 7 straight games and subsequently broke the club record of 6 consecutive games shared by Reggie White and Clyde Simmons.

1995 — On February 2, owner Jeffrey Lurie named Ray Rhodes as the 19th head coach in team history. Eleven months and a playoff victory later, that decision resulted in numerous NFL coach of the year honors for Rhodes. In just his first season at the helm, the former San Francisco 49ers defensive coordinator battled through major roster turnover, a slew of injuries to key personnel, an early season QB change, and a sluggish 1-3 start to put the Eagles back on the winning track. Following that 1-3 start, Rodney Peete took over at QB for Randall Cunningham and the Birds rode the legs of running backs Ricky Watters and Charlie Garner to 9 wins in their final 12 games. The result was a 10-6 record and a spot in the playoffs for the first time since 1992. Watters, one of the NFL's most prominent free agent acquisitions of the year (he left the 49ers for the Eagles on 3/25/95), combined with Garner to give Philadelphia the league's fourth best rushing attack. Individually, Watters was 6th in the league in rushing with a career-high 1,273 yards and 11 TDs while Garner added 588 yards and 6 TDs. In the postseason, the Eagles routed the favored Detroit Lions, 58-37, in a Wild Card game, putting their name firmly in the NFL's postseason record books as they mounted a 51-7 lead and coasted to victory. Philadelphia's season, ended, however, a week later as they bowed out to the eventual Super Bowl champion Cowboys, 30-11, at Texas Stadium. At season's end, Watters, DE William Fuller (an NFC-high 13 sacks), and LB William Thomas (whose 7 INTs were the most by an NFL linebacker since 1983) represented the Eagles in the Pro Bowl. Off the field, team owner Jeffrey Lurie and his wife, Christina, oversaw the formation of Eagles Youth Partnership (EYP). The charitable wing of the Eagles, EYP was formed in order to improve the quality of life and enhance opportunities for children in the Greater Philadelphia region through education and health partnerships.

1996 — For the second consecutive year the Eagles compiled a 10-6 regular season record and earned a Wild Card playoff berth. As such, Ray Rhodes became the first coach to lead the Eagles into the playoffs in each of his first two seasons at the helm. In the NFC Wild Card game, however, the Eagles fell to the host San Francisco 49ers, 14-0, in rain-drenched 3Com Park. For the third time in six seasons, the Eagles lost their starting QB to injury early on as Rodney Peete ruptured a tendon in his right knee vs. Dallas on 9/30. Ty Detmer, the former Green Bay Packer and Heisman Trophy winner, led the Birds to four straight wins and teamed with WR Irving Fryar and RB Ricky Watters to fuel the conference's #1 offense (351.7 yds/game). Fryar recorded career highs in TDs (11) and receptions (a team-record 88) and also tied a Birds' single-game record with four TD catches vs. Miami on 10/20. Watters earned his fifth trip to the Pro Bowl - his second as an Eagle - with personal bests in rushing atts. (353), rushing yards (1,411), TDs (13), and total yards from scrimmage (1,855). He led the league in total yards from scrimmage, carries, and touches while also ranking 2nd in the NFC/4th in the NFL in rushing. DE William Fuller again led the Birds with 13 sacks en route to his 3rd straight Pro Bowl. MLB James Willis' interception in the end zone in the final moments of game 9 at Dallas sealed a win. Willis' theft off QB Troy Aikman and subsequent lateral to CB Troy Vincent resulted in a 104-yard TD return, the longest in NFL history. Prior to the season, the Birds had once again been one of the NFL's most aggressive teams in terms of free agency. The signing of Troy Vincent from Miami, along with that of Watters from San Francisco the previous year, made Philadelphia the only team to land another club's "transition" free agent in 1995 and '96.

1997 — After a 4-6 start clouded the club's shot at the post-season, the Eagles turned to 2nd-year QB Bobby Hoying. A 2-0-1 record in his first three starts brought the Birds back into contention, but ended the year with a 6-9-1 record. Along the way, they recorded thrilling victories over the defending Super Bowl champion Packers, the Steelers (who went on to reach the AFC Championship Game), and the Dallas Cowboys. Injuries plagued the club all year as 42 different players started, including three different QBs (Ty Detmer, Rodney Peete and Hoying). The Eagles recorded their worst record since going 5-10-1 in 1986 and, for the first time since 1970, failed to win an away game, posting an 0-7-1 road mark. Hoying, who started the final six games, finished 5th in the NFC with an 83.8 QB rating. WR Irving Fryar posted 86 receptions for a career-high 1,316 yards, including a team-record six 100-yd. games. RB Ricky Watters became the first Eagle to top the 1,000-yard rushing plateau in three consecutive campaigns. The defensive unit's most memorable performance came in a win vs. Green Bay when they held the Packers without a TD, snapping a string of 85 straight games (including the playoffs) in which the Pack had scored a touchdown.

1998 — A disappointing 3-13 season led to the dismissal of head coach Ray Rhodes on December 28th, one day after the season finale. In Rhodes' fourth season at the helm, the Eagles never could get on track as they were shut out by the visiting Seahawks in their season opener and slipped to 0-5 before posting their first win. 1998 marked the 15th and final season for WR Irving Fryar, who announced his retirement from pro football. Fryar finished his storied career with 784 receptions for 11,983 yards and 77 TDs. RB Duce Staley led the Eagles in rushing (1,065 yards), receptions (57), total yards from scrimmage (1,497), and TDs (6) as he became the first Eagle draft pick to top the 1,000-yd. rushing plateau since Wilbert Montgomery did so in 1981. First round pick Tra Thomas started all 16 games at LT and earned NFL all-rookie team honors. QB Koy Detmer sparked the Birds' offense late in the season, starting the final five contests and improving the club's offensive output. On defense, the Eagles procured one of the league's top, young pass rushers - Hugh Douglas - in a trade with the New York Jets in March. Douglas went on to lead the Eagles and finished 7th in the NFL with a career-high 12.5 sacks. Along the way, Douglas tied a club single-game record with 4.5 sacks at San Diego. During the season, the team also locked up a trio of young defensive starters by signing CB Bobby Taylor, FS Brian Dawkins, and DE Greg Jefferson to long-term contracts.

From 1995-97, RB Ricky Watters became the first Eagle to ever reach the 1,000-yard rushing plateau in three consecutive seasons.

VETERANS STADIUM

The Eagles have called Veterans Stadium home since 1971 after previous stops at Municipal (JFK) Stadium, Connie Mack Stadium, and Franklin Field. In their history, the Birds have also played home games at the Baker Bowl, Temple University Stadium, and Pittsburgh's Forbes Field during the 1943 season.

Veterans Stadium, known as "the Vet," is a multi-purpose sports complex located in South Philadelphia. Built on a 74-acre site, the sports complex also includes a recreational park, the First Union Spectrum indoor arena, and the new First Union Center, home of the Philadelphia Flyers and 76ers. The First Union Center was built upon the former site of JFK Stadium.

The Vet was opened before the Phillies' 1971 baseball season and was built at a cost in excess of $50 million. The Eagles and Phillies maintain their executive offices in the stadium.

In February, 1995, the field at the Vet was replaced with a new synthetic turf called Astro Turf-8. This new state-of-the-art surface features a vertical drainage system whereby water will drain through holes in the turf, its padding, and the stone and earth sub-base.

In 1986, the Eagles installed two grass practice fields in the north parking lot of the Vet. In 1992, "the Bubble," an inclement weather facility, was moved from the former JFK Stadium site to a spot adjacent to the grass practice fields. The Bubble consists of a synthetic roof supported by currents of air and covers a 70-yard Astro Turf field. It was installed by Air Structures International, Inc.

In 1985, 27 luxurious Penthouse Suites were built atop the south side of the stadium. Twenty-four more Suites were constructed the following year on the north side. Thirty-eight additional Suites on the west side were constructed in 1987 to bring the total number of Suites to 89.

The first Eagles' game at the Vet took place on August 16, 1971, when they defeated the Buffalo Bills in a preseason encounter, 34-28. The first regular season win came at the expense of the New York Giants, 23-7, on October 24, 1971.

In 28 seasons at Veterans Stadium, the Eagles have compiled an 121-98-2 record (including a 4-3 playoff mark). The seating capacity for football is 65,352.

EAGLES TELEVISION NETWORK

On February 12, 1997, the Philadelphia Eagles and WB17 announced a three-year, comprehensive local broadcast agreement. As such, WB17 will serve as the flagship station of the newly formed Eagles Television Network (ETN). The agreement provides for more Eagles local programming than any other similar arrangement in team history. WB17 is Philadelphia's sports leader, and also serves as the sports home of the Philadelphia Phillies and Flyers.

As part of this arrangement, the Eagles Television Network will extend into the Harrisburg-York-Lancaster area (the nation's 45th largest market) on WPMT FOX 43, as well as into Scranton-Wilkes-Barre (the nation's 47th largest market) on WOLF FOX 56.

In 1999, ETN will air the following programs:

Eagles Preseason Games – The Eagles Television Network will broadcast the entire Eagles preseason schedule in 1999. WPHL (WB-17) carries the games live in the Philadelphia area. WPMT airs the games to our fans in Harrisburg, York and Lancaster, and WOLF airs the games in Scranton-Wilkes Barre. Each game is re-aired after the live broadcast on the previously mentioned Eagles Television Network affiliate stations as well as on Comcast SportsNet.

The Penn Orthopaedics Andy Reid Show – Eagles head coach Andy Reid steps into prime time for a thirty-minute show that will air every Saturday at 10:30 p.m. throughout the football season on the Eagles Television Network flagship station, WB-17. Reid will offer his unique insights on the Birds' upcoming opponent as well as on other topical issues related to the Eagles and the NFL. Hosts Mike Dardis and Dave Spadaro will join Coach Reid and special guests for a season's worth of inside information. WPMT, WOLF and Comcast SportsNet will re-air the show.

Modell's Sunday Wrap – This Emmy-nominated half-hour show will air on Sunday evenings at 10:30 p.m. on WB-17, and will provide Eagles fans with the definitive source for Eagles highlights, interviews and reactions concerning that day's game. Other highlights include "locker room footage" no one else has access to, and an exclusive one on one post-game interview with head coach Andy Reid. "The Wrap" is re-aired on WPMT and Comcast SportsNet.

Inside The Eagles – Hosted by defensive tackle Hollis Thomas, this weekly program gives viewers an "inside" look at the Eagles players and their lives. WTXF Fox-29 has the exclusive broadcast rights to Inside the Eagles and airs it Saturdays at 12:30 p.m. Off-the-field segments highlight the personalities and excitement that surrounds the team as ETN's cameras capture exclusive footage each week. Eagles Insider Dave Spadaro and NFL Films Director of Archives, Ace Cacchiotti, round out the talent on this fast-paced and cutting edge program.

Reid Out Loud – This half hour program is Philadelphia's first chance to catch Coach Reid's press conference and all that it entails. Witness Coach Reid field questions from the press and recap the top issues and events surrounding the game. Reid Out Loud airs on Comcast SportsNet Monday evenings at 7:30 p.m. and 11:30 p.m.

IMPORTANT DATES

July 15	Signing period ends at 4 PM (ET) for Unrestricted Free Agents to whom June 1 tender was made by Old Club, Transition Players, and Franchise Players who are eligible to receive Offer Sheets. After this date and through 4 PM (ET) on November 16, Old Club has exclusive negotiating rights to these players.
August 13	If a Drafted Rookie has not signed with his club by this date, he may not be traded to any other club in 1999.
August 31	Roster cutdown to maximum of 65 players on Active List by 4 PM (ET).
September 5	Roster cutdown to maximum of 53 players on Active/Inactive List by 4 PM (ET). NFL Europe League exemptions expire. Clubs may dress minimum of 42 and maximum of 45 players and Third Quarterback for each regular season and postseason game.
September 6	After 4 PM (ET) clubs may establish a Practice Squad of five players by signing free agents who do not have an accrued season of free agency credit or who were on the 45-player Active List for less than nine regular season games during their only Accrued Season(s). A player cannot participate on the Practice Squad for more than two seasons.
September 10	Clubs are required to identify their 49-player Active List by 7 PM (ET) on this Friday and thereafter on each Friday before a regular season Sunday game. No later than one hour and 30 minutes prior to kickoff, clubs must identify their 45-player Active List and Third Quarterback, if any.
September 28	Priority on multiple waiver claims is now based on current season's standings.
October 19	All trading ends at 4 PM (ET).
October 20	Players with at least four previous pension-credited seasons are subject to the waiver system for the remainder of the regular season and postseason.
November 8	Deadline for 1999 for an increase in a player's Salary to be counted as Salary for the current year. Any increase in a player's 1999 Salary negotiated after this date will be treated as a Signing Bonus.
November 16	Deadline for clubs to sign by 4 PM (ET) their unsigned Franchise and Transition Players. If still unsigned after this date, such players are prohibited from playing in NFL in 1999.
November 16	Deadline for clubs to sign by 4 PM (ET) their Unrestricted and Restricted Free Agents to whom June 1 tender was made. If still unsigned after this date, such players are prohibited from playing in NFL in 1999.
November 16	Deadline for clubs to sign Drafted players by 4 PM (ET). If such players remain unsigned, they are prohibited from playing in NFL in 1999.
December 4	Deadline for reinstatement of players in Reserve List categories of Retired, Did Not Report and Exclusive Rights, and of players who were placed on Reserve/Left Squad in a previous season.
December 31	Deadline for waiver requests in 1999, except for "special waiver requests" which have a 10-day claiming period, with termination or assignment delayed until after the Super Bowl.
January 4	Clubs may begin signing free agent players for the 2000 season.
January 8-9	Wild Card Playoff Games.
January 15-16	Divisional Playoff Games.
January 23	AFC and NFC Championship Games.
January 30	Super Bowl XXXIV, Atlanta, Georgia.
February 6	AFC-NFC Pro Bowl, Honolulu, Hawaii.
February 10	Deadline for clubs to designate Franchise and Transition Players.
February 10	Expiration date of all player contracts due to expire in 2000.
February 11	Free Agency period begins.
February 24-28	Combine Timing and Testing, RCA Dome, Indianapolis, Ind.
March 26-30	NFL Annual Meeting, Breakers Hotel, Palm Beach, Florida.
April 15-16	Annual Player Selection Meeting, New York, N.Y.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS AND PICK-UP:

News media representatives who have not been issued season press credentials should request single-game credentials in advance by writing or calling the Eagles' public relations department, 3501 South Broad Street, Philadelphia, PA 19148-5201 (Phone: 215-463-2500 ... FAX: 215-339-6745). Written requests, either mailed or faxed should be on company letterhead. Credentials reserved in advance can be picked up at the Press Gate/ Security Entrance below Gate B off Pattison Ave. (not the Will Call Window) three hours before the scheduled kick-off. Media members who regularly cover the visiting team should arrange to acquire their credentials through that team's PR department.

PRESS BOXES: The Eagles maintain three press boxes, designated A, B, and C, on the fourth level of Veterans Stadium. Admission to the press area is strictly limited to those individuals holding credentials issued by the Eagles' public relations department. No other media identification cards will be honored. All news media should enter the stadium through the press gate (Pattison Ave. side of the Stadium). Those with credentials for the press box should take the elevator to the fourth level.

TELEPHONES: Game day telephone lines at an assigned seat can be ordered by calling Bell Atlantic at 800-700-8297.

TELEVISION AND RADIO: Network television and visiting radio facilities are located on the 4th level between press boxes A and B. Visiting radio credentials will be issued through the visiting team's PR representative. Television announcers may do stand-ups on the field in pregame, half-time, during the last three minutes of play, and post game. Television "announcers" and producers are not allowed on the sidelines except during these aforementioned periods.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Sideline credentials for field photographers are issued by the Eagles' public relations department only. Space limitations make it impossible to accredit free lance photographers who are not on specific assignment by a recognized sports or news publication. Photographers should enter the press gate (B) and take the elevator to the first (field) level. Space on the fourth level photo deck is extremely limited and available only on a reserved basis. All field photographers are reminded that they must remain outside the bench areas and behind the broken lines that surround the entire perimeter of the playing field.

LOCKER ROOMS: Admission to the home and visiting locker rooms after a game is controlled by each team. There is absolutely no admission to the locker room before or during a game. The Eagles' head coach and quarterback will meet with the media in an interview room across the hall from the Eagles' locker room. Please contact the Eagles' public relations department for a schedule of locker room availability during the regular season.

PRESS CLUB: Admittance to the Press Club before, during, and after the game is limited to working media and Eagles' staff holding appropriate credentials.

DIRECTIONS FROM AIRPORT TO VET STADIUM:

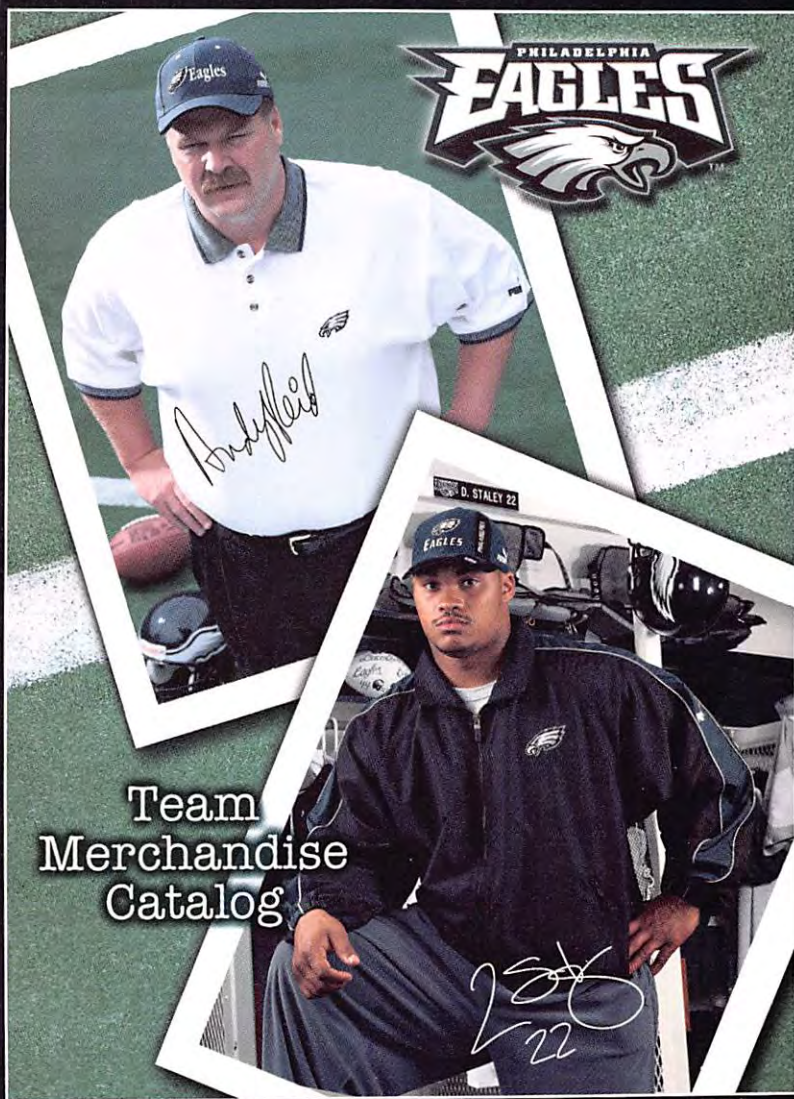

Take I-95 north for approximately 6 miles to Broad Street exit. Go straight on Broad for two lights. The stadium is located at the intersection of Broad and Pattison Ave. NOTE: Eagles' practice fields are located in the north parking lot of the stadium. The entrance to the stadium's VIP parking lot is off of Broad Street.
